PRESENTING THE FIFTIETH GRADUATING CLASS OF
WESTPORT HIGH SCHOOL,
KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI

WESTPORT COMPLETES FIFTY YEARS

Could we but turn back the pages of time to Westport's earliest days, what scenes would unfold . . . The organization of Westport High School in January, 1892, with Mr. W. T. Longshore, principal, and one teacher, Miss Sarah Steele . . . The first graduating class of only two members . . . The commencement programs of the 1890's, in the small, poorly illuminated auditorium of the original building at 39th and Warwick . . . The boys in their stiff collars and high-buttoned shoes . . . The girls in their long, tight-waisted dresses . . . The program by the graduates, followed by the presentation of beribboned diplomas. Here were graduated men and women whose children and even grandchildren have attended Westport. Here were laid the foundations of Westport traditions.

OF EDUCATION FOR DEMOCRACY

How different the scene today . . . Commencement in the modern and spacious Municipal Auditorium . . . Mr. D. H. Holloway, principal, presenting diplomas to 480 senior boys and girls. Westport has passed through a fifty year period of growth . . . The regime of Mr. S. A. Underwood, principal from 1894 to 1912 . . . The destruction by fire of the old building in 1907 . . . The completion of the present building at 39th and McGee in January, 1908 . . . The continued increase in the faculty and student body through the long regime of Mr. J. L. Shouse, principal from 1913 to 1928. Although outward appearances and educational methods have changed, Westport's ideals remain unaltered. The principles embodied in the spirit of Westport through fifty years will long endure.

DEDICATION

During her nineteen years of teaching in the Westport chemistry department, Miss Junkin has given unfailing loyalty to the school and boundless inspiration to her students. A pupil in her class is immediately impressed by her knowledge of chemistry, by the highly scientific way in which she presents the subject matter, and by her fairness in giving equal consideration to all. The staff is proud to dedicate the 1942 Herald to a woman of such outstanding character, brilliant mind, and unusual personality as Miss Della Junkin.

MR. D. H. HOLLOWAY
PRINCIPAL

Another school year comes to an end under the skillful leadership of our principal, Mr. D. H. Holloway. Many new burdens have been added to his already busy days. Enrollment for civilian defense, air raid drills, new classes to meet the new demands of the national emergency, changes in schedules as teachers go into war work, and finally, the handling of sugar rationing by the schools, have all required the principal's supervision. But through it all, with endless patience, Mr. Holloway has ably and cheerfully directed us.

MR. RALPH S. HARRIS
VICE-PRINCIPAL

Mr. Harris, completing his third year as vice-principal, has a position of great responsibility, particularly now that new demands are made upon the schools. He has ably assisted Mr. Holloway in all the varied duties of high school leadership. In addition, he is an experienced science teacher, and can take over the psychology or physiography classroom when necessity demands it.

The Junior Class has enjoyed a very active year, due in large part, to the capable direction and assistance of its sponsor, Miss Shelley. The members of this class have brought honor to Westport in their scholastic endeavors and school athletics. We know that these accomplishments have not been in vain and will be reflected in future successes.

The Sophomore Class, the youngest group in Westport, has shown during the past year that it can uphold and excell the standards set by the preceding Sophomores.

The Sophomores have for the second year enjoyed the privilege of electing officers at the same time and in the same manner as the upperclassmen. Nominating petitions were sent to Miss Hayden and the candidates were then voted on by all the Sophomores. The final ballot was taken one week later.

Nine capable and prominent students were chosen as a result of the election. Joe Breazeal, a member of Clay Literary Society and A Cappella Choir, was chosen president. At the beginning of the second term he left Westport, so all the officers were moved up. Gail Goodrich, who is now president, is a member of the Pundit Literary Society and the hockey and basketball teams. Robert Bartle, vice-president, is a member of the Clay Literary Society and the school band. Eileen Wright, secretary, is a member of the Pundit Literary Society, Jules Guerin and the Auto Club. Virginia Tribbey, treasurer, is a member of the Pundit Literary Society and the Student Council. George Kirkland is the sergeant-at-arms. The following were elected for a business committee: Janet Rainsburg, a member of the Pundit Literary Society; Charles Averill, a member of the Clay Literary Society and the Student Council; Betty Taff, a member of the Pundit Literary Society; and Edla Carlson, a member of the Pundit Literary Society, Student Council, and the hockey and basketball teams.

The Sophomores have added to their prestige by electing such capable and energetic persons to head their class.

