To

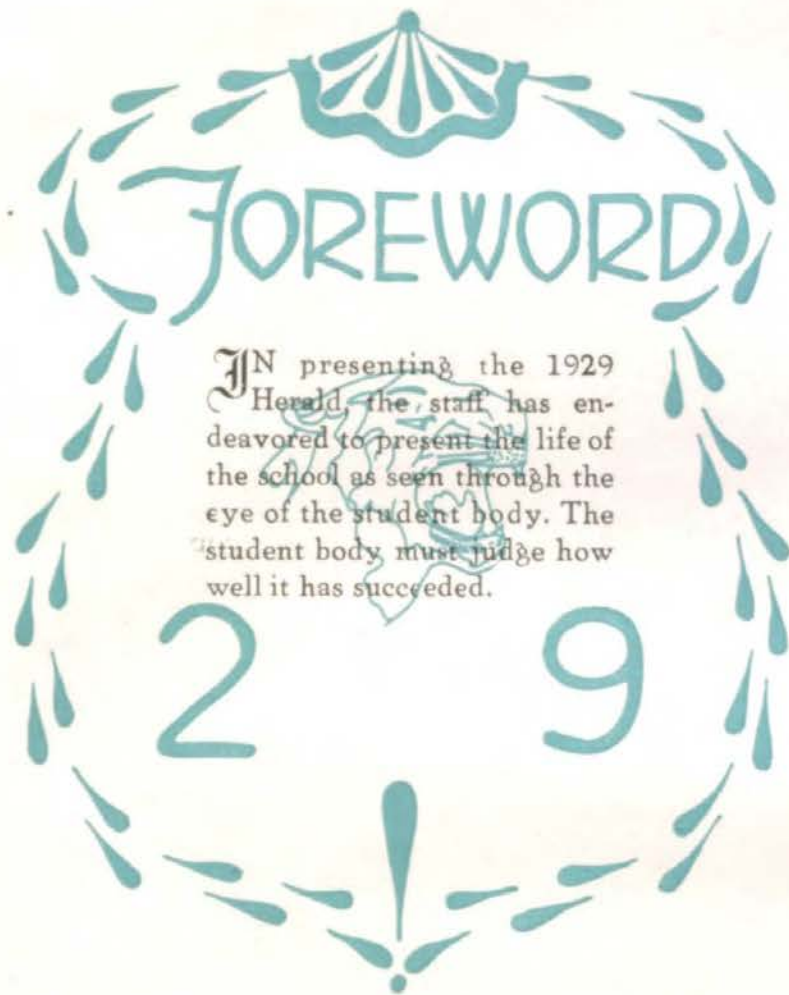

JOHN LAMAR SHOUSE

W. LANE '29

IT IS altogether fitting that this year's Herald should be dedicated to John LaMar Shouse, who was connected with Westport High School for twenty-seven years; six years as instructor in History, five as vice-principal and sixteen as principal. During his administration, Westport High School attained an enviable position as a seat of learning. It was ever his aim that Westport should stand for sound scholarship and year by year he saw this aim come to fruition as Westport graduates gained places of honor, not only in our own universities, but in those abroad. In dedicating this annual to Mr. Shouse, the students of Westport voice the gratitude, not only of the present student body but of the thousands who have gone before, for the many years of his life which he has gladly and willingly dedicated to them.

IN presenting the 1929 Herald, the staff has endeavored to present the life of the school as seen through the eye of the student body. The student body must judge how well it has succeeded.

WESTPORT HIGH SONG

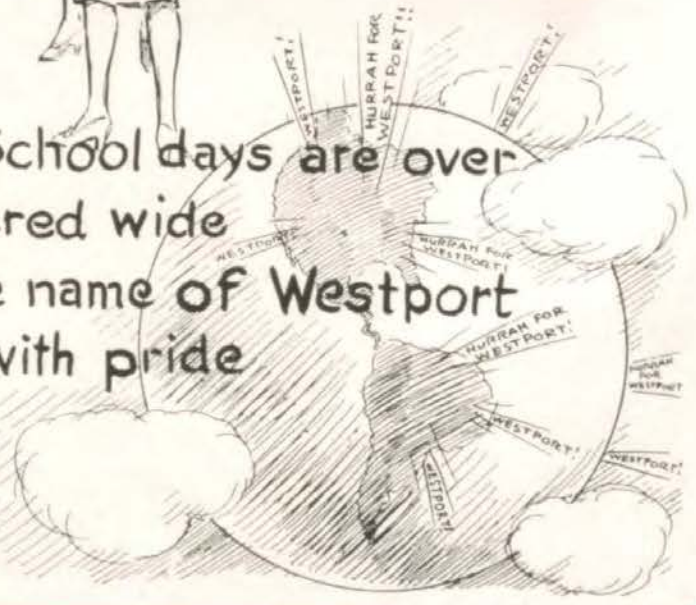

High upon a hill so noble
Challenging the eye
Stands a school above all others
Stands the Westport High

CHORUS

Westport High, to thee we shall be
Ever loyal and true,
Striving always to do service
For the gold and blue

When the High School days are over
And we're scattered wide
We'll revere the name of Westport
Speak of her with pride

Westport Senior Song

And when those Westport Tigers fall in line,
And open Westport's doors another time,
We'll look with pride upon our past career,
And praise those memories that we hold so dear,
so dear.

