Dedication

How great is the warmth of a bonfire! How bright the light it sets aglow. Each twig and limb contributes to the dancing flames that crackle with delight as they help to warm the hands of a spirited Van Horn crowd and generate enthusiasm in each one. The glowing faces of these Falcons reflect the secret of a successful bonfire, of a successful team, of a successful school—spirit, spirit that is sparked by unity, friendship, and loyalty to your school.

This school spirit is the fuel of Van Horn High. The greatness of its warmth, the brightness of its light depends upon the contribution and support of each Falcon.

The FALCON staff of 1964 dedicates this annual to the vibrant, ever-burning school spirit of Van Horn High School. May each of you kindle this spirit and keep its flame aglow.

STAFF

Principal

Dear Van Horn Students:

It is my fervent wish that this may have been a satisfying and profitable school year for every boy and girl in our school. Yet we all know that various ones of us will have achieved different measures of growth and success.

To those who are graduating, you have our best wishes as you undertake more advanced study or take jobs in the many fields of employment. We are confident that those students who have been serious and purposeful in their school work have achieved intellectual growth, emotional maturity, and a substantial fund of additional knowledge and skill. This growth and the habits and attitudes you have acquired will serve you well as you pursue future goals and aspirations. We urge you always to seek to learn and improve yourselves and to dedicate yourselves to noble causes and lofty ambitions. Come back to visit us when you can.

To those who have made good records of citizenship and achievement this year, we at once congratulate you and admonish you that good work can best serve to inspire and challenge one to do better work, and we remind you that a good start can win the race only if it is followed by a strong finish.

To those whose accomplishments have fallen short of their hopes and ambitions, let me suggest that you not be discouraged, but that you consider the end of the year a time to identify and analyze your mistakes and shortcomings and to plan and prepare for a new beginning next year; a new beginning in which your goals are more clearly in mind and in which you will be better organized and more systematic and persistent in your work.

There are those who will be tempted to leave school before graduation. Our plea to you is that you consider this matter well in light of the most important personal goals you have set for yourself; and if you have not given serious thought to your future, please do so before making this fateful decision. A person can make few decisions of more permanent and impressive significance than those which affect his education.

To all of you: Your friendly cooperation and loyalty is appreciated. Have a good summer. I hope to see you next year.

Sincerely,
E. E. Curtis

Mr. Fred Heine, Vice-Principal, assists in efficiently maintaining smooth operation in many phases of school life. Signing admits, handling disciplinary problems, scheduling classes, enrolling students, and presiding over Inter-Society meetings are only a portion of his many responsibilities. Mr. Heine's interest and enthusiasm in Van Horn activities designate him as an ardent and loyal Falcon.

Mr. Harry Cloverdyke, counselor, has coped with many a bewildered senior and helped him regain confidence in himself by his patient guidance. He is also a co-sponsor of the Senior Class.

Mr. Ben King, counselor, serving Van Horn students for six years, has often offered a helping hand to pupils seeking aid in solving educational and personal problems. Assisting with enrollment, selecting pupils for special classes and activities, and testing for scholarships, are only a few of the many duties which he is faced with.

Miss Helen Johnson, counselor, has helped with student problems of financial aid, employment, and college for the past nine years. Many fortunate Falcons have received her qualified advice.

Under the leadership of Mrs. R. G. Richter, Van Horn's Parent Teachers Association contributes greatly to the improvement and success of our school. These devoted parents serve at the football and basketball dinners, distribute school information, and sell savings stamps once a week during the lunch periods.

This year the P.T.A. Executive Board was composed of twenty-five enthusiastic parents. This organization endeavored to solve students' problems by bringing about better relations between the parents and teachers and by developing in them a fuller understanding of the educational system.

As we, the seniors of '64, leave Van Horn's hallowed halls, we leave with future Falcons our activities, traditions, and ambitions for the success of the school. We leave memories of queens, dances, and teachers who helped us attain our first pinnacle of success. We leave thoughts of participating in Van Horn's stage productions, sports activities, and organizations in which we were active.

Student Council

This year's Student Council, headed by Penny Kern, President, and William Vardyan, Sponsor, worked diligently to organize traditional projects such as the various dances, the chili supper, student identification cards, directories, and loyalty week. New activities on this year's agenda included a Hootenanny, safety week, giving Thanksgiving baskets to the needy, and organizing a new A.F.S. club. Again the officers and several other representatives attended the National Student Council Convention which was held this year at the University of Missouri Lab School, where Van Horn ran for the office of Vice-President.

Mr. William Vardyan
Sponsor

To all my dear friends and teachers at Van Horn! When I begin to think of my wonderful experience in the American society and in Van Horn, I'm scared that I might never have applied for the A.F.S. I would have stayed the same as before and never got the opportunity to meet, love and talk to a people which I had only got to admire through books.

I came to America to understand its people by observing their good and bad sides, for I strongly believe that this is what understanding is. When entering New York harbor in 1900 weather (which is very hard for a Viking), I tried to eliminate all my European images of America and accept it as it is. I have seen your bad and good sides, dear friends, and have found that the good ones are lovable and the bad ones forgiveable.

By observing and participating in the life of Van Horn, my family and the American society, my mind has grown to one of broadness. At least, I'm less stubborn about my Europeans than when I left Norway. You have failed to Americanize me, but you have made me love you by your broad smiles and strong beliefs. I have gained more from this year than I ever thought I would. I have found an active social life by which I have acquired a new prospective of life, the American people and their vast democracy. All this I could not have gained without your acceptance of me as an individual and not as a stranger. You have adapted me as one of yours in your social life through friendship and I learned to know your human qualities by talking and learning from you. My thoughts about you change from week to week as I get to know more and more people and I have found that we are all alike. We are all human-beings with the same feelings and beliefs in what is right, even if our different political or social opinions have led to some "hot" discussions.

