EXPLANATION

Westport through the eyes of a camera—this is the Herald for 1939. Its personalities, its activities, and its fun are all presented to you through the medium of the camera. As you turn the pages of this Herald, the film unrolls and shows you the changing scene at Westport. Students and faculty at work and at play are caught for you by the cameraman. Twenty years hence you may look back with laughter and longing at these pictures of yourself and your friends as you were in these days of class and club. Bon voyage, then, on your journey through our book of pictures.

TO MISS MARIE YOUNGS THE
1939 HERALD IS DEDICATED

Instructor, adviser, helper, friend, Miss Marie Youngs is the living embodiment of the fine attributes which qualify the ideal teacher. To study English under Miss Youngs is more than just covering the required text—it is a happy experience, satisfying and inspiring. She sees her students not as a class but as individuals, each one with his own personality and with his own problems which she is eager and able to solve. Every pupil who has worked with Miss Youngs will carry away with him from Westport High School the consciousness of a relationship less casual than the usual one between student and teacher—rather the remembrance of a warm friendship to which he may return at any time. It is with deep appreciation for our advancement under her guidance and with enduring pleasure in our personal association with her that we dedicate this book, the Westport Herald of 1939, to Miss Marie Youngs.

DEDICATION

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The staff wishes to express deep appreciation to the following people for their assistance in the production of the 1939 Herald: Mr. Robert Maplesden of Burger-Baird Engraving Company; Mrs. Donahue of Moore's Studio; Mr. Arthur Lowell of The Lowell Press; the members of the faculty; Patricia Anderson; and the amateur photographers of the Candid Camera Club.

ADMINISTRATION

The people in any institution are the deciding factor in making it a success. In a school the personnel is made up of the faculty, the students and the parents. On the following pages our ever-moving cameramen have caught in characteristic poses the teachers of Westport who do so much toward making our school life happy and effective. These informal shots give you Westport's teachers as you see them in the class room. The other administrative bodies, the Student Council, the Parent-Teacher Association, the Monitors, and the S. G.-Men take their place in the panorama of Westport.

D. H. HOLLOWAY

As we watch our boys and girls leaving Westport for the last time, we remember with regret the marvelous comradeship that might have been ours if we could have known each other better. If we had become better acquainted with the magnificent qualities of our associates, our lives would have been richer and we should not now be mourning the lost opportunities for companionship. We earnestly express the hope that there may still be possibilities of ripening those friendships that have had their beginnings at Westport.

D. H. HOLLOWAY

IN MEMORIAM

NATHAN B. MILLER, JR.
1888-1939

Westport was shocked and grieved to learn of the death of her vice-principal, Nathan B. Miller, early in May. For twenty-four years Mr. Miller was a member of the Westport faculty and in 1932 was elected to the vice-principalship of the school. Besides his strenuous duties in this office, he carried the added responsibility of teaching chemistry. He was loved and respected by his students for his patience and helpfulness in the class room. Mr. Miller's fairness and sense of justice in all his dealings gained for him the esteem and admiration of the entire faculty. Throughout his years of service to Westport he devoted himself wholeheartedly to his work and his duty to the school. In spite of excessive suffering in the last months of his work, his courageous spirit was indomitable. His generous nature prompted him to give help willingly to needy pupils in the school, asking no recognition for his kind acts. Students and faculty will long remember Mr. Miller for his generosity, his fairness, and his painstaking efforts in maintaining the high ideals of Westport.

The name of C. T. Goodale brings to our minds the picture of a scholar, a humanitarian, and a friend. We recall his sunny smile and cheery "Hello there," and more than that, the heart, the very soul of the man, comes again and again to fill us with thankfulness for his priceless life, a life whose richness was given in full to Westport.

Mr. Goodale had the laudable faculty of harmonizing theory and practice in adapting the curriculum to the ever changing ideas of education. His method of teaching was chosen to reach the ultimate goal of all education, the happiness of the individual. In 1910, he came to our school and began his work, training and guiding his pupils to be future American leaders. Mr. Goodale saw before him not a class of students, a group of pupils enrolled to learn English, but individuals with individual problems. His students took away from his classes each day not only the values of added English knowledge, but some lesson in life, some of that practical philosophy of life which all need and appreciate. Each one left his room a little bit better in character, a little kinder and more understanding toward his fellows.

"One of the surest ways to have friends is to be one," was his motto. Surely all who met Mr. Goodale at once sensed his kindly interest. All who met him realized immediately that here was a man whose dynamic personality won the hearts of all, and imbued them with a desire to be like him, warm and generous.

The Staff in 1936 justly dedicated the Herald to Mr. Goodale. Under his picture were these words, "sincerity of purpose . . . kindness of disposition . . . loyalty to the ideals that have made him a real teacher . . . respected and loved by the pupils . . . valued by those who knew him . . . a courteous gentleman at all times."

EMMA E. SHELTON English

We regret that Miss Emma E. Shelton is not at her usual post as an English teacher in Westport. Her accomplishments, both as an instructor and as a leader in school activities, were many and varied. Respected and loved by her students for her sincerity and helpfulness in the class room, she was influential in moulding the characters of her pupils and in setting the high standards of Westport. Miss Shelton's interest and unceasing work for the band brought her the title, "Mother of the Band." She was faculty adviser of Clonian Literary Society, for several years auditor of the P. T. A., sponsor of an honor study hall, and organizer of the cafeteria monitors. In appreciation for all she had done for her pupils and for the school, the 1931 Herald was dedicated to Miss Shelton. Westport is grateful to this teacher who served her so well.

PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION

1939 EXECUTIVE BOARD

First row, left to right—Mrs. Charles C. Clark, Mrs. W. E. Hildebrand, Mrs. A. R. Terry, Mrs. W. S. P. Robins, Mrs. G. E. Howard, Mrs. Forest Fletcher, Miss Velma Shelley, Mrs. J. W. Spencer.

Second row—Mrs. Thomas F. Gardner, Mrs. L. L. McBurney, Mrs. William S. Spicer, Mrs. De Witt C. Fair, Mrs. George Hax, Mrs. Virgil Porter, Mrs. R. Southall.

Last row—Mr. D. H. Holloway, Mrs. Ward Byers, Mrs. F. L. Putnam, Mrs. Ralph Walker, Mrs. H. B. Vess, Mrs. Fred E. Bell, Mrs. Arthur B. Pratt, Mrs. J. P. Kohn, Mrs. C. L. Kester.

Members not pictured—Mrs. Ben Kilmer, Mrs. W. A. Sheely, Mrs. W. L. Eastwood, Mrs. Charles B. Shaeffer, Mrs. O. A. Schoettlin, Mrs. James Anderson, Mrs. Leslie Van Nattan, Mrs. H. I. Hollister.

The Westport P. T. A. has had an unusually happy year of service. They have worked in very close harmony with the student body and the faculty of the school. Parents, students, and faculty have cooperated in presenting programs which were of real value in setting forth the needs of the school and community. The real purpose of any Parent Teacher Association, namely the welfare of children, was the basis of all their work.

Dances were held at the Little Theatre and at Drexel Hall for the students. These proved to be a most entertaining and popular activity.

The presentation of the second annual "Westport on Parade" was one of the outstanding programs of the year. It showed in an interesting manner all of the activities of the high school. A home talent show, "The Bazaar at Westport," was another interesting program put on by the P. T. A., faculty, and students.

Several card parties and luncheons were sponsored by the organization. Many members sewed at the Mutual Help Center.

Cash contributions were made to the Mary Harmon Weeks, Caroline B. Ullman, Phoebe Jane Ess, and Gold Star Student loan funds; also to the Mutual Help Center and to the Hi-Y, Girl Reserves, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, and Camp Fire Girls. The Association also helped finance the Crier and bought some furniture for the stage. They feel that perhaps one of the greatest services was their part in securing an annex to the present building as well as some improvements in the old building. The P. T. A. called a meeting of the patrons of the school to discuss the needs for more and better facilities. This group elected Mrs. W. S. P. Robins as chairman of their committee. The committee put in many long hours of careful consideration of the needs and finally presented them to the Board of Education. As a result Westport High School is to have some very fine improvements, a new study hall, a much improved, sound-proof cafeteria, and a two story annex which will provide various class rooms on the first floor. The second floor will contain probably the finest quarters for instrumental music in the Middle West.

Mrs. W. S. P. Robins served very efficiently and ably as president throughout the whole year. She was also president of the P. T. A. in Westport Junior in 1936-37, and in Westport Senior in 1937-38.

The Student Council, the basis of Westport's student government, worked earnestly during the first semester of 1938-1939 to encourage worthwhile school activities, to create unity in school opinion, and to coordinate activities.

It worked jointly with the P. T. A. in presenting several all school dances at the Little Theatre and also helped in the P. T. A. membership drive through the home rooms.

The organization worked for a traffic light at the intersection of 39th and Gillham. After the Senior Science class had collected the data, the Council presented it to the city traffic manager.

The Christmas tree, one of Westport's nicest traditions, which stood in the front hall the day before the Christmas holidays, was purchased and trimmed by the Student Council.

Home room representatives reminded students of the rules of courtesy at interscholastic sports.

The Council discussed problems concerning the cafeteria and recommended improvements.

Besides these things, this student organization completed many routine tasks.

The Student Council's success in accomplishing its purpose of creating a unified school and upholding Westport's high standards at all times was attained through the cooperation of the student body, the efforts of the officers and executive board, and the splendid advisory work of Miss Shelley.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

Bob Agniel, Wilson Gilliat, Lucille Langknecht, Mildred Lane, Ben Czarlinsky, Betty Glenn, Shirley Polk, Eugene Benus, Colleen Phipps.

The Student Council reviews with pride its various achievements throughout the school year, and feels that an active and enduring council is being developed.

A much needed "Lost and Found" department was organized and successfully managed by the Council.

During the semester the Executive Board wrote letters to the Board of Education, sent committees to interview the cafeteria management, and in general, tried to carry out the ideas suggested by the student body.

The officers attended the Inter-School Council meeting held this year at Paseo High School. Student government and methods of providing interesting social recreation within the individual schools were the topics under discussion. The Intra-City Council organization is in its infancy, this being the second year, but growth has been rapid, and a splendid cooperation between the high schools of the city is developing.

On April 20 a city wide Vocational Conference was held at Westport. The Student Council had an information desk in the front corridor and Council members were guides, hosts, and hostesses, to the 1200 students from all of Kansas City's high schools.

The "Hi-larities" ticket sale was again sponsored by the Council, and the show proved to be one of the outstanding events of the year.

The Student Council has always stood as an exponent of school development within the school, and our capable adviser, Miss Shelley, has loyally assisted us in each new venture.

CLASSES

Here's the other part of the personnel—Westport's student body. Our photographers bring you seniors, juniors, and sophomores. The seniors are taking their leave of Westport to go on to another phase in their advancement. The juniors and sophomores have yet a year or two in Westport. The seniors with their accomplishments, a part of the large junior and sophomore classes, and the student leaders of all three groups are presented here. Whatever the class, they are all Westporters, and make the picture of school life complete.

ACTIVITIES

The picture of Westport's activities presents a varied scene. The camera lens is focused on the staffs behind our publications, on clubs, honor, literary, departmental, and service, on the arts and music in Westport, on boys' and girls' athletics bringing sports into the limelight, and finally on our military group, the R. O. T. C. Outstanding Westport students are seen in their various lines of extra-curricular activity. It is in all these departments that they express their particular talents and abilities.

THE WESTPORT CRIER

Vol. XXV

Missouri, November

Price 2 Cents

Council Traffic

The council is planning to hold a traffic survey at Thirty-ninth street and Fifth street road. The survey will be held on Friday, November 12, at 10:30 a. m. The survey will be held on the east and west streets.

The road of better sidewalks on the Thirty-ninth street sidewalk was brought to light by an editorial in the last issue of the Crier.

The information furnished by the committee working on the problem of city traffic may result in a new plan to relieve congestion by widening the sidewalks on the east and west streets.