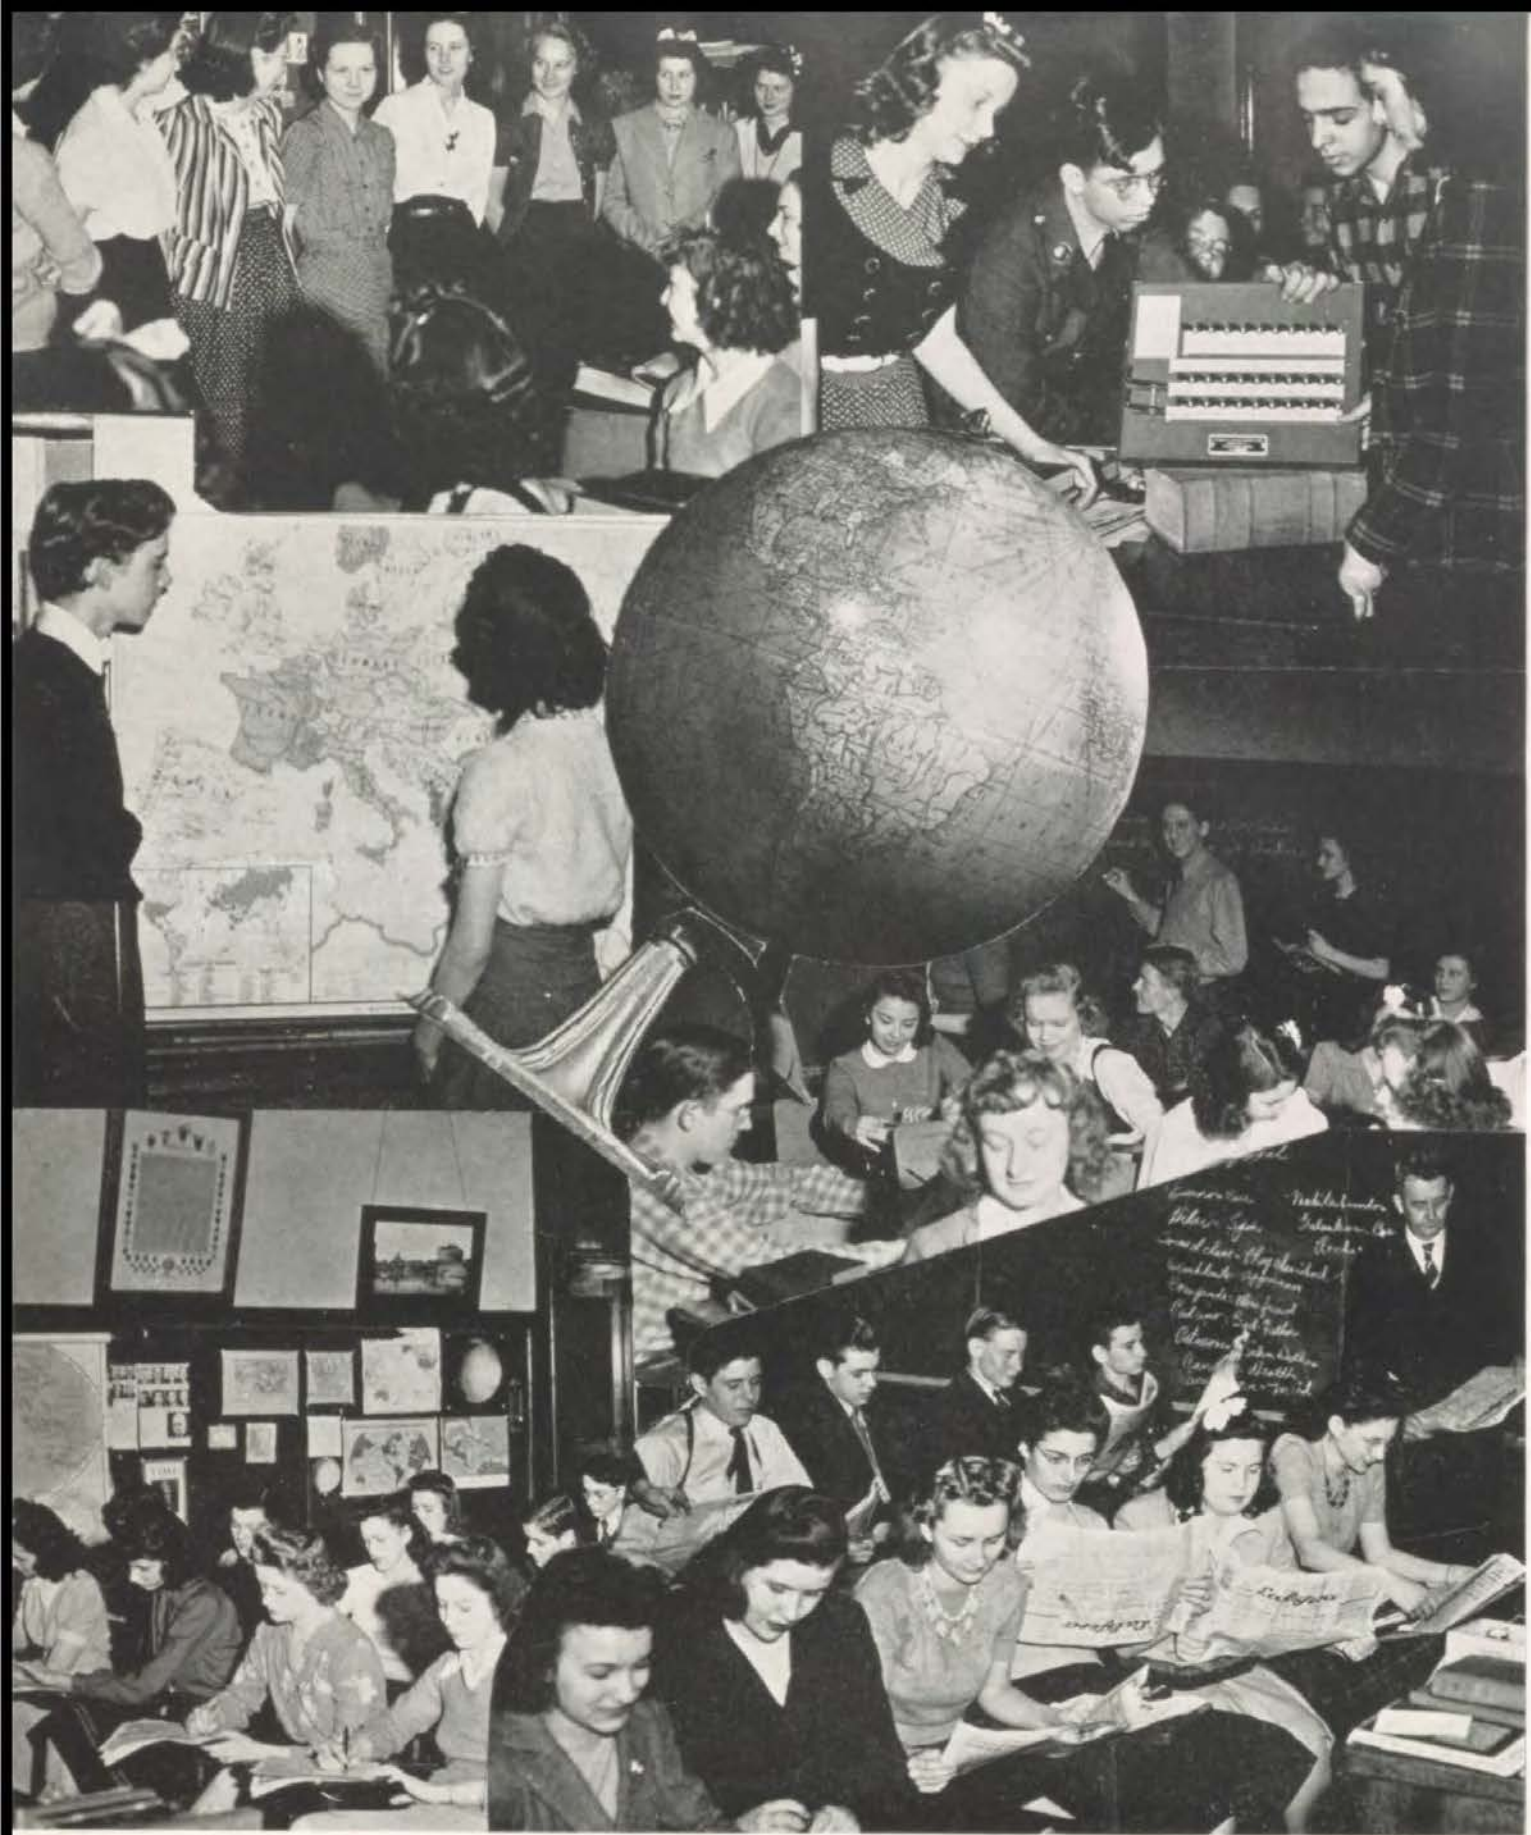

ADMINISTRATION and MATHEMATICS

Many and varied projects were carried out by the first semester student council. In co-operation with other Kansas City councils, it helped to arrange for the exchange of student talent in assemblies. Although Westport itself was not host to such an assembly, three Westporters entertained the students of Southwest High School with an excellent instrumental trio.

