*"They are not long,
The days of wine and roses."*

Sometimes feelings and sentiments are not best expressed in writing, for some impressions and experiences are so uniquely individual that words can not convey the entire scope of our emotions. Although poets are rare among us, there are few who cannot understand pictures; a photograph captures forever a memorable moment, and holds time still. As a favorite melody brings to mind the almost forgotten moments, a picture can represent and recall things as they once were. Remembering the joys, the anxieties, the loves, and the expectations of the year, let these photographs be a reminder of these days...

MRS. GAILA HUNTER

Aside from the necessary routine of checking books in and out, the library staff is faced by the task of selecting and ordering new books. Van Horn's childrens' library is headed by Miss Margaret Whiteford and staffed by Mrs. Gaila Hunter, Mrs. Nicki Kimball and Miss Cade Williams. The student library staff is composed of Mrs. Eileen Marshall, Mrs. Nadine Phipps and Mrs. Betty Shock under the direction of Miss Mary Kreeger.

The four members of Van Horn's office staff are a familiar part of school life to most students. The school is kept running smoothly through their cooperative effort; however, each has a specific area which she is in charge of. Mrs. Amermon is the school registrar, Mrs. Dunkerly is the financial secretary, Mrs. Smith keeps the attendance records up to date, and Mrs. Thomas is the correspondence secretary.

SCHOOL LIFE

From contemplation one may become wise, but knowledge comes only from study.

Edward Newton

I would not anticipate the relish of any happiness, nor feel the weight of any misery, before it actually arrives.

Spectator

Time cools, time clarifies; no mood can be maintained quite unaltered through the course of hours.

Thomas Mann

Cannot the heart in the midst of crowds feel frightfully alone?

Charles Lamb

Happiness is like time and space — we make and measure it ourselves; it is a fancy — as big, as little, as you please; just a thing of contrasts and comparisons.

• Busson du Maurier

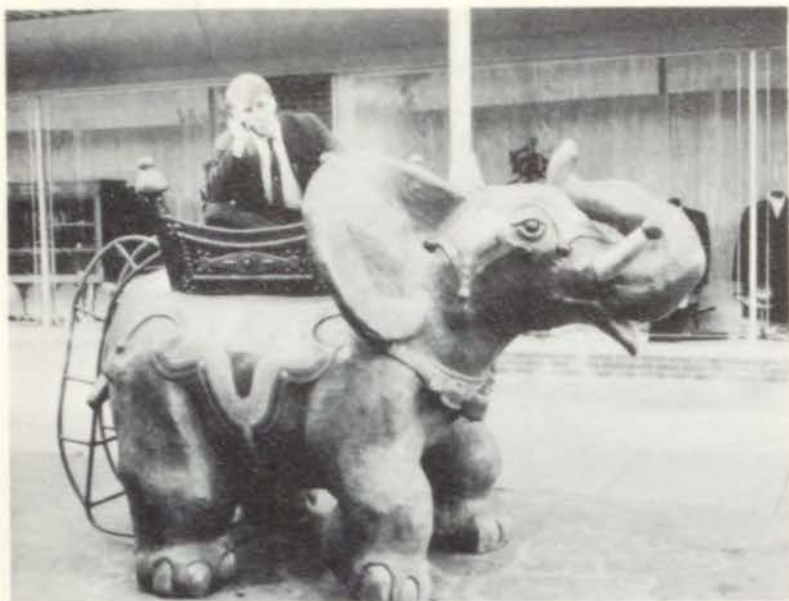

*For Satan finds some mischief still
For idle hands to do.*

FALCON STAFF

As members of the annual staff, we suffered from pre-deadline hypertension and post-deadline let-down. But we finally attained our goal—the yearbook you're now holding in your hands. Our intention was to distill from everyday school life the thousands of moments that make a year memorable and to crystallize them in the 1967 FALCON. It's our hope that the FALCON will serve as a visual reminder of your year at Van Horn.

C.O.E.

Mr. Amos

Cooperative Occupational Education classes are geared to those students who wish to gain vocational training while completing their high school education. The C.O.E. program operates under the direction of Mr. Amos and enables the students to learn what will be expected of them in their prospective occupational fields. These students spend part of their day at Van Horn taking the hour-long C.O.E. class, as well as other classes necessary for graduation. The remainder of the day is spent at their respective places of employment acquiring valuable on-the-job-training.

"A Tale of Chelm"

Students entered "The World of Sholom Aleichem" by Arnold Perl in one of the two stories presented in this year's Thespian Assembly. The first story, "A Tale of Chelm," involved a Melamed's attempts to buy a female goat. His struggles developed into an enchanting tale sparkling with Jewish humor.

