We, the members of the 1969 FALCON Staff, in order to form a more perfect yearbook, have courageously endured the many trials and tribulations which contribute to the production of a great annual. We have all experienced the torment of making deadlines, the pleasure of wandering the halls during 7th hour, and the pride of sharing the work as well as the fun. Ask the staff for a quick definition of Excedrin Headache #1969, and we'll reply "The Yearbook"!

But the effort was not made in vain as you can see from the book you're holding now. It is our sincerest wish that the 1969 FALCON serves as a delightful reminder of your year at Van Horn.

Orgon

This year's Fall Play, presented by the Van Horn Drama Department, was Moliere's "Tartuffe." Tartuffe is a thoroughly rotten villain who worms his way into the elegant home of Orgon by pretending to be the world's most pure of religious men. All but Orgon and his mother see Tartuffe for what he is: but it is not until Tartuffe nearly steals Orgon's wife, daughter, and the deed to the house that Orgon will admit he has stupidly allowed himself to be duped. Moliere shows us how people stupidly can allow themselves to believe anything they want to believe, despite mountains of evidence to the contrary.

Laugh-In Vantasia '69

The traditional Vantasia emerged this year as Laugh-In '69. Between the familiar dance lines, piano solos and other variety acts were the laugh-in segments. These included such characters as Henry Cook, the dirty ole man, and Ruth Bussi. Providing entertainment between acts were the Master of Ceremonies Diana Watts, Jane Young, Jim Tyree, and Paul Pester.

The Rainmaker

"The Rainmaker" takes place on a western cattle ranch during a paralyzing drought. Here we find a shy girl searching for romance. Afraid that she will become an old maid, her father and two brothers try every method possible in hopes of matrimony, only to find that this quest is as fruitless as the one for rain.

Suddenly, with the Rainmaker comes the promise of an answer to both problems, rain and romance.

THESPIAN ASSEMBLY "Our Town"

This year the Thespians' traditional assembly was "Our Town." Thornton Wilder wrote "Our Town" in an attempt to pull the audience into the play and make them a part of the production. He gives the audience a chance to see backstage and provides more of an idea of a rehearsal setting than of realism. If the viewer gives careful attention to the play, he will be delighted to see the imagined props become almost real. Yet, the characters are very real and much like ourselves, and this is where the enjoyment lies finding that the play tells us something important about ourselves.

Sat Yun Loo, Malaysia

Before I came to the United States, I had very little idea of what my year here would be like. But now it is almost over I can say without any doubt that it has been a most wonderful and worthwhile year to me. I have made so many new friends I sometimes have to stop and think before I call out their names, and gained so much knowledge it makes me realize how little I know. But most of all, it has been a great experience to be an AFS student at Van Horn.

It is a neat school and I am honored to be one of its students, even for only a short year. When I go home I know I will miss all the fun we have in class and out of class. I will also miss walking through overcrowded hallways. The first time I saw so many students in one school it reminded me of the out-of-business sale my family took me to on the day I arrived in Kansas City. The place was so crowded you really had to watch where you were going. And I will always remember the fun I had with the pep club cheering and yelling at the football and basketball games. The assemblies are also new to me, but I have enjoyed all of them. These happy memories will be with me wherever I go. It's been like living in a big family, and I wish I knew all of you, even though I don't. And I will never forget all the people who helped to make my year a happy one. I want to wish everyone of you the best of luck in whatever you do and wherever you go. I am looking forward to welcoming any of you who happen to come to Malaysia.

Love,

Sat

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

Working together with one of the finest Pep Clubs in Van Horn's history, the Varsity Cheerleaders promoted spirit and enthusiasm throughout the student body. Sponsoring bonfires, pep assemblies, and spirit week, the cheerleaders helped to get Van Horn students to support their teams. Attending a clinic at Indianola, Iowa, the Varsity Cheerleaders returned with four blue ribbons in daily competition and the Grand Champs trophy in final competition.

FALCON

SPIRIT

In Memoriam

College football star at 150lbs. played offense and defense.

Coach DeHardt choosing the first football uniform. (Son Jay holding jersey.)