And when we leave old Westport High at last,
We'll take with us those memories of the past,
And all our thoughts will turn back to those days,
When we were Seniors in that school.

Old Westport High is more than just a school,
It stands for friendships, strong and ever true,
In every line of great activity
Its former students reign supreme, they reign supreme.

And will the future classes of our school
Uphold the standards of the gold and blue,
The colors that have been our guiding light;
We're of the class of twenty-nine.

Orchestra

BESIDES presenting one assembly program and assisting in several others the Orchestra has presented various programs outside of school. They have appeared in different churches and are now preparing the accompaniment to Miessner's "Dryads' Kisses" an opera to be given in Convention Hall with the assistance of 4,000 singers gotten from the Ward Schools and Junior High Schools. It is by far the most difficult piece the orchestra has tried.

The Band

WESTPORT is greatly indebted to its Band for the fine service that has been given at the football and basket ball games; they have also been the main support of many pep meetings. In addition to helping out in Assemblies they furnished the music for the Retail Grocers Association. The Band and the Orchestra are both under the direction of Mr. George Keenan to whom much of the credit for their fine performance is due.

Wallace Mudge as Westport's representative in several contests this year has proved himself an able speaker and a worthy contestant. At Christmas time he was used in the Mayor's Christmas Tree Campaign. He also represented Westport in the Extemporaneous Civic Forum Contest where he took third place.

Competing against a group of proven speakers Edwin Withington obtained the privilege of representing Westport in the Star Oratorical Contest.

In viewing the records made by such as these one readily sees the value of training and industry in outside activities. Westport has had every reason to be proud of her students who have made themselves known in city-wide contests.

In Appreciation

EVERY year the Herald Staff finds itself indebted to those students who devote their time and energy on the art work of the Herald. Without their assistance the annual would be far from the desirable book it is for much of the work is beyond the ability of the Staff. Most of the credit is due the Art Department under the supervision of Miss Wilhite and the Mechanical Drawing Classes headed by Mr. Banister.

The contest for the cover design was especially important this year for it has been decided to use the design for several years. In a contest open to the whole student body the design submitted by Ruth Dawson was judged the best. Other work done by the Art Department consists of the following division pages: Seniors, Ruth Dawson; Societies, Dorothy McMullen; Faculty, Bernis Moody; Girls' Athletics, Madeleine Bowen; R. O. T. C., Lena Wyatt; Activities, Ruth Dawson.

The work done for the Herald by the Drafting Classes consists of the following pages: Published by, Louis Laugesen; Dedicated by, Robert Zane; Foreword, Geraldine Sliffe; Order of Books, Ruth Tappan; Athletics, Fred Haslam; Tiger Tales, Wallace Mudge, Border Design, Grover Knight; and the Standard Background Effect, Wallace Mudge. The Division Page Titles were done by Leonard Stevens, Fred Haslam, and Wallace Mudge. The Cartoons are the work of Clark Kidd, Mortimer L. Lacaff, Wallace Mudge, Grover Knight and Fred Haslam.

R. O. T. C.

Cadet Major Hayden Trowbridge who won the position of commander of the Westport Battalion because of his fine ability in scholastic as well as Military Training. Sgt. Morris could not have appointed a better commander since Major Trowbridge has fulfilled his duties with the greatest degree of competency.

Sgt. Archie Morris D. E. M. L.-R. O. T. C. detailed from the second cavalry, Fort Riley Kansas, whose faithful and unceasing work has made Westport an honor school.