Second Semester

Since 1908, when a debate society was named Pundit, meaning Wise Hindu, members have offered their best to Westport. This year was no exception. Top honors in the Sons of the American Revolution essay contest and first place in the Thomas Jefferson essay contest went to Pundit members. Pundit won national fame when a member was chosen one of the ten best high school musicians in the U. S., and asked to appear with the Armco Band on the N. B. C. network. Pundit girls have been leaders in school activities, showing their capabilities as Herald executives, class officers, student council leaders, actresses, debators, musicians, athletes, and scholars. The club itself has again sponsored the inter-society literary contest. The R. O. T. C. and Clay queens are Pundits. Our beauty queen, Jean Goodrich, is the epitome of all Pundit virtues. Intelligence, charm, grace, and versatility are hers, as well as beauty.

Miss Guffin has again ably guided us through a year worthy of our motto: "Weigh, Consider, and Express."

OFFICERS

The Promethean Literary Society has passed another milestone in its road of progress. Our members have been outstanding in many fields, and we point with pride to Maxine Fuller, president of the senior class. The girls have worked for well-rounded personalities, shown by the many names on our roster which are well known throughout Westport. We are happy to honor Lucile Bloch as our beauty queen, not only for the charm which gained her the title, but for her willing loyalty and leadership.

Our sponsor, Miss Secrest, has been of invaluable aid in keeping our standards and ideals high.

The Promethean entries in the inter-society literary contest were of considerable merit, all members uniting in making this one of the highlights of the year. The annual spring dance with the Irving Literary Society will be long remembered.

May our accomplishments of 1939 be indicative of still greater attainment in succeeding years at Westport.

"Look forward—not back.
Look upward—not down.
And lend a hand."

Lucile Bloch

Ann Carlton Logan

The Clay Literary Society has completed another outstanding year as the oldest and most respected organization for boys in Westport. Its members have aimed to excel in leadership, scholarship, and character. Clay's success is shown by the fact that among its members are the highest ranking student in the senior class, the winner of the annual Oratorical Contest, three members of the Herald Staff, two senior officers, and others who proved themselves outstanding in activities. Our victory in the Parliamentary Law Contest represents Clay's leadership in forensic activity.

The coveted honor of Clay Beauty Queen was given to Ann Carlton Logan because of her winning personality and charm; we feel that she most nearly represents our ideals and standards.

Clay also wishes to express its deep gratitude to Mr. Banister for his loyal guidance as our sponsor. We regret that he was not able to carry on with us during the entire year. However, through Mr. Heinberg's association with us, we were able to finish the year in true Clay fashion.

Again the Irving Literary Society has completed a successful year. The programs, enjoyable because of their wide scope, included debates, speeches, music, book reviews, and instruction in parliamentary law.

In the forensic arts, Irving led the school, with three finalists in the Constitutional Oratorical Contest and an enviable record in debate. Numerous members showed themselves of ability in dramatic art; in both plays presented by Westport this year some Irving members were starred. Irving also furnished speakers in the radio safety programs.

In scholarship Irving ranked high, having three of the five senior boys of highest scholastic rank. Likewise, among Irvings were the treasurer and a member of the Senior Business Committee.

The annual Irving-Promethean dance, one of the loveliest parties of the season, was further proof of the originality and skill of the members of both societies. Irving was fortunate in having as its queen Maxine Fuller, who is known for her beauty, charming personality, and qualities of leadership.

To Mr. Ward, who for over five years has guided us, we offer our gratitude and appreciation.

Maxine Fuller

The Round Table Literary Society, founded in 1900, is the oldest literary society in Westport. Since that time it has always upheld its high standards. Our hope is that the knights and ladies of Round Table will continue to be victorious in the years to come.

Members of our club have won high scholastic honors, numerous offices, places in the casts of school plays, distinction in debating and other speech work, and the editorship of the Crier.

In accordance with the two World Fairs this year, the Round Table dance had as its theme, "Our World Fair." Symbolic of King Arthur presiding over his Round Table, we presented a coronation; Mary Dean Moss was our lovely queen, and Phil Bodwell, our king. A custom started at the beginning of this year was the presentation of small gold gavels to our presidents in sincere appreciation of their efforts.

We are grateful indeed for the interest and guidance proffered by our adviser, Miss Maddox.

The year has been a memorable one because it marks the completion of the sixteenth year that Speech Arts has been in existence, and because the club has fulfilled, to a greater extent than ever before, its purpose. This purpose affords each member an opportunity to study and to develop his powers of oratory by taking part in programs made up of public speaking, debate, drama, oral reading and oratory. The club advocates and practices correct parliamentary procedure. Instead of having one member act as critic, a group of members in club meetings are commentators.

During the year, excellent programs of a varied nature were presented. For members dramatically inclined there were poems, plays, reading, and monologues. For those more interested in public speaking, there were debates, panel discussions, symposia, and expository speeches. Great originality was displayed by several members in writing and presenting original one-act plays for club programs. The Ninth Annual Patriotic Oration Contest was held in February; Robert Hooton and

Robin Humphrey won first and second places. One of the most enjoyable meetings of the year was the May meeting with the French Club. Members from both organizations presented a one-act play entitled "Six Cups of Chocolate."

Throughout the past year, many of the Speech Arts members had outstanding parts in Westport activities, especially in the two school plays.

There has been in Speech Arts Club, a true working spirit of cooperation. This spirit has made and will keep Speech Arts one of the finest organizations in Westport. All the members not only develop their powers in speech work, but also receive invaluable training in learning how to make an organization what its members wish it to be. Much of the success of the club is attributed to the ability and enthusiasm of the two presidents, Robin Humphrey and Richard Petri, and to the originality and cleverness of two program chairmen, Jean Seacat and Lucile Bloch.

The members are also deeply indebted for the help, guidance, and inspiration so unselfishly given by their sponsor, Miss Alicia C. Keeler.

The Jules Guerin Art Club was formed in December, 1922. The club was named for a living artist, a native of Missouri, who has achieved national recognition through his competitive murals in the Lincoln Memorial and our own Liberty Memorial. His greatest recognition was probably given as the color architect for the Pacific Exposition.

The purpose of the Jules Guerin Art Club is to further art and all things related to it. Our Club Motto is "Paint True Reflections." Any pupil having one term of art or drafting is eligible for membership proposal in the club. Jules Guerin also serves as a nucleus for choosing the Art Staff members for the Herald.

Many interesting activities were carried on this year, such as making scrapbooks, reporting on artists, and the sketching and studying of paintings. The Kansas City Art Institute, within walking distance of Westport High School, provides opportunities for a specialized consideration of oils and water colors by contemporary and earlier artists. Textiles, etchings, and interiors were also studied by the club members.

Much of the club's success is due to the capable sponsor, Miss Shelton Wilhite, for her willingness and understanding cooperation with the members and officers.

1939 marks the completion of the twenty-third year of the B. C. P. Science Club in Westport High School. It is one of the oldest clubs in the school. Although it was first limited to Biology and Botany students, the enlargement of the club in 1919 brought other branches of science into its membership. It now includes all the sciences taught at Westport, namely, Biology, Botany, Chemistry, Physics, Physiography, Physiology, Psychology, and Zoology.

The programs are given under the direction of the Vice-President and deal with the different fields of science. This year such different subjects as archaeology, ornithology, geology, and numerous others were treated in such a manner that everyone was sure to learn new facts of an aspect of science. The various members of the club gave reports, performed experiments, and showed pictures of the subject being discussed. It was the desire of the Vice-President to confine a certain subject to a single meeting so that it might be more fully covered.

This educational side of B. C. P. is not its only activity. The programs were arranged so as to be recreational as well, so as to bring fun as well as facts to the members. At almost every meeting a game connected in some way with science was played. A party was given at Christmas time. The annual picnic in May was thoroughly enjoyed by all the members of the club.

In addition to these activities the club gave its service to the school in the ticket sales for the Fall and Spring Plays.

The members of B. C. P. wish to express their gratitude to Miss Bechtel, who ably took over the responsibility of sponsoring the club again this year and who gave assistance and advice to the officers and to the club as a whole. It is the hope of the club that she derived as much joy in working with us as we had in working with her.

Alpha Lyra is one of the venerable institutions of Westport, having a tradition almost as old as Westport itself. The members are proud of the club history and seek to perpetuate the fame and glory of the organization by the selection of promising material for membership.

This school year has been one of steady and continued growth. An early examination disclosed that most of the members were seniors, so talented juniors and sophomores were solicited to carry on the club traditions.

One Alpha Lyra service in past years has been to sponsor an all-school vocal and instrumental contest. Such a contest was held last year, and many have expressed the hope that it may be repeated. In addition to the usual activities, a picnic has been planned for the late spring—the first in three years.

No club of this nature can long survive without adequate leadership, a quality liberally supplied by Mr. Spring, our supervisor. In addition to performing his elective duties, Mr. Spring's service to the members by way of giving information and encouragement is invaluable.

Every school has a certain number of organizations representing the basic courses and major physical activities. Alpha Lyra differs in that it appeals to the aesthetic, offering an outlet for the expression of the emotions, thus differing in function and reward from any other club or organization. In short, it is one of the adornments of Westport, providing for its members a more comprehensive grasp of music essentials, a deeper appreciation of the classics, a positive and constant stimulation of the intellect.

EL MOTO: Adelante siempre adelante

En este club se habla solo si español. Por esto los miembros del club tienen oportunidad de aprender más de esta lengua. También, tienen oportunidad de oír a las otras personas hablando español.

Los miembros aprendieron mucho del arte de Velásquez y Murillo por una visita al Nelson Art Gallery y también por las lecturas de unos profesores de Méjico.

Las programas consisten en juegos, pláticas sobre los países Sud-Americanos, canciones, y otras cosas de interés. También, películas de Chile, y de otros países de la América Hispaña se presentaron durante el año.

El Círculo Calderón ha establecido un intercambio de cartas y periódicos con los alumnos de los colegios de los países Sud-Americanos. Este contacto entre los alumnos de Westport y sus amigos ha de ser de mucho interés y valor.

Cosas como esto ayudan establecer un sentimiento amigable entre los Estados Unidos y Sud-América.

Toutes les deux semaines dans la salle 212, les étudiants de français viennent à la réunion des Immortels. Ici, ils ont une occasion d'augmenter leur vocabulaire français, de se servir de la grammaire correcte, et, en somme, de devenir éloquents dans la langue française. Tout ceci est possible parce qu'ils parlent français pendant toute la séance.

Les programmes sont toujours très agréables et intrigants. Cette année, le cercle a donné à ses nouveaux membres une initiation très divertissante. A Noël, le cercle entier a chanté des cantiques de cette joyeuse saison, tout en français; et on a servi des rafraîchissements délicieux. On a présenté de la musique, des revues des livres, dramatiques et amusantes, et des cinémas français qui étaient présentés dans cette ville. On a donné quelques histoires au sujet de la vie des personnages français, et des endroits les plus notables à Paris, et des événements courants de la France. Quelquefois ils ont chanté des chansons populaires d'Amérique qui étaient traduites en français. Aussi, les membres ont participé aux jeux intéressants de l'histoire et de la vie française. On a présenté beaucoup d'autres choses amusantes aux séances du cercle.

Les Immortels se compose des membres qui sont très actifs dans les affaires de l'école. Le cercle a une membre qui est de la rédaction du Herald; une qui a reçu les plus hauts honneurs scholastiques de Westport; des membres qui ont réussi dans les contestations de l'école et quelques membres qui ont reçu les perles d'honneur.

Tous les élèves de français sont reconnaissants à Mlle. Collins, leur bonne conseillère, pour son aide sympathique dans les activités du cercle.

Two years ago under the direction of Mr. Holloway and Mr. Carmichael, a school-wide election was held. The five persons receiving the highest number of votes became the officers of the newly-founded Westport Auto Club which began its first year of service to the school in the fall of 1937. During that year, the Auto Club established itself firmly in the life of Westport.