VANTASIA '66

For the first time this year Vantasia was presented on one night only: on Saturday, October 22, the curtain opened to a standing-room-only crowd. The theme for the annual all-school talent show was "The American Scene". The range of talent included singing by both Concert and Girls' Choirs, music by Van Horn's Stage Band, dancelines and comedy acts. A commercial with Karen Martin hurling a cream pie at Marsha Bates and an impersonation of Jonathan Winters were two of the slightly zany happenings on "The American Scene". Masters of Ceremonies Kirk Barnett, Diane Campbell, Larry Wood and Jana Youngblood were on hand to help set the stage for the various acts.

THE curious savage

Brenda Lewis
"Mrs. Savage"

The Fall Play this year was John Patrick's farce, "The Curious Savage". Loosely, the plot revolves around a woman who is committed to an institution by her children so that they can appropriate her money. But getting Mrs. Savage committed is only half the battle and the ensuing attempts of her loving children to outwit their "insane" mother are hilarious. Mrs. Savage and her fellow inmates contrast sharply with their visitors from the outside world and leave the audience wondering which could more correctly be termed sane".

INHERIT THE WIND

The drama department scored one of its biggest successes with its production of "Inherit the Wind." The play is based on the famous Tennessee "Monkey Trial" of the 1950's. More than just a dramatization of the Scopes trial, however, "Inherit the Wind" is a powerful story of the conflict between bigotry and tolerance, ignorance and enlightenment. The talented cast was directed by Mr. Robert Klamm, and featured John DeStefano, Joe Fowler, Bev Jamison, and Ken McDowell. The play drew large, receptive audiences at both performances.

OKLAHOMA

"Oklahoma!" is Rogers' and Hammerstein's delightful musical about the proud, complex, and loveable people who lived in Indian Territory just after the turn of the century. In 1962 the Spring Musical, "Oklahoma!", was so successful that it became a criteria for subsequent productions. This year the music department once again brought "Oklahoma!" to the Van Horn stage and the result was a new standard of excellence. Under Mr. Cofer's direction, the cast recreated all the color and excitement of Oklahoma life and all the warmth and charm of such characters as Laurey, Curly, Ado Annie, Will and Aunt Eller.

BISTRUP
LARSEN

AMERICAN FIELD
SERVICE STUDENT,

1967

It won't be long now until I'll go back to Denmark. When this happens, I shall go back with the memories of all the different things I have seen over here—memories about Kansas City, about most of the states, and about Van Horn where I spent most of my time during my stay in the United States. I really have enjoyed being a student at Van Horn.

I had many experiences at Van Horn that I had never thought I would have before I left. I remember the football games in the beginning of the year, the basketball games during the winter, the French club, Red Cross, Sigma Tau, and, of course, the AFS club. The assemblies were also new to me and my first impression was, "What a great auditorium this school has!"

There are so many things I would like to thank you for. Thanks to everybody for being so kind in the beginning of the year so that the start was easy for me. Thanks for all the rides I got (I think I got about 75) and thank you very much for having me at Van Horn.

I hope you liked to have me at Van Horn just as much as I liked to be here.

Best wishes to all, Hans.

Van Horn's Varsity Football Squad opened its record-breaking season with an unprecedented victory over the William Chrisman Bears. The Falcons went undefeated in non-league play and compiled the best overall mark in Van Horn's football history with eight wins, one loss, and one tie: losing to a strong Southwest team and fighting Central to a 13-13 tie. In league play the gridsters set another record as they bested last year's tie for second by taking sole possession of the leagues' number two position. Led by Coach Herb McCoy and Assistant Coach Joe Klein, the squad enjoyed its best season to date.

VARSITY ROUNDBALLERS

This year for the first time, Van Horn's Varsity Basketball Team was led by Coach Wally Crawford. The Roundballers ranked in the first division of both the Interscholastic and Heart of America Tournaments and captured second in the William Jewel Tourney. The Falcons had a good showing this year in view of the many injuries they sustained. With seven returning juniors, the team shows great promise for next year.

JUNIOR VARSITY

The Junior Varsity Basketball Team also acquired a new coach this year, as Mr. Klein assumed head duties. The Falcs overcame Van Horn's arch rival, Southeast, 64-62 in an overtime clinch. Coming into their own at the end of the season, the B-Team closed with a 6 game winning streak and proved itself as a strong foundation for next year's varsity.

Whether the Falcons were winning or losing, Van Horn's Varsity Cheerleaders were there to help spur them to their best effort. The girls promoted school spirit by leading cheers at all games and pep assemblies. They attended Cheerleading Clinic at Jonesboro during the summer and took second place in the semifinals.