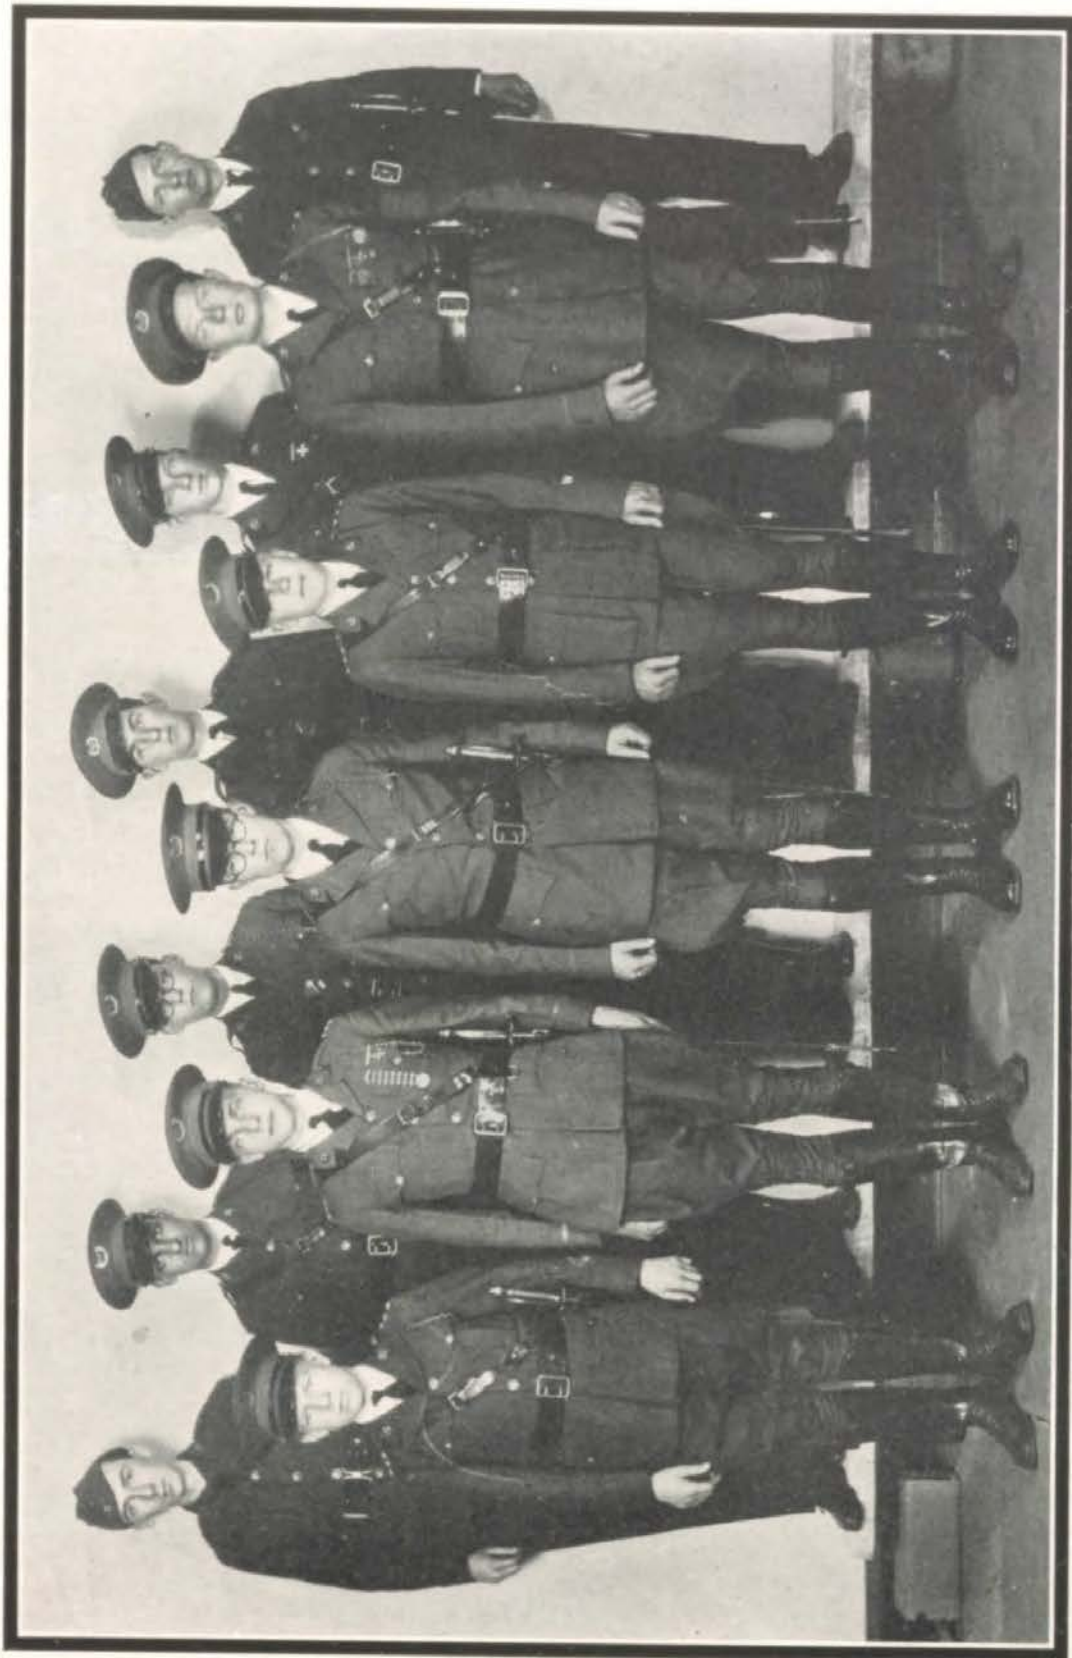

The coveted honor of being Sponsor Major was won by Miss Elizabeth Monroe. Five girls are elected Lieutenants by the cadets. Three of these are made Captains by the faculty. The senior girls then elect one of these as Sponsor Major.

R. O. T. C.

R. O. T. C. is an arm of the National Defense Act: This country received several lessons from the World War, and from these lessons evolved the National Defense Act of 1920.

The National Defense Act gave this country a definite and effective military policy to follow commensurate with our national wealth, our great population, widespread as it is, and our country's eminent position as one of the world powers.

The Act, in keeping with our National Traditions, provides for the maintenance of a military establishment small in numbers, but high in efficiency and economical in administration. It also provides for the preparation in time of peace, of plans for the mobilization of industry and man-power, with the greatest possible dispatch, and the least confusion, waste and extravagance.

The R. O. T. C. (Reserve Officers Training Corps) is a branch of the training provided for under the National Defense Act. It is divided into two courses, a Junior course, of three years, and a Senior course, of four years.