By experimenting in the school with a reactometer, the Auto Club was able to confirm facts and figures already surmised. The road tests made by the organization impressed vividly upon the minds of the students the braking distances of cars and the necessity of good brakes. The Auto Club also held a series of talks on safety in the home rooms. These speeches, given by members of the Auto Club, developed fully the various safety problems such as: care of the car, brakes, driving in bad weather, explanations of traffic problems, instructions for safe walking and others of vital importance. In the assembly given by the Auto Club, entertainment was combined with instruction. Slides portraying the application of the safety code of Kansas City were shown on the screen by members of the police department.

In the spring of 1939 the Auto Club gave a printed examination to every student in the school. This examination included questions on traffic problems, traffic regulations, parts of the motor car and the traffic code. As a result of this examination, the Auto Club was able to determine what subjects of safety should be stressed most. At this time, the Auto Club began a series of radio talks given over station KCMO by various members of the club. These speeches, presented in conjunction with the police department, explained the traffic code, various traffic problems, and gave instructions to drivers in bad weather and to pedestrians; the speakers enlarged on all factors important for safety in driving and walking.

The Auto Club had the distinction of being the first club to sponsor an all-school mixer in May of 1939. Again, as at all times, the activities of the Auto Club measured up to the high standards set for itself. The Auto Club originated another new idea for Westport. Each member in good standing was given a blue membership card very like the city driver's license. Stickers, bearing the insignia of the Auto Club, were sold to the members.

The members fully realize and appreciate the work done by our sponsor, Mr. Thayer H. Carmichael, in directing the activities of the club. It is only through his careful guidance that the Auto Club has risen to its present position of prominence in Westport.

It has been the custom of this club to aid in all plays, assemblies, and other forms of entertainment which Westport High School presents. The members also assist in class rooms by operating different kinds of picture machines. This year has been no exception.

Stage and Screen members volunteered their services for the Hi-larities, the annual Westport variety show, Westport on Parade, an annual event presented for the enjoyment of the Parent-Teacher Association, the Spring and Fall Plays and many Speech Arts programs.

The club is composed of two groups: the stage division and the screen division. Workers for lights, house crew, prompters, scenery, property, makeup and costume form the stage division. Operators of movie and slide machines make up the screen division. Members are always within a minute's call.

Mr. Fossum, our former sponsor who left Westport to accept a position at Junior College, has been greatly missed and we owe to him our deepest gratitude. His departure was indeed a loss to the Stage and Screen Club. We were especially pleased to receive such an enthusiastic person as Mr. King to replace our former adviser. He has shown his interest by taking an active part in all activities presented here. It was under his supervision that we were able to repaint the stage set for the first time in several years.

Through the expert guidance of Mr. Long we have been able to operate the motion picture machines. Mr. Miner of the Science Department has been generous in allowing us the use of his microphone and other electrical appliances that we needed.

Carrying on last year's plans to become an invaluable asset to the Herald and an aid to Westport's amateur picture snappers, the Candid Camera Club closes its second eventful year. The two presidents, David Nutt and Jack Seibel, assisted by Ray Luhnow, are well known to you as the men behind the camera which took your picture for other club panels. Delmont Durham was photographer for athletics and Jack Seibel for R. O. T. C. Scattered throughout this book will be found a record of the ceaseless efforts of its members to record life in Westport as you know it.

We believe that we have done much to advance the art of photography among the students by means of the varied programs. Chief among these may be mentioned the sound movie presented by the Eastman Kodak Company showing the process of sensitizing paper and films and the manufacture of cameras, and the exhibition of color transparencies taken on a trip through the Grand Canyon region.

Something new was introduced this year by increasing the number of departments in which pictures are made by the Herald Staff, thus reducing the expense of engaging outside professionals. Also new in this year's Herald are the novel "sets" photographed by David Nutt.

Largely the work of the Camera Club is the long-wished-for dark room used by the Herald Staff in preparing prints for publication. This room, lately used for storing physics apparatus and for practice radio broadcasting, was built originally as a dark room in connection with physics experiments.

Membership is limited by the regular scholastic requirements, and an appreciable interest in photography; meetings are held every other Wednesday, under the able sponsorship of Miss Bonney. As the years roll on, we feel sure the Candid Camera Club will hold and strengthen its position among the service clubs.

The purpose of the Health Service Club is to give health knowledge to its members in order that they may serve others as well as themselves. In order to achieve this, the group studies the health problems as related to high school students. The emblem of the club is the lamp of Florence Nightingale.

The year's activities may be summed up as follows: Several speakers have brought interesting messages about their professions, namely: Mr. Neal, representative of Red Cross; Miss French, superintendent of nurses at St. Luke's Hospital; Dr. Schorer, City Health Director; Miss Thelma Foster, a visiting nurse, and Miss Rachael Reed, representative of the Dairy Council.

At various times, the members have made excursions to Bell Memorial Hospital, Kansas University Hospital, The Nurse's Home, and Trinity Lutheran Hospital. Several "Professor Quiz" programs on health have been presented to see how much knowledge the average person has of health problems. A Christmas party was held at the Nurses' Club, the entertainment being provided by the nurses. Miss Morgan, the school nurse, was ably assisted in the Health Center by Marilyn Hart, Betty Hansen, and Eunice Moore.

The members of the Health Service Club feel that all our progress is due to the advice and efforts of Miss Morgan. She has made our club meetings interesting, entertaining, and instructive.

The purpose of the club is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character. The platform is "clean living, clean speech, clean sports, and clean scholarship."

Brief mention of some of the year's activities will reveal a few of our year's interests and pleasures. At Christmas the Hi-Y Club sent canned goods to Mercy Hospital. At Easter the Hi-Y and Girl Reserves presented four excellent speakers at Pre-Easter services each morning before school. At these meetings there was an excellent attendance. The Hi-Y also sponsored a popular assembly program. Charles May and his magic and the two piano selections by Junior Jenks and Mr. Crocker on two Baldwin grand pianos received applause most generous and enthusiastic.

Members of the cabinet who have been active this year are:

Richard Brown	Dick Kimball	Bill Petrie
Charles Clark	Jimmy Lore	Duane Roush
Harold Clark	Arden Numer	Joe Seibel
Bob Crawford	Clark Page	Maurice Williams
Ralph Hirschmann

Mr. George Allen was the representative from the Y. M. C. A. who worked with the club. At one time Mr. Allen's collection of autographs of famous people was on display for a week in Room 117.

Mr. Luther Crocker is the Hi-Y sponsor. His delight and talent in music and his balanced judgment and personal interest in the students made the members of the club realize that they were among the favored in choice of an adviser.

Treasurer.....	Margaret Marsh

As we, the Westport Girl Reserves, look back through the year, we feel that this has been a most successful one. Our meetings have been educational, inspiring, and helpful; our parties entertaining and friendly.

During the year, we have had some outstanding speakers, among them Mr. Crocker, Mr. Shouse, Miss Hatch of East High School, Mrs. Bulkley of the City Union Mission, and Dr. Harrington, a well-known Kansas City psychiatrist. We feel that each of these gave us something worth while.

In November, we bought and wrapped gifts to send to an Indian reservation to use at Christmas time for the boys and girls there. In December, there was a tea at the home of Mrs. Miller. A program was given by some of the members and Christmas songs were sung. One of the highlights of the year was the annual City Union Mission party. At this time, each girl who wished adopted a child for whom she bought Christmas gifts. A party was given for the children with stories and games chosen by the girls. At Easter, joint meetings were held with the Hi-Y. All who attended were impressed by the fine speakers—Dr. Baity, Dr. Gray, Phil Morgan, and Mr. Shouse.

A recognition service was given for new members and a Mother-and-Daughter tea at which time the officers for next year were installed. The girls also enjoyed inter-club meetings and parties at the "Y." Among these were the Palm Sunday breakfast, the closing banquet, the Hi-Y-Girl Reserve Cabinet supper, and three dances to which the girls invited boys as guests.

The Cabinet members appreciate the efforts Miss Eggleston put forth in helping to make this year a success. We also wish to extend our thanks to Miss Helen Faye Fair, secretary, Miss Bessie Grube, Miss Wilma Hazel Wheeland, Miss Carol F. Hayden, and Mrs. N. B. Miller, Jr., under whose able guidance we have worked.

TONS OF MONEY

A Farce in Three Acts

By WILL EVANS and VALENTINE

Miss Alicia Keeler added another star to her crown by her direction of "Tons of Money." This play, written by Will Evans and Valentine, involves a young husband and wife in a series of financial difficulties from which they endeavor to escape. In their efforts to evade these fiscal worries, the wife conceives several comical "ideas," each of which has the effect of producing still greater anxiety.

In desperate extremity the wife suggests the fake suicide of the husband so that he may at once come into his inheritance from a relative and at the same time dodge all his creditors. He is to accomplish this happy result by an explosion in his laboratory. The explosion occurs but the plot is a comical failure in all other respects.

Neither repentant nor discouraged, the wife has another "idea," which involves false suicide by drowning. Again there is the mirth-provoking and complete miscarriage of every element of the plot, and the play ends with the resourceful wife having another "idea."

Miss Keeler is to be complimented not only for her direction, but also for the selection of the play and the perfect assignment of talent. In all this she was ably assisted by Miss Wheeler. "Tons of Money" seems to have been composed as a special vehicle for this cast, every member of which performed with the poise and assurance of a veteran.

THE GHOST TRAIN

By ARNOLD RIDLEY

Westport triumphed again with the production, "The Ghost Train," a mystery by Arnold Ridley. Mr. King, our very capable director, and his committee showed ingenuity in the selection of this play, for it contained a pleasing blend of comedy and mystery.

The story deals, in the main, with rum-runners and narcotic smugglers. In a peaceful village in Maine, there is a superstition of twenty years' standing about a "ghost train" which flashes by in the dead of night, swinging the scythe of death.

All who look on the train are supposed to die. The rum-runners, careless of lives and property, use this belief for their own advantage. It terrorizes that section of the country, and it is only through the cleverness of an apparently witless Scotland Yard detective that the evil-doers are apprehended.

The fine work of each member of the cast and the masterful direction of Mr. King made the characters become people and the story become life, so that the audience was tense and breathless to the very end of the play.

THE WESTPORT BAND

For a number of years Westport has had a band second to none in its class. This is attested by its consistent performance and placement in the first division of regional contests. This year the band received a First Division plus rating in the Mid-West Contest at Lawrence.

Mr. Keenan has been responsible for the performance of these amateurs and their predecessors for a number of years, and the standing and reputation they have acquired speaks volumes for his leadership and direction. Football games, basketball games, and many other school functions would seem incomplete without the band.

The band has done much to develop and maintain the prestige of Westport, and to its members and to Mr. Keenan, we offer the congratulations of the student body.

An asset in which Westport takes great pride is its orchestra of seventy members, under the direction of Mr. George Keenan, Director of Music.

Last year, and again this year, the orchestra placed in the first division in the regional contest at Lawrence, Kansas.

Credit for this successful organization goes, without question, to Mr. Keenan. He has worked tirelessly to make these embryo musicians outstanding in their class. The Melody Boosters Club has provided invaluable assistance and has also helped with contributions to bear expenses covering travel and instruments for both the band and the orchestra.

This year for the first time Mr. Keenan has the able assistance of a youthful musician, Mr. Eugene Beeman, who received his first musical instruction on the French Horn under Mr. Keenan and still regards him as his teacher. After graduating from Emporia State Teachers' College, he taught public school music for two years in Attica, Kansas, winning honors with both his band and orchestra. Mr. Beeman is an ardent sport enthusiast; his pet aversions are parsnips and oysters.

One of the most appealing and attractive groups of which Westport is very proud is the Girls Glee Club. Their new uniforms, consisting of a long blue taffeta skirt topped by a beautiful white brushed-wool sweater, completely captivate their audience at first sight. Their appearance plus the beauty and harmony of their voices make them one of the student body's favorite vocal groups. The Glee Club received a second division rating at the state contest at Columbia this year.

An important part of the club's activities is that of providing trios and triple-trios for special occasions. For these public appearances the members of the group as well as the director have received many expressions of approval and appreciation.