The council sponsored a mixer, at which dancing and hilarity were had by all, on November 19. After urging all students to help in activity ticket sales, with the Red Cross campaign, and in tin foil collection, the council made a collection in order to give Westport a Christmas tree. The executive board, delighted with the generous contributions, spent an evening before the Christmas holidays putting up the lovely tree.

Catching the spirit of the national emergency, the student council laid initial plans for the collection of money in home rooms for United States War Stamps and Bonds. After carrying on many minor projects, the members of the council felt that the semester had proved a very profitable one. Everyone was sorry to lose our sponsor, Miss Lewis, when she left Westport, but all were glad to welcome Miss Lilly as the new student council sponsor.

During the second half of the 1941-1942 school year, the student council not only handled the tremendous job of City Hall Day, but carried on many new programs.

The improvement of the early morning promenade was successfully carried out as one of the first projects. The student council asked for and received the cooperation of the Westport clubs in this improvement.

At the time the second semester council went into office the last game of the basketball season came up, and by quick work and the elimination of red tape, "Scalp Southwest" signs were printed and distributed. The score of the game was ample reward for the effort.

Many committees were used throughout the year, with almost all members serving. This plan individualized each problem so that much good was accomplished by the various committees. The cafeteria committee, mixer committee, assembly committee, defense stamp committee, monitor committee, and metals committee were a few. The metals committee went on Saturdays to the various students' homes and picked up metals and other essential materials needed for the war effort. These metals were sold and the money put into defense stamps.

The City Hall Day program was carried out without a flaw, Westport engaging in a pre-primary, a primary and an assembly, all sponsored by our own council. The printing of ballots, counting and many details were carried out smoothly, due largely to the complete cooperation of the commercial department.

THE CRIER STAFF

The Crier staff this year has worked toward improvement with "greater student participation and general interest" as one of its goals. Definite strides have been made along this line, and also in the field of make-up; the general appearance of the Crier has been improved greatly.

Membership in the Quill and Scroll International Honorary Society for High School Journalists has provided a definite goal in striving toward improvement. Qualifications for membership in the organization are (1) a high scholarship index, (2) a certain published lineage, and (3) acceptable examples of journalistic ability. Nine members of this year's newswriting class qualified for membership. They are Lois Ellis, Nadine Smith, Stanley Goldberg, Isabel Frush, Dick Epstein, Forrest Faut, Bob Barr, Dulcie Ann Witt, and Clarence Day.

THE HERALD STAFF

This year the Herald staff was selected from applications submitted by sophomores, juniors, and seniors. The selection was made on the basis of grades, talents, activities, and interests qualifying them for work on the Herald. At the beginning of the year, Bill Longmoor was elected Editor-in-Chief. At the same time the following appointments were made by Miss Bonney, adviser: Bill Kretz, Business Manager; Ruthann Beyer, Senior Editor; Gloria Dana, Tiger Tales; and Emily Daily, Clubs. Later in the year Betty Bierwirth was appointed Art Editor; H. P. Lauritsen, R. O. T. C.; Dulcie Ann Witt, Typist; Kenneth Basore, Photography; and Marialice Heier, Arts and Music.

For the first time, two juniors were added to the Herald staff. Morton Gelpman was appointed Sports Editor and Evelyn Harland, Junior Assistant. Marion Hammond and Jack Morton, sophomores, gave invaluable assistance in photography.

The cover design for the 1942 Herald was chosen from a group of entries submitted by members of the art classes and the student body. The judges were Mr. Dave Charno of Charno Bindery Company, Mr. William Mankin of Burger-Baird Engraving Company, and Miss Esther Browdy, art teacher. The winning design was drawn by the Art Editor; Betty Bierwirth.

This year Westport again had an excellent band and orchestra. The band played for assemblies, football and basketball games, and for Battalion Parades. The orchestra played for the fall and spring plays, for P.-T. A. meetings, and for numerous other events. The band and orchestra spring concert was held February 13.