The Junior Units are found in High Schools and some Military Schools, while the Senior Units are found in colleges and Military Schools. Our Battalion, at Westport High School, is an organization of the Junior Unit.

What the course offers: In general the instructions in military will be practical, with a few lectures and demonstrations and such theoretical lessons and conferences as the Professor of Military Science and Tactics may deem necessary.

While in addition to the above, great stress is placed upon Physical development, Character building and Citizenship training.

THE MISSION OF THE CAMPS

Citizens Military Training Camps are authorized by Congress to be held under the auspices of the War Department at various places throughout the United States each summer, as a part of the general scheme of National Defense.

The purpose is to develop the manhood of the nation by bringing together young men of high and different types, both native and foreign born, from all sections of the country, on common basis of equality and under the most favorable conditions of out of door life; to teach them the privileges, duties and responsibilities of American citizenship; to stimulate the interest of the youth of this country in the importance of military training as a benefit to the Nation and the individual taking such training; to inculcate self-discipline and obedience; and to develop these young men physically, mentally and morally.

Athletics

Coaches ~ Manager

THE Athletic department this year deserves praise for its fine work in every field. Even though the Westport banners failed to float at the top this year the hard work of this department cannot be overlooked. It must be remembered that at more than one time the "breaks" seemed to be against us. Even so Newman's and Smith's spirit was never dampened and they continued to put the same fight in the teams they coached. Manager Shearer also did his part. He worked diligently to put the ticket sales over. The Tiger season was not a failure as those who saw the games will agree. We wish this department the success it deserves for its hard work and that it is sure to get in the years to come. The cooperation of the members of this department has surely proved its worth.

Review of the Football Season

HIGGINSVILLE 19-WESTPORT 0. Although Westport lost this encounter the members of the team profited by their defeat in the later games.

NORTHEAST 6-WESTPORT 6. This was the first league game. The Tigers showed up well.

MANUAL 0-WESTPORT 13. After one reads the score no more need be said. It was Westport from start to finish; Edmonds, Combs, and Cowherd starred.

EAST 6-WESTPORT 7. We won this by the "skin of our teeth." The grandstand held its breath when the winning point went sailing across the goal.

PASEO 19-WESTPORT 0. The loss of Edmonds was felt heavily as the score shows.

CENTRAL 19-WESTPORT 0. Westport's defeat at the hands of the Centralites was not felt as much as it might have been, had Central not won so consistently.

SOUTHWEST 0-WESTPORT 0. Even though this game ended in a scoreless tie it was considered one of the hardest fought games of the entire season.

THE WESTPORT TIGERS OF '29

RAY COWHERD

Ray played a brilliant season at end that won him a place on the all-star team.

DONALD MCINTYRE

"Mac" was captain this year and also got a berth on the all-star team.

JOHN THROCKMORTON

John played a good game the past season. His responsibilities doubled when Edmonds was injured.

SURBER CAMPBELL

Campbell—the team's go-getter.

GEORGE BRESINA

Bresina played his second year on the team this season and showed up to great advantage.

JOSEPH GLICK

Glick is also a second year man. Few got through Joe.

MORTON BARTER

Mort distinguished himself at end this year. More power to you, Mort.

HOWARD COMBS

Howard proved his ability at running the team this year. He was a fast back and played well.

LELAND HOOD

Hood was a consistent line plunger and twisted out of a great many difficulties.

JAMES KIRK

Jimmie was one of the best punters in Kansas City last year.

NORMAN EDMONDS

Edmonds would surely have won a place on the all-stars had he not suffered an injury during the mid-season.

GILBERT BARBER

The brains of the team.

ALBERT COMER

Al stood in the way of many an opponent and broke up many a play.

DREW THOMAS

Drew played official center rush stopper.

EUGENE TAXMAN

Many successful plays were centered around Taxman.

HOWARD WHEAT

Wheat stopped up many an open hole.

SECOND TEAM

THE purpose of the second team is two-fold. Promising material is developed for the following year and competition is also offered the first team. The second team was under the supervision of assistant coach Smith. Many evenings were spent in profitable practice that will prove useful next year.

The members of the second team were: Kenneth Asel, Robert Young, George Trinostich, Wilbur Baldrige, Theodore Wicklund, William Cochran, David Wilson, Jake Straf, Beverly Herold, Leonard Bowser, Irvin Ryder, Richard Wright, Earl Gale and Dan Sheeley.

Review of the Basket Ball Season

AS a preliminary to the Interscholastic League games, Westport defeated North Kansas City 24 to 23. The game was hard fought from beginning to end.

In the next pre-season game, Rockhurst defeated the Tigers 34 to 16. Although the score was somewhat lopsided, the team learned a great deal.

The first game of the season went to Northeast 34 to 16. The boys couldn't "get going" in the last half.

Manual met defeat the following week at the hands of the Tigers in an interesting game that concluded with the score 18 to 20 in Westport's favor.

One of the League winners, East, tamed the fearless Tiger later with a score of 25 to 19.

Westport came back by defeating the Pirates 19 to 22, the following week.

Central subdued the Tigers 18 to 20 the following week in a heart breaker.

The "Tigers Come Back" might be an appropriate title for the last League game with Southwest. Westport won 22 to 20 in a real thriller.

An after season game went to Benton of St. Joe, 23 to 22.