To Mr. Spring we extend congratulations for his fine work with this group, and to his baton—long may it wave!

Under the capable and inspiring leadership of Mr. Harling A. Spring, Westport's A Cappella Choir has become one of the best known in the city.

The full choir is composed of one hundred voices trained in two classes, one meeting first hour and the other third hour. Out of these, forty-eight are robed for sacred concerts. The A Cappella Choir has presented concerts at various churches and numerous assemblies, has sung for the Parent-Teacher Association, and has delighted its radio audience. The choir also attended the state contest at Columbia and received a second division rating.

The robes of the group are in perfect harmony with the spirit of Westport, being of the school colors—blue and gold.

The choir and Mr. Spring deserve the highest commendation and praise.

ESSAYS

The Sons of the American Revolution Essay Contest is one in which entries are submitted by high school students all over the city. Westport is very proud to have won first, second, and third places this year. The winners were guests at a banquet held in their honor, at which they read their essays. Mary Munson is the fifteen-year old junior whose essay won first place. She was awarded a gold medal for her very fine work. Lucille Langknecht, a gifted senior, won second place. She is a fine student and a true example of the literary talent in Westport. Edgar Young, a senior, was the winner of third place.

The Jefferson Essay Contest, sponsored by the Women's Jeffersonian Democratic Club, was won this year by a Westport senior, Eileen Rader. She was a guest of honor at a meeting of the club, at which time she read her essay and received a fifteen dollar prize. Betty Wile, a junior, won third place, and a five dollar prize.

Frances Quint, Shirley Greenbaum, and Jana Ray Lee are three students whose names stand out in any summary of commercial activities. Frances is Westport's fastest typist; she types seventy-five words a minute, and was the winner of the District Contest held at Westport this year. Shirley is the fastest student at shorthand in the school this year. But more than that, she is faster than any shorthand student on the Westport records. Jana Ray Lee has the distinction of being the best bookkeeping student in Westport; she is an outstanding stenographer and typist as well.

DEBATE

The debating teams of Westport deserve considerable mention for their outstanding work this year, under the experienced supervision of Mr. King. A series of debates was conducted with Wyandotte, Southwest, Central, Manual, Paseo, Rockhurst, and Turner high schools. To each of these debates four teams were sent, with four students on each team. Senate debates were held with Manual and the procedure used in the legislature was followed. Inter-class debates were also an important part of the work. All of these contests were non-decision debates because of existing rules to that effect. The teams that went to other schools were composed of the best debaters from each class. Those who participated were:

Ernie Goodman	Loretta Bruce
Annette Lanham	Bernice Nilson
Marsha-Rose Lobach	Jean Seacat
Ann Carlton Logan	Bill Beeman
Mary Dean Moss	Louis Cohen
Molly Phelps	Richard Petri
Peggy Snapp	George Tuer
Elizabeth Walsh	Richard Buchli

Kenneth Bigus	Lucile Bloch
Eugene Henderson	Mary K. Brown
Ralph Hirschmann	Jane Kirkpatrick
Fiske Miles	Harriet Kurnik
Bruce Roach	Joan McCafferty
Walter Root	Betty Pirnie
Maurice Williams

ART

Justine Bates is the talented senior whose design won enough recognition to be selected as the cover for the 1939 Herald. Another design which she submitted was the second choice. Justine has an abundance of artistic talent and we are sure that she has a bright future in this field.

ORATORY

Richard Brown was the winner of the Constitutional Oratorical Contest at Westport. This was an honor of great merit since most of the orators of worth entered the contest. Richard is very active in all affairs and is known by all as a fine speaker.

In the original oration contest held between classes, Lucile Bloch was the winner. Those entering were:

Lucile Bloch	Mary Dean Moss
Ralph Hirschmann	Jean Seacat
Ann Carlton Logan	George Tuer
Joan McCafferty

SCHOLARSHIPS

Here we wish to give recognition to the seniors of Westport whose outstanding high school records merited their receiving scholarships to universities throughout the country. Richard Southall received the only full tuition scholarship to the University of Chicago awarded in Kansas City, after taking an extremely difficult three hour examination. Martha Hammitt and Richard Brown were awarded full tuition scholarships for four years to Washington University in St. Louis on general recommendation by the principal and on a personal interview with members of the scholarship committee. Ann Carlton Logan received a four year scholarship covering tuition and dormitory fees to the University of Rochester in New York. Elizabeth Vess was awarded a William Woods scholarship. Congratulations to these Westporters who have brought honor to themselves and their school.

MUSIC

Our Westport musicians who entered the Mid-Western Music Competition Festival at Kansas University, Lawrence, Kansas, April 26-28, and the State elimination for the National Contests at Columbia, Missouri, April 29, brought home many honors. The following rating scale was used in all contests:

- I—Highly superior
- II—Superior
- III—Excellent
- IV—Good
- V—Average

A summary of Westport's ratings justifies our pride in our music work.

WESTPORT HI-LARITIES

Depicting American ways and folk-lore in an imaginary review for the King and Queen of England while they are visiting in America was the theme for the 1939 Westport Hi-larities.

The King and Queen are taken upon a "magic carpet" and are whisked from one section of the country to another,—each time pausing long enough to get an idea about what each section of this great country looks like and what kind of people live there.

The introduction consisted of two popular songs of the swing era and also a classical number by the A Cappella Choir.

Then the King and Queen visited the Indians in their native haunts and there saw the traditional war dance which was performed by the Boy Scouts, under the direction of Edgar Young, authority on Indians and their customs.

Next was a trip below the Mason and Dixon Line so that the King and Queen might hear the finest untrained voices in the world—our American negroes. While on this visit to the Southland, they also saw a few of the activities of the negroes.

The magic carpet then swirled the King and Queen out to the West to view the activities of the newest part of our country.

Naturally American life would not be complete unless the life of the famous "hillbilly" were shown. In this scene "Hillbillysh" songs as "Turkey in the Straw" and "Comin' Round the Mountain" were heard. Also a hillbilly dance and sketch were given.

Then came a general summing up of American life and in this scene the King and Queen glimpsed a skit between an American family being received by an English family. Then followed acrobatic dances, "jitter bugs" doin' their "stuff," popular swing songs, and other American activities.

The 1939 Westport Hi-larities came to a grand finale in a tribute to the King and Queen—Hail to the King and Queen! Long may they live!

The Hi-larities were presented the nights of May 12 and 13. Much of their success is due to the efforts of Mr. Crocker and his committee. Congratulations are extended to every member who took part in the finished production.

Dick Heinerickson, a tall, rangy end, whose blocking was the strongest part of his offense.

FOOTBALL IN REVIEW

Westport 18 Paseo 0

The opening game of the 1938 season was a thrilling defeat of the Paseo Pirates. After this initial victory Westport's prospects of winning the Interscholastic League title seemed very bright. The blocking was fine and the offensive excellent in this game, in which Stock and Florea led the attack. The Pirate offensive began to click in the third quarter but was soon stopped by the interception of a Pirate pass by Stock. The line showed promise of being one of the best in the League.

Westport 6 Central 13

The high hopes and spirits of the first game were somewhat dampened by this defeat. Westport's first and only tally was made early in the game, when Stock was able to carry the pigskin over for a score after a 29 yard run by Florea. The Central team, led by speedy Pete Lerner, began to drive near the end of the second quarter and piled up 13 points in spite of the frantic efforts of the Tiger squad. The Westport team showed need of better blocking in this game.

Westport 0 Southwest 20

For three quarters of this exciting game it seemed that the Tiger squad would hold the Indians scoreless for the first time in a number of years, but a pass from Hibler to Wilson of the Indian squad gave them the lead which they maintained and continued to increase for the rest of the game. Westport played brilliantly at times, once stopping Southwest on the 3-yard line, but the Indian attack led by Greenwood proved too menacing and the Tigers wilted.

Westport 19 Northeast 6

With a fast charging forward wall and capable backs Westport gained its second victory of the season. The first score was made on the first play of the second quarter when Mendenhall plunged through the center of the line carrying the ball over. The beginning of the last half found the Vikings in a vengeful mood. A march up the field led by Sage culminated in a score for them. Regaining some of the brilliance in playing which characterized the first game of the season, the Tiger team added twelve more points to their score.

Westport 7 East 7

During the first half of this game, one of the hardest fought of the year, no score was made. Westport started its drive early in the third quarter. A 64-yard march led by Stock and Mendenhall was climaxed by a center plunge from the two-yard line by Stock. In the final quarter, Gravino of East raced around left end, eluded the Tiger secondary, and scored standing up. Then the Tigers opened up with an aerial attack hoping to complete a pass that would mean the difference between victory and tie, but no such good luck was in store for Westport and the game ended 7-7.

Westport finished the season in fourth place, with a percentage of .450.

Walt Byers of Westport won the distinction of being selected center on the All-Star team; he was one of the outstanding players in the League.

The following were members of Westport's second team:

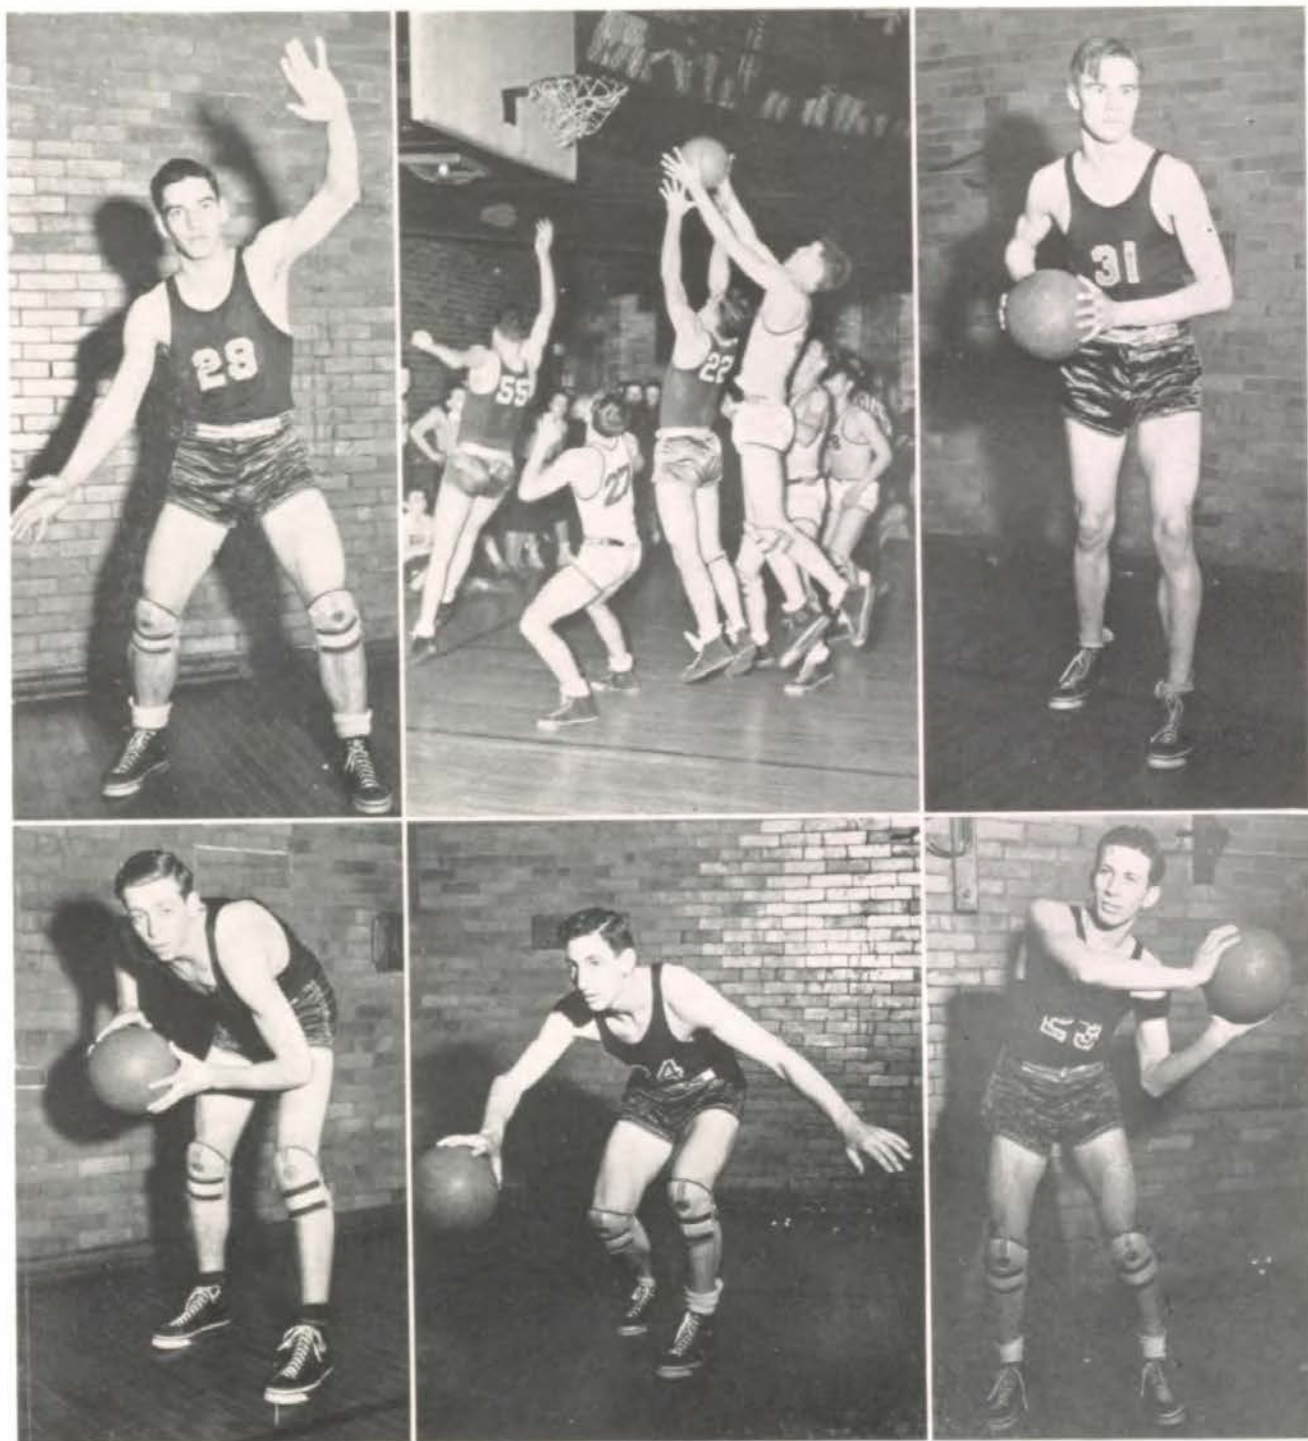

Jack Nielsen	Bob Plumberg
Rupert Smith	Pat Lollis
Joe Solsky	Morton Levine
Bill Bucher	Ed Young
Charley Wissel	John Scott
Byrle Ladd	Bill Kester

COACH BOURRETTE

Coach Bourrette is a fine teacher of football fundamentals. Even more important, however, is his ability to instill in the boys the right ideas of conduct and sportsmanship. His teams, win or lose, are always teams of which Westport may be proud.

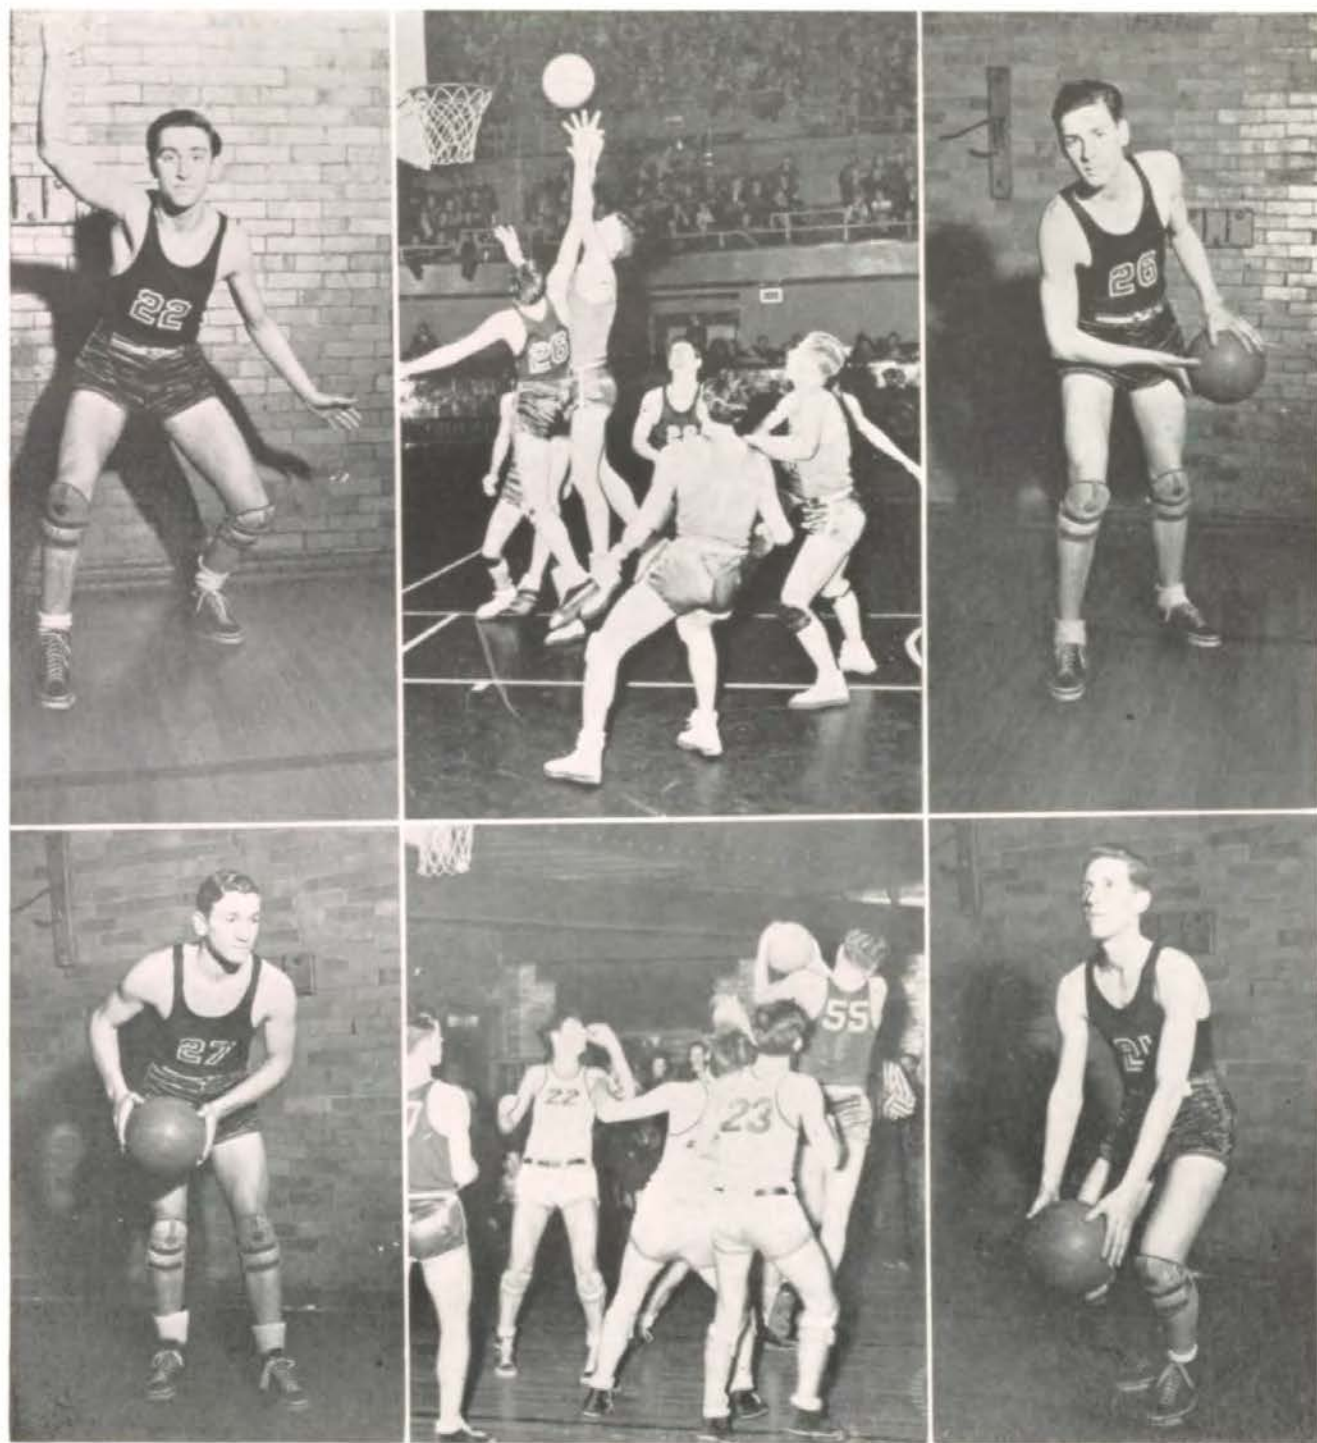

BASKET BALL

Westport 21 Paseo 22

A small but speedy Paseo team outplayed the taller Tiger squad to take the first game of the season 22-21. A long shot by a Paseo player in the last three minutes gave them the slim margin of victory. At one time in the third quarter Westport held a 16-13 lead, but couldn't maintain it until the final gun. Silverman and Greenberg starred for the Tigers.

Westport 25 Central 19

Lead by their high scoring forward, Syd Silverman, the Westport Tigers avenged their first round defeat by downing the Central Blue Eagles. Central jumped into a 5-0 lead in the first four minutes of the game. At that point Coach Chubb sent in Silverman who immediately caged three goals to put the Tigers in front. From that point on the game was Westport's, with a final score of 25-19.

Westport 16 Southwest 26

Southwest won this game not because of any "jinx" on Westport, but because of more aggressive play. At an early point in the game Westport lead 8-7, but at the end of the half the Indians were out in front 13-10 and were never caught from that time on. Florea, Silverman, and Sheridan were high scorers for Westport.

Westport 21 Northeast 24

During the first half this game was fairly even, but at the beginning of the second half Northeast started a scoring spree to run the score to 22-15. In the final quarter Westport outscored the Vikings 6-2 but it was not enough to win the game. Bob Sheridan was the leading scorer with nine points. The Tigers seemed unable to settle down and play their best; passes were wild and inaccurate all through the game.

Westport 20 Manual 27

The Tigers started off as though they meant to wrap up this game and take it home in the first ten minutes. They jumped into an 8-2 lead on a scoring spree by Florea, Greenberg, and Stubblefield. But in the second quarter Manual tied up the score and gained a 13-11 advantage by half time. Manual's offense in the second half was too much for the Tigers. Heinerickson played well and was high scorer for Westport with seven points.

Westport 33 East 22

Playing one of their best games of the season the Westport Tigers triumphed over the East Bears. It was not until the second period that the Tiger offense really got under way. Heinerickson started off the fireworks and by the time he had finished for the evening, he had rung up 15 points for individual scoring honors and Westport had salted the game away.

The Tigers finished the season with a percentage of .333 and fifth place in the League. In the selection of the interscholastic All-Stars, Heinerickson was given center position on the second team.

COACH CHUBB

Mr. Chubb is our well-liked basketball coach. Although he is still awaiting his first championship, his Tiger teams have always given a good account of themselves and the opposition knows that when a Chubb-coached team goes on the floor there will be plenty of clean play and stiff competition.