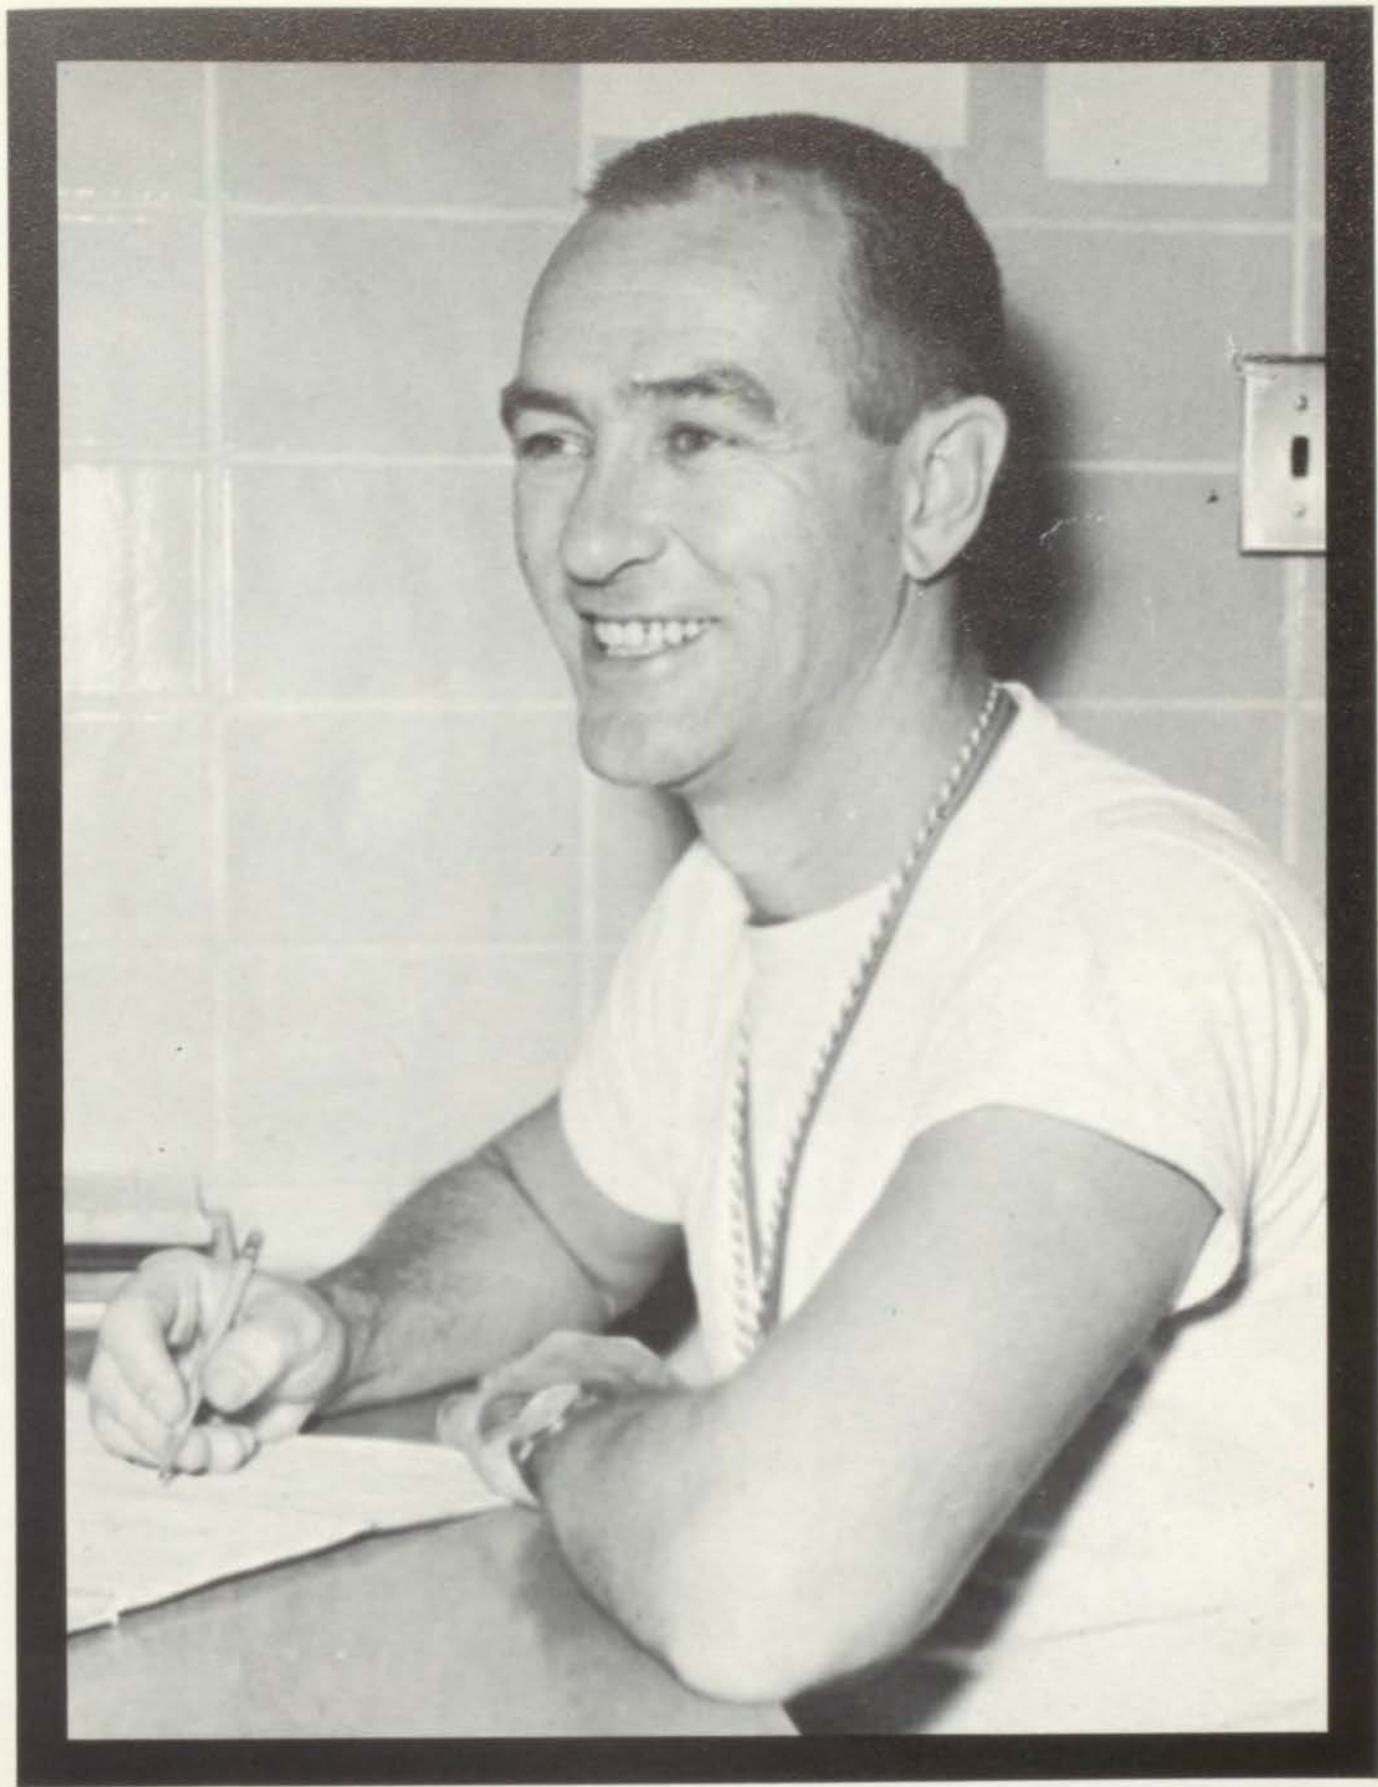

Coach DeHardt and a few of his men. Varsity footballers.

Coach DeHardt was notified, while Van Horn was being built, that he would be its first football coach; now his life ambition had been attained. He then eagerly tried to teach the sciences of sports and sportsmanship to the youths of our community.

The Championship Team

Became the first and only coach to ever win an Inter-Scholastic League championship from Van Horn.

William David DeHardt
February 5, 1925-February 25, 1969

I just barely got in this picture.