Westport Basketeers

HOWARD COMBS—Forward-Captain

Combs completed his second year as one of the most sterling players in the interscholastic league.

JAMES KIRK—Forward

Jimmie, because of his consistent floor work and his ability to hit the goal at critical times, has been chosen leader of the Westport Cagers next year.

DONALD MCINTYRE—Guard

Don again distinguished himself at guard. Unfortunately he was a nine semester man at midyear and was forced to end his high school career.

ELERY EVERETT—Center

The team suffered quite a loss when Everett also became a nine semester man. He was a constant goal hitter.

CHARLES SPARKS—Forward

Sparks' fine playing won him recognition by authorities of the game.

AL COMER—Forward-Center

Comer proved his worth during several critical moments in the interscholastic games this season.

NORMAN EDMONDS—Guard

Although handicapped by a leg injury in the football season, Normie overcame his defect and played a great game.

JIM IAMS—Guard

Iams saw service as guard this year, and although he played in few games, his playing ability was remarkable.

GEORGE BRESINA—Guard

Bresina also saw guard service. He proved an excellent feeder.

Basket Ball

SECOND TEAM

THE second basket ball team brought in a string of victories that placed them high in the standing this year and the prediction of a strong five next year would not be wrong. Newman's crew showed ease and grace that undoubtedly will win them places next year. The members of the team were: Jack Sharp, Joseph Bartlett, Stewart Chambers, Wilbur Baldrige, Floyd Hall, Jack Gordon, Allen McCaul, Theodore Wicklund, Robert Nelson and John Fry.

TRACK TEAM

J.G.K.

Track

WESTPORT High School's Track Team made a sensational debut with a 61 to 30 victory, over Manual High. The high spots of the meet were the broad jump and pole vault. Gordon was first in the broad jump, leaping 20 ft. 5 in. Carlisle walked off with first ribbons in the pole vault stopping at 11 ft. Grafraph was high point man with 11 points to his credit. Johanning was victorious in two events and ran on the successful relay team.

The meet with Paseo, went to the Pirates with a score of 54½ to 36½. Johanning took the 220 yard dash in 23½ seconds, while Carlisle, Anderson and Thomas tied in the pole vault. Gordon won the broad jump and Carlisle the high jump.

In the next meet, Westport ran rough shod over the Indians of Southwest. The score was 61 to 34. Carlisle surprised the grandstand by taking the pole vault at 11 ft. Todd, Johanning, Ramey, Hopkins and the relay team also added glory to the Westport banners.

Presenting a well balanced team, the Westport athletes again proved supreme against Northeast. Westport took six first places. Johanning set a new 440 yard mark at 51 1/5 seconds. Todd was high point man for Westport with 10 points. Hopkins lost the high jump after a close and interesting duel with Callahan of Northeast. The score was Westport 52 2/3, Northeast 38 1/3.

The Tiger track season this year has been a complete success. Three out of four meets were won, and prospects for an interscholastic league championship were never better. With athletes such as Hopkins, Gordon, Carlisle, and Johanning, Westport has reason to be proud of her team. Then, too, the first and second places received at the state meet ought to make anyone boastful. Many members of this year's team will be back next year and Westport has every reason to be confident of a strong team the following season.

Golf

UNUSUAL interest was shown by the student body, when golf made its debut as a school sport. A tournament was held over the Ivanhoe Golf Course, April 22nd, in order to choose the members of the team. The team and the scores they turned in were:

George Keck	75-74-149
Kendall Mayor	79-72-151
Wallace Mudge	68-64-132
Allen McCaul	81-74-155

Westport lost the first match played against Southwest, at St. Andrews, by a score of 5 and 3. Mudge and Keck played for Westport and Myers and Staller for Southwest.

Wallace Mudge, Westport's representative in the Baker University Golf Tournament April 26 and 27, qualified with a 77 and went to the semi-finals, when he lost to Neal White of Topeka, the winner, by a score of 2 and 1. In the afternoon he beat L'Huillier of Pleasanton for third place.

INCREASED interest in tennis during the past few seasons resulted in a strong team this year, and the interscholastic league tournament championship.

Griffith and Cutlip took the doubles easily in the tournament, beating the Manual team 6-2, 6-0, the Central team 6-3, 6-1 and the Paseo team 6-4, 6-0, 6-1. The Paseo team started out with a rush, but the Griffith-Cutlip team soon broke up the advantage, with high lobs. Griffith and Cutlip played in their best form. Flynn, of Manual, the city single champion, won from Richmond the Westport entry in the first round.

The members of the team this year, were Dick Koch, singles, Marvin Richmond, singles, Sterling Cutlip and Floyd Griffith, doubles, and Fred Haslam and Jim Iams, doubles. All members of the team won letters except Richmond, by surviving the first round in the tournament. Sixty-three students competed for team places.

Nelson McNinch, singles, and the Griffith-Cutlip doubles team, represented the Tigers in the State Tournament and all went to the quarter finals, when the meet was called off because of bad weather.

McNinch is a Sophomore and a player of unusual ability. He will be back next year and will undoubtedly be a great help in forming a strong team.