GOLF

The interest in golf and the number of boys participating in the annual golf tournament have greatly increased this past year. The matches were played on the Swope Park No. 1 course, Westport placing fifth in the city tournament. This is the first year that our school has had entrants in the state tournament. Bob Brian and Joe Simmons made a very creditable showing in the state games. It is hoped that next year the Missouri State Inter-Scholastic Golf Tournament will be held in Kansas City rather than at Columbia as it has been previously.

Much credit for the increasing interest in golf should go to Mr. Harris, coach.

TENNIS CHAMPIONS AGAIN

*Phil Riegelman
Bill Humphrey
Eddie Kander*

Champions in action in the Interscholastic Matches

*Jack Ormsbee
Fred Humphrey
Jack Marcum*

Westport again maintained its domination of the Inter-Scholastic Tennis League by winning all the titles offered.

Jack Ormsbee, team captain, captured the singles championship by virtue of a hard-fought 9-7, 6-1, 6-0 victory over Frank Moseley of Southwest.

The doubles title was won by the Humphrey twins, Fred and Bill, from another Westport team, Eddie Kander and Jack Marcum, 7-5, 6-1, 6-1.

Phil Riegelman, another Westport singles player, displayed a fine brand of tennis, bowing only to Moseley in the semi-finals, 6-0, 8-6.

Ormsbee and Riegelman will be lost to the squad through graduation but the Humphreys, Kander, and Marcum all return next year.

Mr. Fristoe, tennis coach, deserves much credit for his fine spirit and hard work in scheduling meets and conducting intramural tournaments.

COACH KENNEDY

Under Mr. Kennedy's able direction the boys' intramural department has continued to expand, with more boys taking part and new events being added to the tournament schedule. Coach Kennedy is giving new life to this athletic program in which all boys in school may have a part.

HOCKEY

SENIORS

Second row: Winona Bowen, Jean Miller, Jean Goodrich, Josephine Voorhees, Adean Hagan, Hazel Ham, Martha Laughlin, Molly Phelps.

JUNIORS

Second row: Alice Anderson, Madeleine Williams, Marguerite Eblen, Lucille Bethel, Mayme Bresnahan, Lillian Sandy, Marguerite Clark, Doris Putnam.

SOPHOMORES

Second row: Virginia Walker, Nancy Whitnell, Pat Fletcher, Marilyn Ellis, Dolores Leigh, Mercedes Wilson, Marjory Rawnsley.

Front row: Carol Eastman, Betty Dodge, Marilyn Hall, La Verne Ferguson, Ellamae Fletcher, Corrine DeLancey, Mary Ellen Williamson.

Closing a brilliant season of excellent performance by all teams, the seniors won the hockey crown for 1938.

This sent the seniors onward to the final goal, the inscription of their name on the silver athletic cup. To attain this honor, three consecutive championships must be won.

The teams of all the schools met at Southwest this year for the hockey play day. Although the competition was keen, the seniors who represented Westport made a good showing.

Jean Miller, the efficient hockey manager for the fall of '38, kept the scores and arranged the schedules for the match games. The hockey games were played on the triangle at 38th and Gillham.

The final team standings were as follows:

Team	Won	Tied	Per cent	Total Goals
Seniors	3	0	1.000	12
Juniors	2	1	.666	22
Sophomores	0	4	.000	8

BASKETBALL

SENIORS

Second row: Ethelyn Carlson, Josephine Voorhees, Adean Hagan, Meredith Brewer, Hazel Ham, Betty Jo Fram, Winona Bowen.

JUNIORS

Second row: Doris Putnam, Lillian Sandy, Madeleine Williams, Anita Spindel, Marguerite Clark.

Front row: Mayme Bresnahan, Mildred McPherson, Lucille Bethel, Jean O'Donnell, Hortense Greenman, Gladys Alford, Margie Golding.

A tie for the championship! Although the seniors and juniors shared the title this year in basketball, the class of '38 still has hopes of getting its name inscribed on the cup.

The final team standings were as follows:

Team	Won	Lost	Per cent	Total Points
Seniors	3	1	.750	103
Juniors	3	1	.750	159
Sophomores	0	4	.000	73

At the basketball play day held at Northeast this year Westport was the high point school. This day is set aside each year to bring the teams from all

Kansas City high schools together, not to decide the championship of the city or to receive a loving cup, but for the fun of the sport.

By using the strongest members of the senior team, the guards, Miller, Ham, and Shoemaker, along with the junior forwards, Greenman, O'Donnell and Bresnahan, Westport won all its games. Ours was the only team undefeated.

The annual alumnae game was held on December 22. Girls were present from as far back as '24. Although the alumnae had the experience they had to bow to the skill and speed of this year's girls. An all-girl orchestra furnished music for the dancing. Vernell Wells was in charge of the party. Winona Bowen was the basketball manager.

BASEBALL

The 1939 Herald goes to the press before the baseball season is over; therefore the champions cannot be given recognition here. There are, however, three good teams and the competition should be strong. The seniors will have to win this championship if they are to get their names engraved on the loving cup. The baseball season is closed with a baseball picnic at the park. Letters are awarded at the picnic, and the picnic is open to all the girls of the school. The girls who made the teams are:

Seniors: Ruby Anderson, Winona Bowen, Meredith Brewer, Captain Ethelyn Carlson, Betty Jo Fram, Betty Fritzlén, Adean Hagan, Hazel Ham, Jean Miller, Norma Jean Riggs, Betty Shoemaker, Josephine Voorhees, Vernell Wells.

Juniors: Mayme Bresnahan, Marguerite Clark, Captain Betty Rachel Glenn, Hortense Greenman, Eva Maddox, Jean O'Donnell, Doris Putnam, Ruth Riggs, Lillian Sandy, Anita Spindel, Margie Golding, Mildred McPherson, Ruth Herold.

Sophomores: Marjorie Rawnsley, Martha Beets, Averil Elliott, Jean Wilcox, LaVerne Ferguson, Mavis McNeely, Patricia Fletcher, Betty Peters, Mary Ellen Williamson, Captain Marilyn Hall, Gilma Niederjohn, Marjorie Yoakum, Muriel Smith, Carol Eastman, Margaret Bridges.

TENNIS

Like baseball, tennis also is a sport of late spring, so the 1938 tennis champions are given recognition this year. The singles champion was Martha Smith, twice the winner, '37-'38. Martha played in the finals of the Missouri Valley Tournament at Rockhill Tennis Club in June. Following this she was on the "Junior Wightman Cup Team" and made two trips during the summer to play in tournaments. This year Martha is going on with her tennis at Wellesley and during the Easter vacation took part in the Bermuda Spring Invitation Tournament. Westport will hear of the great tennis doings of Martha Smith in the future. Hortense Greenman was runner-up to Martha last year, won the fall tournament of 1938, and will probably carry away the top honor for the spring tournament. The doubles champions of '38 were Alta Bingham and Phyllis Behmer.

MINOR ACTIVITIES

The largest intramural activity is social dancing. The boys and girls of this afterschool class learned the fundamental principles of social dancing and the latest dance steps. It helps the boys and girls to overcome their bashfulness and to become better dancers.

Horseback riding is another afterschool activity. It is offered for both advanced riders and beginners. It is valuable as an outdoor exercise and a sport which may be carried on in later life.

May 14, there was held a play day for the following sports: table tennis, aerial darts, shuffleboard, tennis, Chinese checkers, and swimming. It was the first of its kind to be held in Kansas City.

The table tennis winners of Westport were:

Singles—Doris Anderson

Doubles—Lou Dickey Baucus

Ann Carlton Logan

SENIOR PIN CANDIDATES

Hazel Ham

Jean Miller

Two senior girls are eligible for Senior Athletic Pins. To merit such an honor the girl must have earned six athletic letters, one of which must have been won her senior year. This pin is the highest award any girl can obtain in girls' athletics.

The winning of a "W" depends upon three things. First, the girl must show skillful mastering of the sport, second, exhibit the best qualities of sportsmanship in all competition and third, obtain good scholarship records of at least eight honor points every ten weeks.

Letters are given at the party which comes at the end of the last game for that particular sport. At this party, along with the awarding of letters, the girls of all the squads participate in games, followed by refreshments.

The 1939 candidates for Senior Pins are:

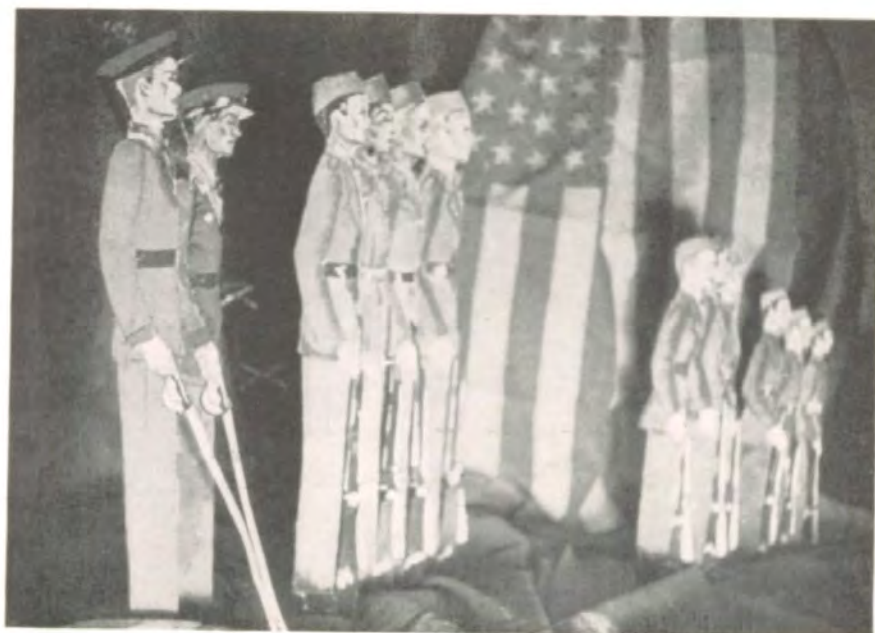

Hazel Ham—Basketball, '37-'38-'39; Hockey, '37-'38; Baseball, '38.

Jean Miller—Basketball, '37-'38-'39; Hockey, '37-'38; Baseball, '38.

Girls in the physical education department are fortunate in having so many different sports in which to participate. Along with the main sports of hockey, basketball, baseball, volleyball and tennis, there are other minor sports offered, such as horseback riding, table tennis, aerial darts, shuffleboard, Chinese checkers, and swimming. Although these sports are offered in the gym classes girls who are not enrolled in gym may also take part in them.

For their splendid help in making athletics enjoyable and interesting the senior girls of all the squads wish to thank Miss Florence Bradley, Mrs. Helen Shuler, who left us at the end of the first semester to become the teacher of girls' athletics at Southwest, and Miss Elenore Canny, who ably replaced Mrs. Shuler.

RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS

The object of the course of instruction in Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps is primarily to lay the foundation for intelligent citizenship, to prepare the student for further military instruction which will qualify him for a position of leadership in time of emergency and to provide the nation with an electorate informed of the purpose and necessity for a sane policy of national defense. The necessity of developing the student as an instructor and leader capable of producing trained privates, corporals, sergeants, as contrasted with the idea of merely perfecting him in the knowledge necessary to qualify himself in those grades, is constantly emphasized. Instruction in leadership is therefore begun in the first year and stressed in each succeeding year. Accordingly cadet and noncommissioned officers will be utilized as instructors and leaders as far as possible. It is the R. O. T. C. that must supply the vast majority of the reserve officers.

Major Burr P. Irwin is serving his first year as "Professor of Military Science and Tactics." Major Irwin's diplomatic policies as the head of the R. O. T. C. Regiment have made him an outstanding leader. We sincerely hope that he will have many more successful years as head of the Kansas City R. O. T. C. Units.

Sergeant W. S. Hilton, a new instructor, is in charge of Westport's battalion this year. His democratic views have made him an outstanding member of the school, and his consideration for the battalion as a whole has made him a leader, respected and admired by all the cadets.