Not only in Westport, but also throughout the city, Mr. George Keenan is recognized as one of Kansas City's foremost music directors.

This year in the music classes he has presented the scores and themes of well-known operas and musicals; pupils who have had the opportunity for band and orchestra training under Mr. Keenan leave Westport with a greater appreciation for music.

The Melody Boosters' Club, composed of the mothers of the members of the instrumental groups, sponsored a picture show and purchased a radio-victrola-recorder which is to be used in class and solo work.

Mr. Spring has served as an inspiring leader to many Westport singers. Through his capable direction, many fine voices have been developed. The choir received excellent opportunities for valuable experience by singing at various churches, among which were the following: Oak Park Christian, Westport Presbyterian, Roanoke Baptist, and Trinity Methodist. In addition, the choir was featured at many of the P.-T. A. meetings both at Westport and at various elementary schools. The choir and glee club gave an Easter performance at the Art Gallery. They also appeared together on a national broadcast, "Music and American Youth," November 16. One of the feature attractions of the Music Festival on May 1 was the choir's pinwheel stunt called "Shoulders to the Wheel," and "Ode to America."

By making recordings of their own voices, pupils were able to hear their good and bad points and also have a record of their voices for the years to come. Friendly rivalry was created by school vocal contests which qualified winners for the national solo contest. In the national contest, Beverly Ann Good and Florence O'Hara received first ratings and Bob Wohltman received a fourth rating.

Clay Literary Society, one of the oldest organizations in Westport, has completed another successful year. Clay has not only upheld the traditions of former years but has also taken another step forward by being one of the first clubs to raise money for a defense bond.

Clay, as before, has excelled in leaders who are prominent in school activities. Some of these officers are: president and vice-presidents of both Senior and Junior classes, editor-in-chief of the Herald, presidents of Hi-Y and B. C. P., the Major as well as other officers of the Westport Battalion, and many other offices about school. Clay was also one of the leaders in this year's literary contest.

The honor of Clay Beauty Queen was bestowed on Peggy Miner. She was chosen for her charm, personality, and other talents.

We were indeed glad to have such an able sponsor as Miss Junkin and we deeply appreciate the guidance she has given our club this past year.

PUNDIT

1941-1942 has indeed been a profitable and successful year for Pundit Literary Society. Our members have become well-known throughout the school as class officers, members of Westport Honor Society, of the Student Council, and of the Crier and Herald Staffs. They have also been prominent in athletics, music, speech arts, and various forms of literary work. We have tried to live up to the significance of our name, which means "Wise Hindu."

We are proud of our beauty queen, Jane Rieger, who was chosen not only for her beauty, but also because we felt that she is the personification of the spirit and ideals of Pundit.

The Clay-Pundit dance was a highlight of the year, as was the Promethean tea.

To Miss Secret, who so ably served as our sponsor, we extend our deepest gratitude for her guidance throughout the year.

Irving Literary Society has succeeded in 1941-1942, as in its many previous years, in maintaining a high standard in its activities, an excellent membership and a high reputation throughout the school.

Members of Irving are to be found in the most prominent and responsible posts in other Westport organizations and activities. These other fields include R. O. T. C., the Westport Honor Society, dramatics, debating, musical activities, student government, and City Hall High School Day.

In our meetings members have enjoyed many varied programs. We have also learned much of parliamentary procedure, our meetings being carried on with notable politeness and efficiency.

Irving was fortunate in having lovely Rita Ricketson for queen. Rita's popularity, beauty, and outstanding personality are convincing proofs of the excellent judgment of members of Irving.

The dances sponsored by Irving and Promethean were the outstanding events on Westport's social calendar.

Mr. Ward has again shown himself to be an ideal sponsor. It is with real regret that those of us who are graduating leave the organization that has so benefited by his judgment and guidance.

PROMETHEAN

The Promethean Literary Society has passed another milestone in its road of progress. Our members have been outstanding in many fields, winning top honors in the Veterans of Foreign Wars and first place in the Sons of the American Revolution essay contest. Two Promethean girls tied for first place in the orations contest. Our members have been leaders in school activities, showing their capabilities as Herald executives, class officers, debaters, actresses, musicians, athletes and scholars.

Two Irving-Promethean dances contributed much to the social life of Westport. Our beauty queen, Margaret Tucker, was chosen for her personification of all Promethean ideals. Intelligence, charm, personality, and versatility are hers, as well as beauty.