The Tigers feel a great loss with the graduation of Griffith, a remarkably skillful player. Added to this, one of Westport's greatest doubles team will be broken up. However, Cutlip, also a player of unusual ability, will be back next year and we hope that he will be able to find a team mate next year as agile and capable as Griffith.

Richmond will also return, and become, we hope, a strong contender for single honors.

Koch and the Iams-Haslam doubles team will not return next year. Koch went to the semi-finals in the league tournament. Iams and Haslam survived the first round.

Girls' Athletics

Athletic Directors

Assistant Director

Director

THE many activities carried on by the girls of the gymnasium classes under the supervision of Miss Bradley and her assistant, Miss Cruzen, make this department one of the most interesting and profitable in the school.

This year the close of each sport season was met with a party sponsored by the Diana Athletic club and at these parties the girls received their letters.

On the Thursday before Easter the gymnasium was filled with girls in costume "making whoopie" at their annual party. The 6th hour "Pirates" took the group prize for their striking outfits and Mildred Calkins won first prize for the most attractive individual costume.

The alumnae party was another enjoyable affair of the year. At this party the graduates of Westport who had been outstanding for their Athletic records while in Westport competed with teams of Juniors and Seniors selected by Miss Bradley. The State Letter, another activity of the gymnasium department, is the ambition of every girl athlete and although the requirements are difficult a large number of girls won this coveted prize this year.

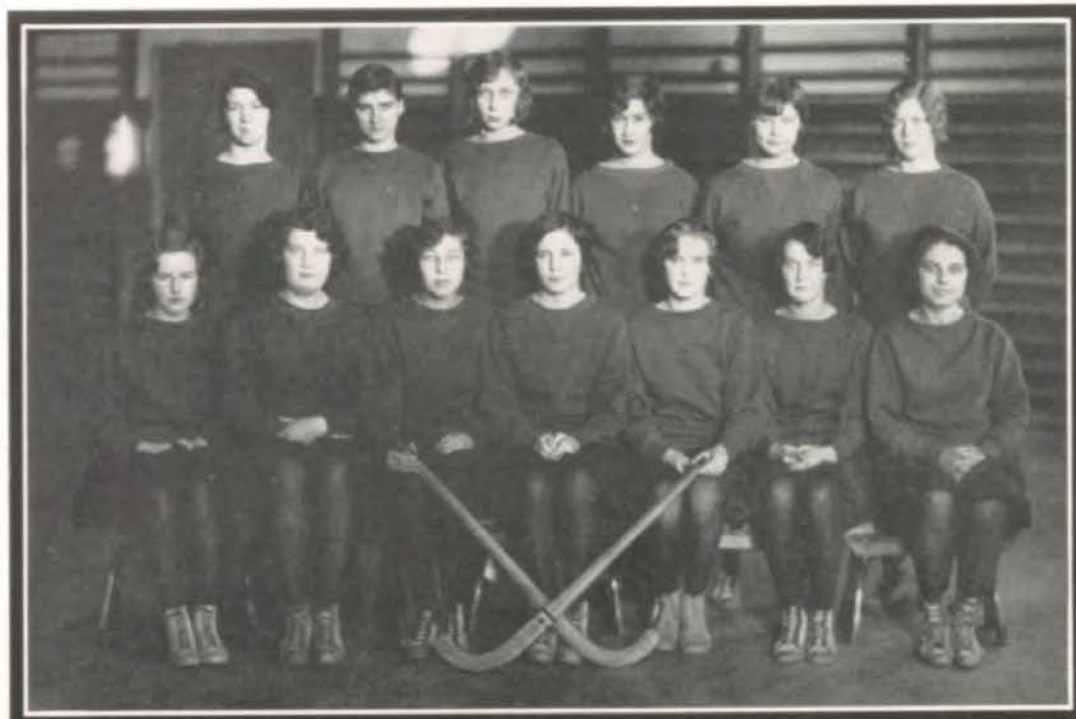

The girls Athletic group is a credit to the ability of Miss Bradley and Miss Cruzen, and it is hoped that these splendid advisers may remain with Westport for many more years.

Girls' Basket Ball 1929

The Seniors came out with all the Basket Ball honors having defeated both the Juniors and Sophomore teams. Their high point scorer, Grace McMurray, lacked 87 points of reaching last year's record set by Catherine Roach, but she was 13 points above the girl who won the next highest place.

Tennis 1928

Martha Hamburg

Helen Wetherwax

Lolita Brown

LOLITA BROWN last year won the Singles Championship with Margaret Wells as runner up, and Helen Wetherwax and Martha Hamburg came out first in the doubles with Geraldine Kahl and Blanche Kahl second.

At the beginning of the tennis season the girls compete in their separate classes, and the winners of each class meet in the semi-finals. Then the final doubles and singles tournament is played and the girls establish their superiority over all the other aspiring tennis players in the girls gymnasium classes.

Ordinarily the seniors, having had more practice, win the tennis honors, but this year Geraldine Kahl, a Junior, shows great promise.

Senior Pin Winners

THIS year only two girls qualified for the Senior pin—Roberta Waddell, and Frances Richards. Roberta won hers with Hockey—1927 and 1928; Basket Ball—1929; and Baseball—1927, 1928, 1929.

To win this honor a girl must have six athletic "W's", one of which has been won her Senior year, and an average of M grades with no F's. Consequently a girl who earns this is of necessity a fairly good student and an athlete of unusual prowess.