Sgt. Hilton has made a remarkable record during his first year in school work. The Westport battalion received Honor School rating, won first place on Field Day and second place in Government Inspection, the Rifle Team placed first in city matches, and Bentley Nelson won the rank of Colonel.

RIFLE TEAM

The Westport Rifle Team had a successful season. Under the leadership of Sergeant Hilton and the 1939 captain, Lieutenant Ted Eckaus, the colors of Westport were carried to first place in the City Rifle Matches. This is the third time Westport has won first place; thus we are able to add the cup to our permanent trophies. Without Sergeant Hilton's aid, the entire rifle team readily admits it could not have placed in any of the tournaments.

In the city matches, Corp. Greenamyier came through as high man in the city by a comfortable margin. In the Corporal Area Matches, Lt. Ted Eckaus placed second, missing first by a few points; Corp. Greenamyier placed fifth. Both Eckaus and Greenamyier were on the Hearst Trophy team of Kansas City, whose members were the excellent marksmen of the City.

In the semi-finals all members finishing third received medals. The following won gold medals and gold and blue jackets for placing first in the final series of City matches: Lt. Ted Eckaus, Col. Bentley Nelson, Sgt. Robert Gould, Corp. Tom Greenamyier and Pvt. Johnny Asher. Great things are expected of next year's team, with Sgt. Gould, Corp. Greenamyier, Corp. Chinn and Pvt. Asher all returning.

THE R. O. T. C. CIRCUS

The R. O. T. C. Units of Kansas City and out of town schools and universities held their annual Circus at the Municipal Auditorium, March 31. Westport was awarded the honor of Crack Company Drill. Under the stirring leadership of Captain DeWitt Fair this unit was more than satisfactory as one company and platoon movement dissolved into another. The other officers who also contributed to the fine showing of Westport were First Lieutenant Ted Eckaus, Second Lieutenant Vern Ingraham and Second Lieutenant Richard Brown.