We are deeply grateful to Miss Youngs, our sponsor, for her guidance and friendship during the past year.

ROUND TABLE

Round Table, the oldest literary society in Westport, has ended another eventful year, its forty-second. Through the years Round Table members have striven to "Live pure, speak true, right wrong, follow the king—else wherefore born?"

Our 1941 members have gained recognition by holding numerous offices in other clubs, membership in the Honor Society, the Student Council and the Crier staff, and by participation in art, music, and dramatics.

On April 17 Round Table members gathered in the front corridor for their annual spring dance. To personify our conception of charm, beauty, and winning personality, Ruth Gould was crowned queen.

The graduating members of Round Table leave Westport feeling satisfied that they have done their bit to uphold the high standards of their school and club.

Miss Guffin, our advisor and a former Round Tabler, has proven a true friend and helper throughout the year and well deserves our sincere gratitude.

These queens were chosen by the various literary clubs in the belief that they personify the charm, beauty, and personality of Westport girls at their best. The high spot in the

When the guns began to thunder back in 1914, Westport organized the science club. Trying times followed, but with the end of the first world war, the science club also had passed its crisis. In 1919 all the branches of science taught at Westport, biology, botany, zoology, hygiene, chemistry, physiology, physiography and physics, combined to form the B. C. P. Science Club.

For the second year, B. C. P. has followed the plan of opening the membership to all students seriously interested in science, and each member has the privilege of putting on a program or taking part in a program at some time during the year.

This year B. C. P. has enjoyed a series of interesting programs. Moving-picture shows, student demonstrations, quiz programs and visits into branches of our science department gave the members a good survey of the magnitude of science. To assist the nation in its efforts to win the war, defense stamps were given as prizes in quiz programs. To help the school, B. C. P. offered its services by selling tickets for the spring play.

A large part of this year's success is due to the wise guidance of Miss Bechtel, our sponsor, and we wish to express our sincere gratitude for her able service.

JULES GUERIN

The club takes its name from Jules Guerin, the famous Missouri artist, who graciously bestowed a portfolio of his church paintings on the club. This gift is highly prized by all the members.

The purpose of the club is to give students interested in art a chance to further and develop their interest. This was accomplished by many interesting and varied programs and by trips to the Art Institute.

At Christmas time the whole club worked together and supplied a merry Christmas for an unfortunate family by bringing presents, clothing and food.

Our vice-president, Betty Bierwirth, won first and second places in the Herald cover design contest and Jim McLeroy won third place. Betty is also art editor of the Herald.

Miss Wilhite has been advisor of Jules Guerin since the club's organization in December, 1923. We wish to thank her for her continued help and guidance through this year 1941-1942.

Les Immortels est différent. Since the membership was so small the club was changed into a conversation group, hoping thereby that next year it would continue to function. The topics discussed were various and proved very profitable because they were conducted entirely "en Francais." Many of the conversations began with dialogues or reports given by the members. Movies, plays, sports, Frenchmen, and French holidays were a few of the subjects discussed.

Some of the meetings were devoted to large projects. One of these was the state essay contest sponsored by the Modern Language Association of Missouri. The essay was to be written on the contribution of a Frenchman to the advancement of civilization. Hedva Hadas' essay on Chaupin won the first prize of ten dollars. Some honorable mentions were also awarded to French students at Westport. These honors were recognized in an assembly.

During the Christmas season the club was invited to Junior College. Much time was spent in memorizing French Christmas carols, which were sung before and after the play presented by the Junior College French classes. Short stories of the celebration of the Yuletide in France were also on the program.

This year the movie "Grande Illusion" was shown at Westport. It starred Jean Gabin, who is now in Hollywood. Pupils from the entire city came to the movie. Even some who have never taken French came, which proves that the interest in French has not died.

Without the cooperation of our sponsor, Miss Collins, we might not have had a French club this year. However, she was there to inspire us, help us plan interesting, amusing and different programs, and to encourage us. We want to express our appreciation for her kindness and generosity in all that she has done to help us succeed this year.

CIRCULO CALDERON

One of the most important factors in the defense of the United States is a friendly relationship with Latin America. Circulo Calderon has added its small but important part to increase interest in our southern neighbors. In the past year we have studied the countries of South America, Central America, and Mexico. We have had distinguished visitors who spoke to us in their native tongue. We also saw motion pictures of Latin American countries, sang Latin American songs, and played Spanish games. This not only developed an interest in our Spanish neighbors but also afforded splendid entertainment for Spanish students. As all the meetings were conducted in Spanish, the students were able to develop a fluency in speaking the language.