The girls now connected with the athletic department take quite as much interest in their inter-class competitions as the boys in their inter-scholastic meets, and every bit as much pride in their awards.

Therefore we wish to express our appreciation of the efforts and successes of these girls who are promoting their Athletic Department to a place of importance not only in every girl's high school curriculum but also in the gymnasium honors of the school.

J. G. K.

State Letters

THIS year the candidates for Missouri Letters are: Margaret Edwards, Geraldine Kahl, Caroline Woodhouse, Dorothy Shelton, Dorothy Brown, Eleanor Hermansader, Betty Belle Jones, Lena Wyatt.

Marguerite Mendoza is also trying for the Super-Letter issued by the State.

Until 1928 this honor could be won by Juniors and Seniors only but it is now open to Sophomores. The girls must win 1000 points, 600 of which are made if the applicant is a class officer, or has taken active part in debate, glee club, Folk dancing, hiking, swimming, badge tests, running, jumping, teams, letters, or voluntary service (judging at badge tests, etc.).

From the following 500 possible points the remaining points are taken:

Health and absence of physical defects	100
Correct posture	100
Scholarship of 80 for one year (No failures)	100
Scholarship of 90 for one year (No failures)	100
Sportsmanship	100

Very few girls are good enough all around athletes to receive this cherished reward, but many of those who have set it as their goal and who have failed to reach it, realize that they received great benefit from merely striving for it. Those who succeeded deserve hearty congratulation.

Our Clubs

IRVING CLUB

To this group of sterling, popular and worthwhile young men, we give our best regards and earned tribute. Their position at the helm of Westport's activities cannot be denied. The rise of this club in the last few years has been received with looks, green with envy, by their inferiors, the Clays.

GIRL RESERVES

They are sometimes known as Miss Hayden's proteges, and from time immemorial have been the most representative club in Westport (representative of nothing). If this club would be dispensed with, we would certainly miss it. Just like we would miss a toothache or somepin' or other.

PROMETHEAN LITERARY SOCIETY

A great group (ask one of them). They are well known in the field of scholarly endeavor and literary accomplishments but that is about as far as it goes. We wonder why they are not giving a spring party, but I guess it is because they are all so delightfully bashful.

CLIONIAN SOCIETY

This bunch is in about the same position as their worthy rivals, the Round Table. They have accomplished a little more this year as they had the honor of one of their members being President of the Student Council (until the grades came out). There is little done at meetings because after the roll is called, it is time for Mr. McLain to turn off the lights.

PUNDIT CLUB

A dashing bunch of lively unaffected girls. Their favorite pastime is chinning. Their far famed (or far-fetched) leader G. Roland is a good example. At the last meeting Betty Hoyt gave a talk on Dr. Thinner's latest diet book. We think she ought to practice what she preaches.

ROUND TABLE SOCIETY

We don't ever hear anything about this club so we can't write much concerning it. Anything that we could say or write, could not hurt the reputation of the organization any, because we all know that it is absolutely impossible to spoil an egg that is already rotten.

HI-Y CLUB

Out of the black ruins of our school, a small organization of holy of holies have resurrected the damaged souls and have set them on the good ole' straight and narrow. A Hi-Y boy was never seen or known to smoke, drink, neck, or engage in a crap game.

clay club

We hate to spare the space. It is a great organization of infants and intellectuals. Ed Withington, the first term's Grand Councilor, admits he has helped it to become the most popular in school (most popular at bulling). One of the meetings was blessed with a program and John Barret Harkness stayed for it. The meetings are opened and adjourned with the singing of their favorite song, "The Old Clay Club, She A'int What She Used to Be."

"Bob" Garrett Gets a Bath

One of the most unusual incidents in his shady life, happened to Robert, on the 24th of May at the Casting Pool.

Being a wonderful swimmer (he is known to swim the width of a neighbor's bathtub) he did not refuse to help Oscar Woodsmall when Oscar applied for instruction in diving.

A careful explanation of the dive ensued, and then "Bob" fully dressed, poised himself on the deep edge of the pool to show the correct standing position.

THEN—whether it was a slip of the ankle or overconfidence, we cannot say, Mr. Garrett plunged headlong into the pool—to a watery debut.

P. S. No. 1—Oscar's lesson was discontinued.

P. S. No. 2—"Bob" got wet.

P. S. No. 3—Mildred can enjoy a date with "Bob".

"I Get Good Test Grades Now"

"A most lucky day it was," writes Nebuchadnezzar Nimbleneck who goes to Westport High School, Kansas City, Mo., "when I filled out that coupon and mailed it into the advertisers. It was the best thing I ever did."

"I was a bit skeptical at the time but when I found that I was steadily going ahead of my fellow students and that my grades were getting better, I realized the value of N. C. S. training. I now get steady test grades and what is more, I will graduate with high honors."

"Really it's wonderful how spare-time study, in your own home and at your own time, helps a person to get on!"

For 41 1/2 years the National Corrigspondinks School has been helping students to achieve some measure of success. Tens and dozens of happy careers have been made brighter, happier and more prosperous through using N. C. S. coupon.