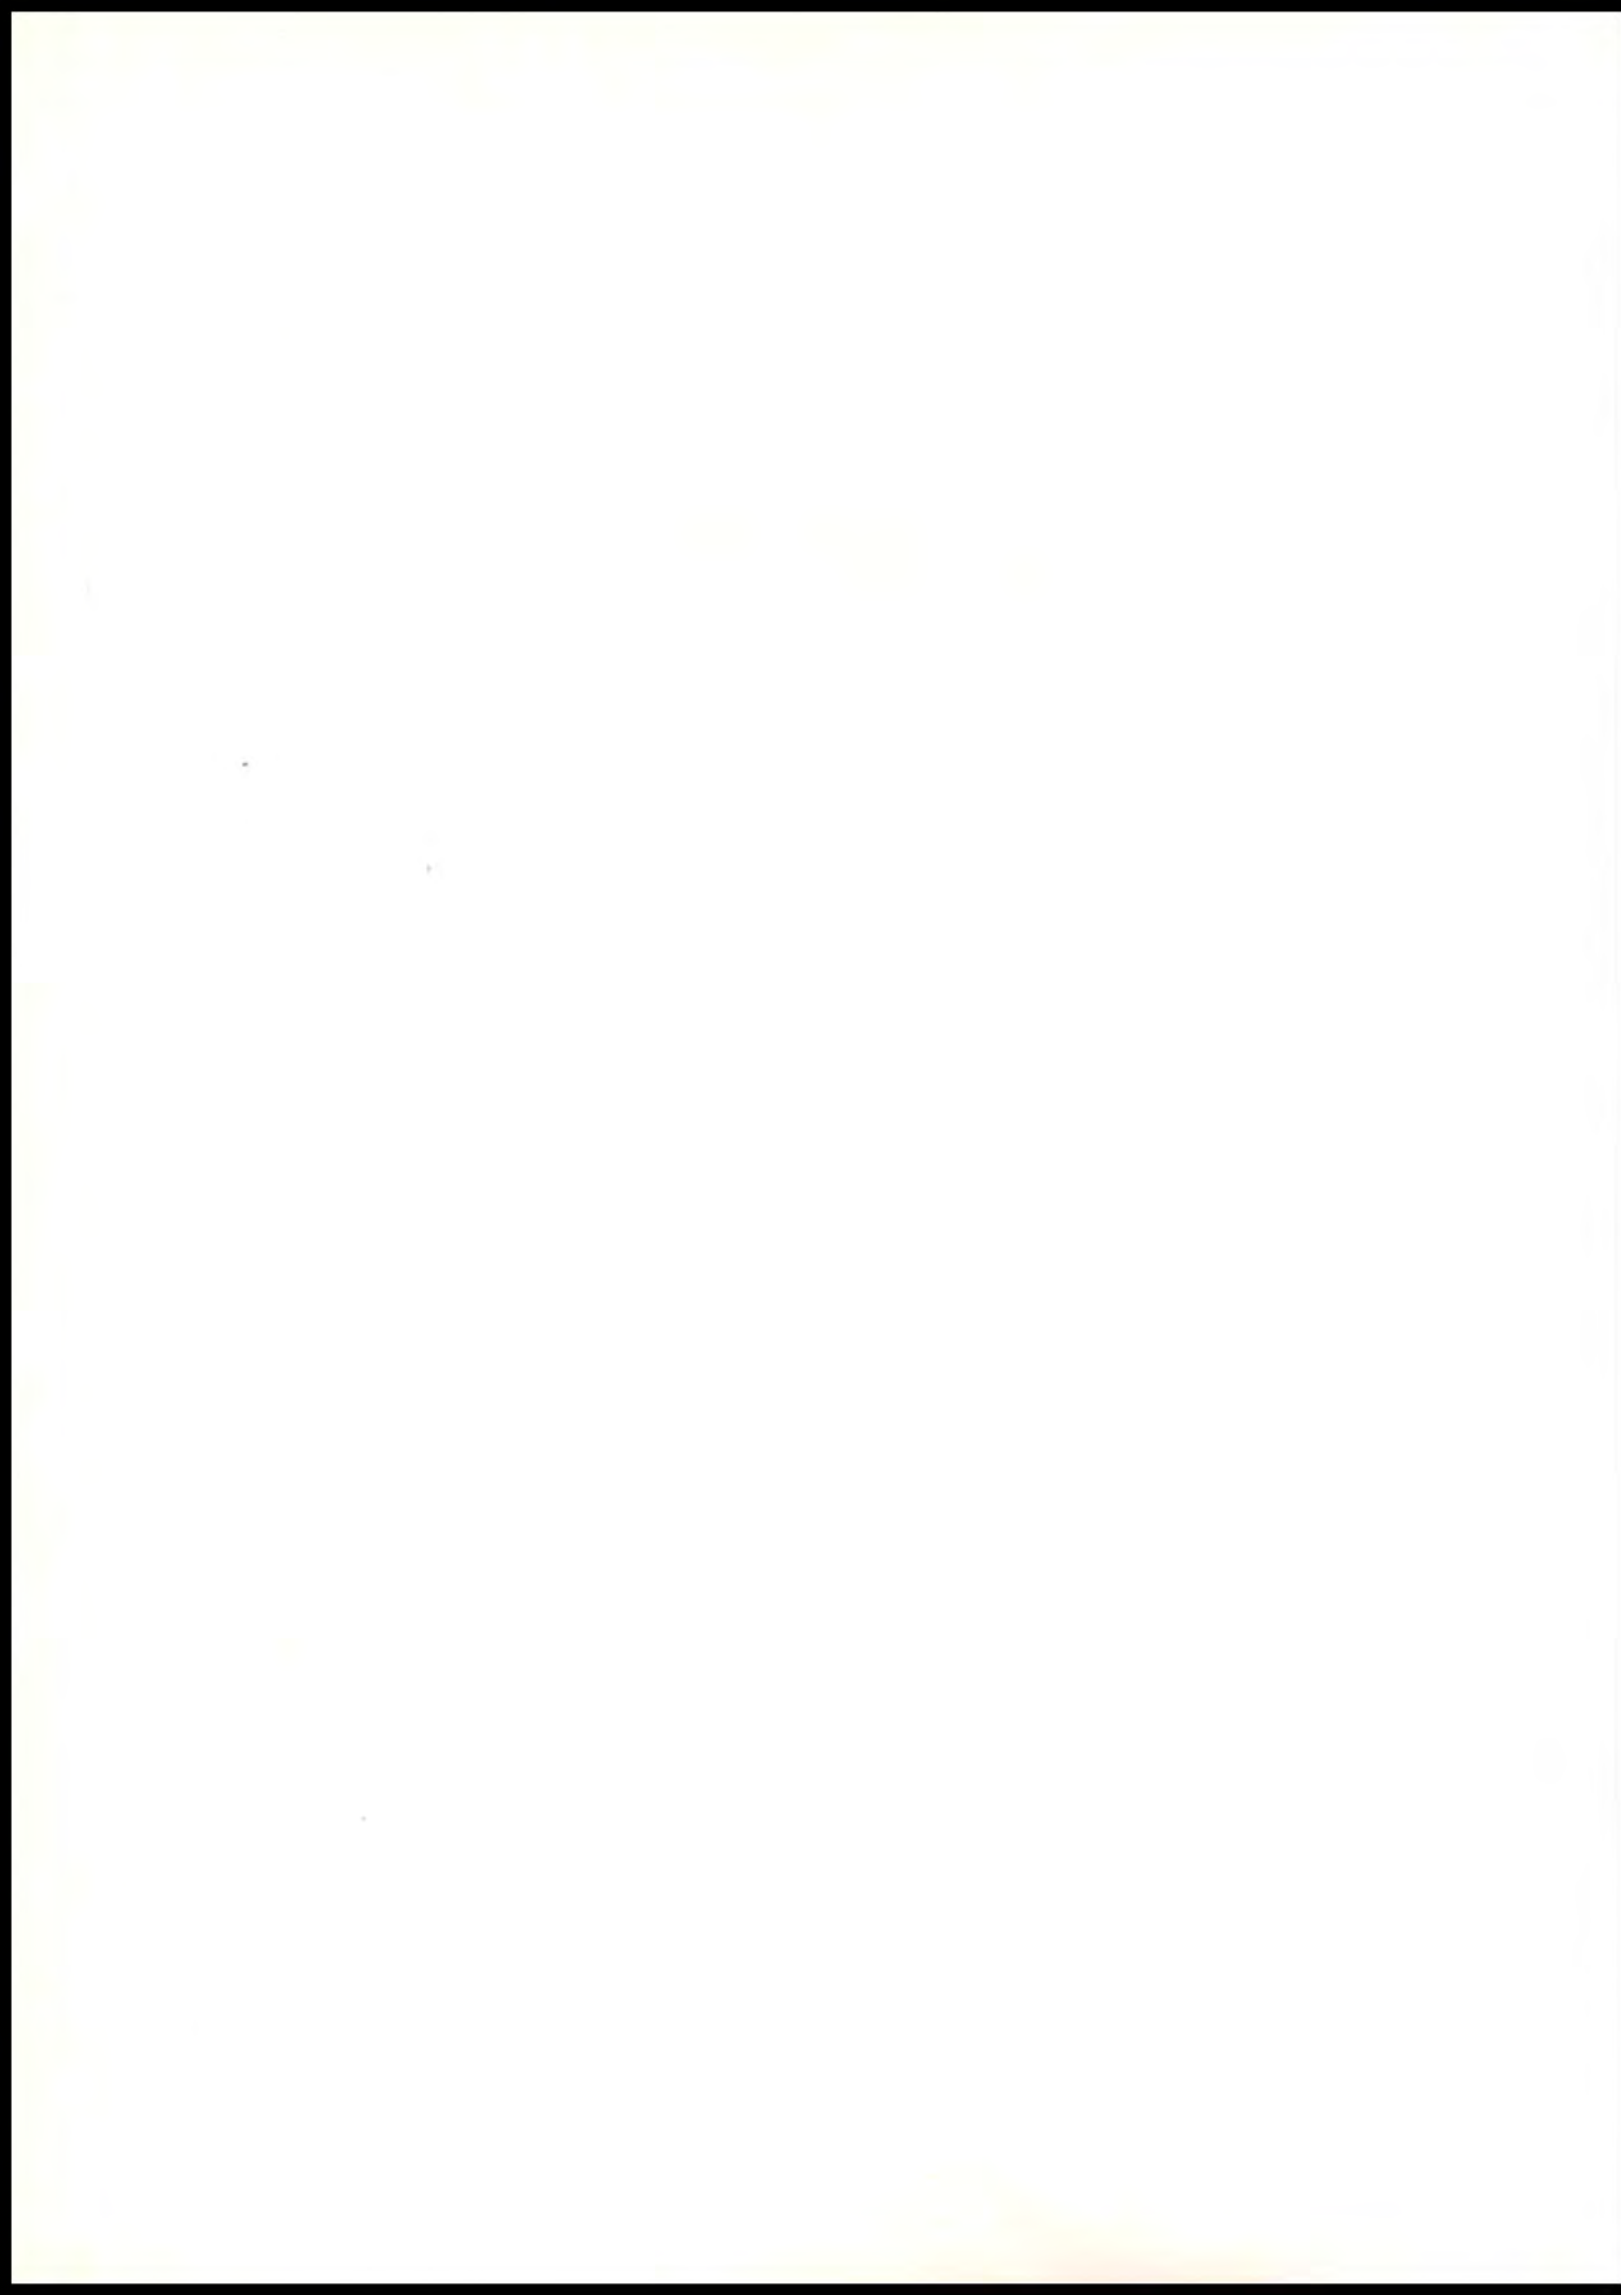

THE MILITARY BALL

One of the highlights of the R. O. T. C. year came when the Westport Battalion held its annual Military Ball in the Westport front hall, Friday evening, February 28th. The Esquires of Rhythm played popular dance tunes in a military background. The crowning of Westport's Military Queen, Loretta Bruce, was the climax of the Ball. Major and Mrs. Irwin, Major Duggan, assistant P. M. S. & T., Sergeant Archie Morris, Sergeant Connelly of Headquarters, Sergeant and Mrs. Hilton were guests of honor. The Military Ball, an old tradition of the R. O. T. C., was a big success.

TIGER TALES

Now for the tales the Tiger tells. The candid-camera pest is in his element in these pages for here we catch our reserved faculty, our dignified (? ? ?) seniors, and our little sophomores and juniors off-guard. Some choice bits of gossip are found here too—little things that you've dropped now and then. You'll even see some of your friends as they were as infants "years ago." Here is a chance for you to see yourself as others see you. Comics, gossip, and candid shots give you Westport off-guard.

THE APPROXIMATE OUTCOME OF THE SENIOR BALLOT

No accurate account can be given because of campaigning, ballot-box stuffing, insertion of ineligible names, and general crooked work.

JITTERBUGS

Calling all jitterbugs, cats, rug-cutters, alligators, sharpies, and woof-hounds. We're goin' to have a jam session. It's really goin' to be a killer-diller. All ready—okay—don't get icky with a one-two-three, cause anything can swing and it ain't what you do, it's the way you do it. You don't have to have fews and twos it's jelly. Hear those hot licks—he's really takin' off. Let's get the joint jumpin'—come on, diggit out! Is everything copasetic? How ya doin', gettin' whipped up? Maybe you'd better crawl into the nest and call it the end of jitterbugin'.

If you can't figure it out, maybe this will help you.

Alligator	Swing fan
Cat	Swing addict
Rug-cutter	Good dancer
Sharpie	Dancers who thrive on swing
Woof-hounds	Alligator authority on swing
Jam session	Swing session
Killer-diller	Thrill
Icky	One who is not hep
Fews and twos	Money
Jelly	On the house
Hot licks	Improvised stuff
Taking off	Playing a solo
Joint jumping	Lively place
Diggit out	Go to town, shine
Copasetic	Okay
Whipped up	Exhausted
Crawl into the nest	Get some sleep

HERE AND THERE

A couple of camera pests . . . Crooning cowboys . . . Giving the Crier the once over . . . Gorging and gossiping . . . Hurry home . . . Swing it, kiddies! . . . Crazy cross-eyed Carl . . . Spring sprang and sprawled (?) . . . The fine art of fencing . . . Crocker cooing compliments . . . Bull session.

ABOUT WESTPORT

Altogether now—grrr-rah! . . . Christmas carolers . . . Our candidate for best dressed man . . . Three's a crowd! . . . Careful now, Skinny! . . . Stag line . . . Don't work so hard . . . Making the rounds . . . Girl Reserve's Christmas party for poor children . . . Hi-Y Cabinet, 1st term . . . Some people have all the luck.

HERD IN THE HALLS

Did ya hear about the strike? The bell rang and they struck out—for their classrooms.

He's so good looking! He doesn't know I'm here though. Guess he'll never know. G. J.

She must have had a good time over Easter 'cause she isn't back yet. M. B.

Two more girl presidents. Next year we'll show 'em! Masculine sex

What am I goin' to do? My better half just left town for three days and I feel lost already. H. H.

I wonder if she really smokes that corn-cob pipe. M. L.

Hasn't it seemed funny this year with no eighth hour? I get home early every day now.

Don't they make a cute couple? Who? Mary Case and Johnnie Wilson.

What happened to M. B. and J. H.? They were goin' strong for awhile.

What happened to that nickelodeon? I thought it sounded too good to be true.

Let's have the Herald come out in September. We might finish it by then. A Staff member

Hurry up and give me the test questions. I have to pass this one. Everyone

We call Pat Lollis Joe E. Brown now. The other day when he yawned, he opened his mouth so wide that his jaw slipped out of place and he had to have it set.

Oh! There he is now. Gosh, I waved to him and he didn't even see me. M. C.

Who's that? Joe Tims. He just had a hair cut.

Let's go to school and see how everybody's coming along. M. M., M. L., V. B., M. W.

Off again—on again. That's Harold and Jesse.

"Honey, I only went with her because she reminds me of you." B. B.

"Gee, I wish she'd break her date with him and go with me to the graduation dance. Think I'll ask her again." R. B.

There sure was teamwork on that Senior Ballot. I'll say. Miss Bonney even got a vote.

M. F. to A. C. L.

Are we really going to have a Senior Mixer? We'll just have to wait and see.

I'd like to see Jack Landis play his violin. I bet it would be a funny sight.

I can hardly wait 'til graduation. I wonder where the dance will be. I know we'll all have a swell time.

So long everybody. I'll see you next year.

AS YOU WERE

THE WORD "KISS" PARSED

Kiss is a conjunction because it connects. It is a verb because it signifies to act and to be acted upon. It is an interjection (at least it sounds like one) and it is a pronoun because "she" always stands for a kiss. It is a noun because it is the name of an osculatory action; both common and proper; second person necessary; and plural number because there is always more than one; masculine and feminine gender mixed; frequently the case is governed by circumstances and light. It should always begin with a capital letter, be often repeated, continued as long as possible and ended with a period. Kiss might be conjugated, but never declined.

CAUGHT BY OUR

Southall and Bodwell giving out . . . Bazaar at Westport Corners . . . The usual thing in the usual way . . . Christmas vacation—burrah! . . . Our dignified dandies cutting up . . . Wrapping packages for the Indian children . . . No ditching today . . . Today's line-up at the game . . . Musical assistance from Mr. Keenan.

CAMERAMAN

Laughter a la Lobach . . . Three brothers . . . Watchin' the game . . . Don't get excited, kids, the other team made the goal . . . Office scene . . . Herald's little helper . . . More Girl Reserves! . . . The "Crowd" . . . W. P. A. "wearily working" . . . I never thought it of you, Lelle.

SENIOR PROPHECY

FIFTEEN YEARS FROM NOW

Clark Page is just returning from Egypt with his harem of glamorous girlies.

Louis Cohen is a noted African explorer.

Jane McGuire has realized her life-long ambition and is now a member of the Metropolitan Opera Company. (As ticket-taker.)

Phil Riegelmen has achieved the much-sought-after office of Head Trash Collector of Podink.

Suzanne Gravistchsky is the solo performer in the Rushing Ballet.

Earl Hobbs is spending his life in research finding the square root of one.

Hooton and Humphrey, the famous vaudeville team, are now playing at the Tower.

Richard Southall is just graduating from the Hayseed College. (Shirley's still waiting.)

Brown and Williams are the co-dictators of Fooania.

Allen Smiley is the last of the jitterbugs.

Ralph Hirschmann is making a tour of the United States debating on the subject: "Resolved, that the moon is too far away to be reached by a rocket ship."

M. Sergeant Agniel is just returning from a conquest of Utopia.

Lucille Langknecht is engrossed in writing her fiftieth novel entitled, "The Love Life of a Vampire."

Lester Jones buys the House of Seven Chambers. Wilson Gilliat is the founder and first president of the Gilliat Correspondence School for Punsters.

Mary Maude McMaster is the chief saleswoman for the now famous Freckle Cream Company.

Virgil Feltner is still drawing cartoons of Benny Czarlinsky.

Patricia Anderson is head of the committee on Teachers' Pensions.

Buchli and Petri have taken the place of Amos and Andy on the radio.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1939

To the Faculty—we leave with the hope that you don't despair with the thousands of students to come.

To the Juniors and Sophomores—we leave the task of keeping up the good old Westport name.

Lady killer Potter leaves his way with the women to Jack Smith.

Jean Sheely leaves her "talkative ways" to June Riegel.

Colonel Nelson leaves the regiment to Eugene Hamilton.

Vern Ingraham is leaving to go to N. U.

Wilson Gilliat and Richard Southall bequeath their punning ability(?) to Gene Henderson.

Louis Cohen leaves his "modest air" to Jack Seibel.

Mary Burns leaves her jovial nature to Betty Glenn.

Maudie McMaster departs still wondering why she never got her name on that list called "Honor Roll."

J. C. Olson leaves that bright shirt of his to anyone who'll take it.

Mary Case leaves her flirting technique to Martha Stuart.

Jack Marcum leaves the Humphrey twins to take the tennis honors next year.

Vivian and Daphne leave together.

Effie Carlson leaves her "boisterous" ways to Mildred Lane.

Earl Hobbs leaves Mr. Cutting very disappointed because he never got to mark him anything less than 95% on a test.

Robin Humphrey leaves the stage to Virginia Luthy.

Lelle leaves Kathryn Bonewits to do her "cutting up" from now on.

Jack Landis is leaving Roger Williams to do his flirting for him.

DeWitt Fair is leaving for J. C.

Harriette leaves Westport to join her love at J. C.

Charles Clark leaves that "nose for news" to a future Crier staff member.

Loretta Bruce leaves her way with the men to Margie Golding but Golding doesn't need it.

Bertram McGregor leaves with pleasure.

Marilyn Pearson bequeaths that individual laugh of hers to Martha Russel.

Fritz Murdock leaves a wad of gum under every desk.

Heinerickson leaves his harem in the hands of Bill Queen.

Maurice Williams leaves his ability to "Win Friends and Influence People" to a deserving Junior boy.

Bill Stock leaves the secret of his success to Bill Kern.

Walt Byers leaves to let Johnnie Bozarth carry on for Westport.

Dick Englander leaves in a hurry.

Maxine Fuller leaves this job to someone else next year.

What is the FUTURE of Electricity?

The marvels of electricity a half century ago were little known. Perhaps in just a few years, future generations will be saying that about 1939.

But these new developments will only come with the welding of long range planning, research, large monetary expenditures and skilled man power into one closely knit unit. The wise expenditure of labor, time, and money has enabled this Company to meet the demands of this growing community for electric energy and the building of an adequate reservoir for future growth. This is shown by the present capital investment of approximately ninety-seven million dollars and the employment of more than two thousand skilled employees.

Research is constantly going on to increase the efficiency and to extend the helpfulness of electricity in all phases of life. And because of this desire and readiness of investor owned electric service companies to delve into the unknown, electricity is helping increase the span of life, reduce human drudgery and make living more worth while.
