mr. evans

longfellow once said, "great men stand like solitary towers ." surely he was describing such a man as our new principal, mr. evans.

the innumerable duties of principal were handled excellently by mr. evans. he established himself well with both students and teachers. mr. evans is a truly dedicated principal and we wish him good fortune in his future years.

the king and i

Rodgers and Hammerstein's "The King and I" was this year's musical production under the direction of William Cofer. This year's cast, which numbered nearly 100 with extras including children, was headlined by Jim Tibbs, Ray Palmer, Rosanna Wilson, and Suni Russell. The story of a king in a changing world is complicated by an English school mistress who believes in human equality. She fights for the rights of slaves and concubines of the king and having won them, finds her victory hallow because she loses the friendship of the king.

Music was furnished by the orchestra under the direction of Wallace Fike.

thespian assembly

the monkey's paw

A story of suspense and horror was presented this year by Van Horn's Thespian Troupe No. 1313 as Thespian Assembly. "The Monkey's Paw" is the story of a superstitious farm family who is affected by the story of an old army major who tells the tale of a charmed monkey's paw which will grant three wishes. The paw turns on the family and their only son is killed. This year's production, under the direction of Robert Klamm, starred Karen Bufton, Kelly Bufton, Randy Berkebile, Steve Shields, and Jim Tibbs.

vantasia

Flicker Follies was the theme of this year's all school variety show, directed by William Cofer and Wallace Fike. The theme was carried out through slides of screen stars on the side walls, skits by EMcees of old movie situations and songs from motion pictures. This year's EMcees were: Bob Buccholz, Brad Frohock, Susan Gaunt, Ray Palmer, Brad Richerson, Suni Russell and Rosanna Wilson.

a midsummer

Shakespeare's farce comedy of two pair of lovers lost in a wood inhabited by a quarreling King and Queen of the fairies and a mischievous Puck, was presented as this year's drama department offering. "A Midsummer Night's Dream" was a first for the Kansas City area since no other high school group had ever presented Shakespeare. Under the direction of Robert Klamm, the play was presented March 25th and 27th. Headlining the show were: Karen Bufton, Kelly Bufton, Richard Kaler, Joy Domsch, Ted Greble, Susan Graham, Jim Tibbs, and Gary Miller.

1971

Dear Falcons

This has been a very special year for me, full of surprises and new experiences. I have been meeting lots of people, learning new and interesting things and keeping busy working or having fun.

Everything has been exciting for me, the dances at school, the games with Pep Club, lunch time in the cafeteria, the assemblies, the meetings after school, going home on the bus and all of the minutes in Van Horn.

The most important for me is how many friends I found here. Each one of you that I had the opportunity to know, gave me help with my English in the first weeks of school and made me feel at home all the time.

I wish I had words to tell how much you mean to me and how hard it will be to leave Van Horn and all of you when the school year finishes and it is time to go back to Brazil. I will miss all the wonderful time I spent with my family at Van Horn, and with all of you. I hope I can come back some day or you can come see me in Brazil. Thank you for being so friendly. I will never forget you.

Love,

Regina

Van Horn finished their 1970 football season tied for second place with Central in the Interscholastic League with five wins and two losses. The Falcons placed after Southeast and Southwest, who tied for first in the league.

The League games were preceded by three non-Interscholastic losses to Chrisman, Oak Park, and Rockhurst, all in which Van Horn scored a single touchdown against Oak Park and allowed sixty-one points to the three teams combined.

Four Falcons made the Interscholastic All-Star first team—for offense, were Steve Brewington, 6' 2", 223lb. fullback; Mark Becker 6' 2", 223lb. tackle; Jim Warren, 6' 1", 219lb. guard. On defense was Tony Velder, 5' 9", 145lb. halfback. The second team included Rowland Fowler as quarterback, offensively, and John Palmer as a defensive end. Mike Asher, end; Dave Gillis, guard; Mike Yarber, tackle; and Clayton Lloyd, end, were on the honorable mention list.

The junior varsity football squad chalked a 1-4-2 record in the 1970 season scoring 50 points against their opponents while allowing 101. Losing or tying the first six games, this season appeared to be a total wash-out until in the seventh and final battle, the j.v.'s stifled East, 14-6.

varsity wrestling

Crushing all other Interscholastic League squads, the 1970-71 wrestling team brought Van Horn the second league championship of its history. Amassing 117 points—78 more than the next ranked school—the grapplers took eight first places, three second places, and one fourth place in the league tournament January 30th at the Fieldhouse. The championship followed a 7-3 dual season with losses to Center, Truman, and Blue Springs.

Coached by Bob Wisdom, the Horn topped its wrestling season off with a second place in District and a fifth place in the regionals.

Seniors Jim Smith and Steve Brewington and junior Bill Campbell represented Van Horn at the state championships in St. Louis this year. With eight wrestlers competing in each weight bracket, Campbell placed fourth in the 167 lb. division and Smith and Brewington took fifths in the 147 and heavyweight divisions respectively.

royals versus faculty

Five of the Kansas City Royals donated their time and talents for a benefit basketball game to help raise money for a new baseball team at Van Horn. Joseph Kaifes, the coach for the baseball team said the benefit brought them approximately $1,650. The Royals played the faculty January 25 in the gym before a near-capacity crowd, and much to no one's surprise, thrashed the nebulous educators 113-70.

Big blue eyes, an adorable grin Constantly jolly, and her jokes she would throw in.

*She loved to dance to the sound of Brown
While her lips were emphasizing muua and gungho.
That was Kelley, always a clown.*

Two precious sisters she loved Who both find it hard to believe she has been called to the man above.

*May she and her loved ones be blessed.
And someday they will all be reunited.*

*Her memory with us all remains
For with her personality she claimed her fame.*