"ST. MILT OF ANESTHESIA"

A play of power and passions to be given by the Sophomores, July 8 and 9
Westport High School

Nine barrels of powder required to adorn the beauties—The nails in its castles would, if turned points up, ten to a bed, make five nations die of insomnia—The paint on its scenery would spread chewing gum ads over a half a million barns—and the twists of its dancers, if applied to crankshafts, furnish more power than Niagara.

These and other interesting facts will be called to your attention during the show. Don't miss this chance to instruct your younger brother or sister.

It was at the Junior Prom. She was standing over by the wall furtively dabbing her eyes with a wisp of lace that was her excuse for a handkerchief.

She felt his presence and raising her lovely violet eyes gazed with love on his handsome face.

"Well what did you come for if you're going to stand there and mope all afternoon?" he snarled.

"But Bill—" she murmured.

"No buts about it. If you don't want to stay you can go out and wait for me or go on home. Don't think I care! I'm going to have a good time, anyway".

And with those harsh words he turned on his heel and walked off (to cut that "knockout blonde" he had just met).

He didn't mind leaving the girl with the violet eyes because she was only his sister.

or

The True Confession of a Westport Waste Basket

CHAPTER I

Adorable Angela:

I have thought this matter (your love affairs) over and I have come to the conclusion that I can never win you or even get a very large share of your love. I love you more than words can wield the matter, dearer than eye-sight, space, and liberty, beyond what can be valued, rich or rare, no less than life, with grace, health, beauty, honour, as much as child ever loved a father fond,—a love that makes breath poor and speech unable; beyond all manner of so much I love you. But I shall try to forget you and I am sure you shall be better off in this case. Your actions demand that such be the case. I shall always treat you as a lady should be treated, although I shall never try to win your love hereafter. This is the last note I think it necessary to write you and I do not expect an answer. I guess this is the end.

Forlornly,
Don.

CHAPTER II

Sweetest Girl:

Know sumthin'? I'm broken-hearted! Don't look to me as if a certain darling girl likes me very much. Wot to do? Wot to do? Had I better withdraw from the field? What would you suggest? You ought to know what I should do, 'cause you see—the girl is you! Pleaz, tell me!

Have a good time last nite? Huh? You always do, or say you do, anyway. The girl I was with acted like she'd never had a date before. Maybe I did too, but how could I help it, when the sweetest girl in the world was with another fellow? If I'd of had a date with you, though, it would have been the best date I've had in a long time, but I guess I'm too lucky at cards to be very lucky at love. Oh, well, I'll bet you'll think I'm crazy, but I've got to get this off my chest so that I'll quit thinking about it. But if I quit thinking about it I would have to quit thinking about you. But I might just as well,—but maybe not, too, I don't know. Do you love me just a little bit? What's the answer. Huh?

Love,
Chuck.

CHAPTER III

Dearest Virginie:

You love to see me work, huh? As yet you've never seen the real "teckneck" I employ during "working hours". Perhaps you'd be interested—perhaps not. I wonder which. Please have no fear of———. I've had her three years now. (I hope I don't have her another year,—unless of course, you're here.)

"Till the rocks melt with the sun, Your

Billy Young.

CHAPTER IV

Dearest Stell:

How are you—huh? Man, you can sure write little notes on your typewriter. Here I write you a great big long one and you retaliate with a little puny one. It aint right to treat lil Bob like that. Don't you C? I'm up in the library now looking.

out of the window and dreaming dreams of you. You may not think I mean that, but I really do. You come first above all other girls to me, but I'll bet you can't say that about me truthfully, can you? Please answer this.

Well, one more minute and I'll be seeing you. I hope you have a note for me today. I just can't let a day pass unless I get one.

Love,
Bob

P. S.

Did you mean your ending yesterday? (A—Zever—Thine.)

CHAPTER V

Norris, dear:

I am really sorry about this morning's study hall "incident", but I had been informed to refuse admittance to all students after 9:15. I'm sure you comprehend and will forgive me. I hope it did not embarrass you. I mean I really do. (I'm sure it didn't.)

I wish I could see and talk to you more. You are constantly on my mind and you can lay to that.

About the telephone "incident"—I more or less enjoyed myself, but would like to have been present in order to have participated in the laughter.

I am a big brown bear, but you are a diminutive, dear, devil. (Not a bad play on words.)

But really I think you are an angel and you know I love angels.

I should be solving algebra problems, but who cares? I would much rather write to my little Norris. (My is not the possessive case but I wish it were, do you?)

Concerning short stories—I did not write one. I may get kicked out, or at any rate it will not raise my prestige among the Clays.

Don't be too severe in your criticism of this note as it is only my second attempt, you know. I am still an amateur and have not developed a proficiency for note-writing.

All my love,
Richard Reid Koch III.

P. S.

I did not understand part of your conversation last night, my dear girl, I assure you that your satire is subtle to the extent of rendering it incomprehensible and at the same time rendering me prostrate.

R. R. R. III.

CHAPTER VI

Marcella Mio:

Our first date was marvelous! I shall always remember it as the most wonderful evening of my life.

I was afraid a policeman would come up and tell us to move on as we were sitting in the park talking (?).

Saturday morning when I arose my first thoughts were of you and Loew's Midland.

Lupe Velez has nothing on you, my sweet.

When may I have another date?