We want to express our appreciation to our sponsor, Mr. Phillips, for his excellent guidance in directing the students to learn, speak, and appreciate the Spanish language. We hope that in future years Circulo Calderon will live up to our motto, "Adelante, Siempre, Adelante," as we have this year.

Alpha Lyra, one of Westport's oldest departmental clubs, was organized for the purpose of giving students an opportunity to enjoy and participate in the preparation of musical programs, both vocal and instrumental.

At each meeting a carefully planned program is presented by members of the club under the supervision of the vice-president. Through this participation we gain poise and control for appearance before audiences of greater size. In the presentation of these programs, musical talent is displayed and discovered.

In our club this year we have a great number of talented people, many of whom have participated in the annual state and national music contests and have won high honors and awards for themselves and Westport. The seniors who are graduating this year leave many members who will endeavor to carry on the traditions of Alpha Lyra.

Probably the most outstanding meeting of the club this year was the one held during the Christmas season. Dr. Adams, Director of Music at the University of Kansas City, spoke to us on "Music in the War Today." Many old familiar carols were sung and their history related by members of the club.

We are indeed grateful to Mr. Spring, our able advisor, for his guidance and influence throughout the past year, and we wish to take this opportunity to express our thanks to him.

PHILATELIC SOCIETY

The Westport Philatelic Society is one of the youngest active clubs in the school. It was organized in 1940 by a small group of stamp collectors who felt the need of grouping those with philatelic interests into one organization, where they could discuss, compare and trade.

Each meeting consists of a program and a trading session. The programs, arranged by the vice-president, are made up of contests, special reports and interesting talks by prominent dealers and hobbyists.

The outstanding events of the year are the stamp auction and the exhibition. The auction raises the money to finance the club. Each member donates a few stamps which are classified and sold by an appointed auctioneer. For the exhibition the members arrange frames of stamps in as attractive a manner as possible. The frames are put on display for one week of the last quarter in the bulletin cases in the front hall.

In the past several years members of the Westport Philatelic Society have won prizes in the annual H A P E X, a national stamp exhibition held in Kansas City. The club, since it is an all-school group, is open for membership to any boy or girl who is interested in any of the many phases of the hobby.

The nineteenth year of Speech Arts Club has been marked by enthusiastic participation in programs, improved parliamentary procedure and excellent co-operation.

A revised constitution has made selection of candidates for membership more manageable. Only pupils from classes in Speech are now admitted to the club. Office of critic has been abolished and instead three commentators are appointed for each meeting.

In the twelfth annual oration contest, Lois Ellis and Mary Anne Peake tied for first place and Robert Lowary came a close second. In the parliamentary law tests, Jerry Exter and Susan Huncilman headed the lists. In the writing of original valentine verse, Jane Bloch and Stuart Talcroft carried off prizes.

We here extend to Hedrick Peer and Marian Player many thanks for work as program chairmen, and express appreciation to our advisor, Miss Keeler, for her deep interest and helpful and interesting suggestions.

STAGE AND SCREEN

The Stage and Screen Club has again this year given valuable service to Westport. The club has been an important factor in the production of the fall and spring plays and in the management of assemblies.

Stage and Screen Club has also been of much value to the members. It has offered them an opportunity to learn the technicalities and operation of back-stage work. A few of the duties performed by the members were lighting, scenery, properties, make-up, prompting, and ushering. Instructions and demonstrations were given to teach the new members back-stage work. We especially want to thank Mr. Miner for his help with the electrical problems. The annual picnic was the climax of the year's work.

Under the able guidance of our sponsor, Mr. King, we know that the Stage and Screen Club will in future years hold its high position among the service clubs.

The Westport Hi-Y is strictly classed as a service club, but it is more than that to those who have ever attended a meeting. It is a wholesome institution that fosters all the good traits present in the character of the growing boy.

Hi-Y was the first club in the city to buy a defense bond. This bond was presented to the W-Club for the furthering of athletics here at Westport.

Hi-Y's mixer was novel and original in that it had a floor show which delighted all who were in attendance.

The hay rides and the picnics throughout the year have all been successful too. The members of Hi-Y feel that the club has offered sufficient amusement to satisfy even the most active boy.

Due credit must be given to Mr. Kenneth Evans, who devoted a goodly part of his time to the betterment of the club. Also, Hi-Y's new sponsor, Mr. Alex Sawyer, the city-wide Hi-Y secretary, has helped immeasurably.