Before I came I was impressed by statistics, skyscrapers, washing machines and so forth. Now I realize the only way to know a country is to know the people who make it work. Even more by your hospitality, I'm struck by your wonderful informality and willingness to help. You have all made me at home in your country, of which you can be proud. I remember your smiles and kindness the first days at school when my confused "self" was in a bewilderment. You are all living in the heart of America and your people whose hearts have warmth, openness, and giving. You have also enabled me to give—to give of myself and my beloved country. By words, thought and givings, we have got to understand each other.

Your school spirit has impressed me, even if I hated the football games with its screaming, pushing and popcorn. How uncultural! Later I came to accept it as an American way of expressing joy and to fool each other. You have taught me all your crazy dances and ridiculous "slang" expressions and I do have appreciation, even if my Norwegian teachers will be shocked. My dear friends, it is for your eagerness, love and informality I will remember you—not for your skyscrapers or red sportscars.

My teachers have largely contributed to my happy and rich experiences by their patience and helpfulness. The first time you said to me "Hi, hon" and I will never forget it. Independence, Van Horn and my family will always be my "image" of America. My school is of course the best one even if we lose all the games and my family and town are the most lovable and fabulous. My happiness and gratitude toward my family is beyond expressions. They have helped me in all my doings and opened their hearts and homes of love to me. You have all aroused my admiration and love and will always be a part of my thoughts and feelings. We have got to understand each other and I strongly believe that understanding is the only way to survival in our world of today.

I'm proud to bring home my rich American Experiences.

From your Norwegian friend.

One of the new organizations emerging in the busy Falcon activities is the A. F. S. Club, sponsored by William Vardyan, and headed by Sheila Beaman. The club's function is to raise money for the foreign exchange student of the on-coming year. The members arrange the social activities of the student and help him become familiar with his school and community. This group also sponsors the annual Foreign Exchange Student Dance and the A.F.S. Week.

Students who belong to the Junior Red Cross gain a desire and responsibility to help those who are less fortunate than themselves. Again this year the members carried out the tradition of filling Christmas stockings which were distributed at various hospitals in the area.

In the spring, this organization, under the direction of its sponsor, Mrs. Helen Viles, held a dance as one of their money-making projects, and its proceeds were added to the individual contributions.

Officers: Nancy Morgenstern, Vice President; Ann Lauber, Sgt.-at-Arms; Marilea Adney, Parliamentarian; Donna LaFountain, President.

Each year during the Christmas season, the Red Cross fills stockings for Veterans' Hospital.

Spring

"Ah, Wilderness!"
Spring Play of 1964, "Ah, Wilderness!" was a comedy set in the early 1900's. The life and love of Richard Miller, rebel teenager, passed in light review before audiences on March 13th and 14th. The effort of the cast was apparent in the quality of the final production.

Spring

Van Horn's 1964 Spring Musical was the timeless Rodgers and Hammerstein tale "The King and I," portraying the story of an English governess, Anna Leonowens, who was hired as a school-teacher to the children of the Siamese king in 1861. The show enjoyed great success under the able direction of William Cofer on the evenings of April 17 and 18, and on the afternoon of April 19.

For every successful team, there are reasons for achievement. One must consider the leadership, player material, team work, and all important, schedule. When the ingredients are mixed properly, success is attained. Excellent leadership was again demonstrated by coaches Bill Fessler, Art Davis, and Herb McCoy. Van Horn's varsity football team fought hard at every game—win or lose. They finished with a 3-6 record in the interscholastic league.

Varsity Basketball Coach Roger Wendel

Early in the season Van Horn cagers were proud to proclaim a victory over William Chrisman 50 to 46. The team won one league game to tie for last in the league. Their overall standing was 4-14. The boys learned to work together as a team. Regardless of their final record, they always demonstrated good sportsmanship and a sense of fair play. Such facts as holding the highest number of free throws and a high percentage of total baskets, lighten the discouraging season.

The Junior Varsity roundballers opened the 1963-64 basketball season by defeating Northeast and Westport to receive the first place trophy in the Northeast Tournament.

The team, composed mostly of sophomores, had an over-all record of six wins and nine losses. Managing only two wins in the Interscholastic League contest, they placed seventh in the league.

These boys demonstrated the kind of teamwork and desire that prepares them for higher scale play.

Finis Coronat Opus

I

So ends our book of '64.
The pages are filled with "goodies" galore.
From cover to cover it is complete
With everything in it from fires to feet.

II

Mr. Jones was there in time of need,
But Roger always took the lead.
The pictures are there because of Luann,
And Sherry wrote copy with lots of "ands."

III

From sophomores to seniors the pages flew fast;
With Paula and Glenda the book added
"class."
Then Penny and Liz brought Clubs into view,
From STUCO to Finance and Super Falc too.

IV

Bands and Choirs marched into line
As Sandra and Eva finished in time?
Through splashes and hurdles, baskets and cleats
Peggy and Carol covered Sport meets.

V

But the one who sweated and paved the road
Was Tandy, the girl who counted the gold.
Then last but not least came Sheila and Chris
With the ABCing they couldn't miss.

VI

Now that it's ended we're exhausted and tired,
But with the crack of the whip we met the DEADline.