Thus it is easily seen that Hi-Y has fulfilled its prime purpose, that of giving service to Westport.

GIRL RESERVES

This year the varied activities of the Girl Reserves, including good times, service work, interesting meetings and participation in Kansas City Girl Reserve events, have done much to promote fellowship, which is our purpose. We have been fortunate in securing such outstanding speakers as the following: Mrs. George Catts; the Reverend Clyde Wheeler; Miss Te Fan Tsou, who spoke on Chinese education at our World Fellowship meeting; Miss Junkin, who told us the truth about our cosmetics; and Mrs. Joseph Cleveland, who gave a book review. Before Easter we had a religious panel in which members discussed their different religions. To aid the girls in becoming wise consumers, Miss Meyer led a discussion on consumer buying.

Girl Reserves have been very active socially this year. Four representatives were sent from our group to the Tri-City Conference at St. Joseph. At Christmas we had a party at City Union Mission and a Chinese tea. Our other social activities included two teas, the Palm Sunday breakfast, three dances at which the boys were guests, and a mother-daughter banquet.

This year the Auto Club set for itself an even higher goal than in previous years, that of having an actual working representation in all home rooms. Not only have we accomplished this, but we can also boast of equally proportioned numbers from sophomore, junior and senior classes, giving the Auto Club the unbiased all-school viewpoint that is every service club's ambition.

That both the club and the school might profit from the experiences of others, many members investigated and attended meetings of safety clubs in other high schools of the city, returning from them with new and constructive ideas.

Clubs change with the times. We have become another unofficial unit of civilian defense, and in addition a unit of offense against safety violators and the enemy! We know that prevention and treatment mean as much in warfare as in automobile traffic. The call to civilian defense and first-aid has been answered by our members.

PEP CLUB

Since we have always believed that a school is judged by its display of loyalty, sportsmanship and school-spirit at the games, it has been the main objective of the Tiger Claws this year, under the able guidance of Mr. King and under the leadership of the cheerleaders, to give support to our teams at the games, and to give other schools the true picture of Westport loyalty and sportsmanship.

The Tiger Claws sponsored many activities this year that were of school wide importance. A good time was had by all at the games, and the Pep Club was improved greatly. But everyone is looking forward to an even bigger and better Pep Club in 1942-1943 to carry on the good work which has been started but which is far from completion.

STOP THIEF

By CARLYLE MOORE

Westport's fall play, "Stop Thief," was presented to large and appreciative audiences in the school auditorium December 5 and 6.

In "Stop Thief" elaborate wedding plans are upset by a series of hilarious unexpected events. The absent-minded father, the social-conscious mother, the blundering detective, as well as the shrewd thief with his capable assistant, all add to the merriment of the situation. "Stop Thief," because of its suspense, humor, and excitement, takes its place as one of the best plays ever produced at Westport. Bouquets to each member of the cast, to the able director, Miss Alicia Keeler, and to Miss Mary Wheeler, her assistant.

THE SEVEN KEYS TO BALDPATE

George M. Cohan's well-known mystery drama, "Seven Keys to Baldpate," made its second appearance on the Westport stage this spring on April 24 and 25. The first performance was in 1936. Once again critical playgoers acclaimed it as a success, receiving the creditable performance with enthusiasm.

The activity of the story is centered around an author by the name of Magee, who wagers that he can write a complete book within twenty-four hours without leaving the premises of Baldpate Inn. The exciting chain of events which follows, including everything from haunted rooms to murder, furnishes Magee with material for a lively and intriguing novel whereby he wins the bet.

Much credit should be given to Mr. King, who unceasingly gave his time and effort to make this play one of the best ever presented at Westport. The receipts of the play paid the last installment on the new public address system.

The Westport Parent-Teacher Association has completed an outstanding year; the membership has been the largest for many years, attendance has increased, and more interest has been shown. Gifts have been made to scholarship funds, mutual help, and to other worthy organizations. The general theme of our programs has been "Modern Family Life." Our speakers included Dean Glenn G. Bartle of Kansas City University, Dr. H. R. Meyering of Teachers' College, and Dean Claude W. Sprouse of Grace and Holy Trinity Episcopal Church. Mrs. W. E. Hildebrand, president, has been assisted by an efficient executive board and a fine group of room mothers who have fulfilled every requirement for the Standard of Excellence award for the year.

Twenty-three First Team Football W's

Thirty-nine numerals were awarded to twenty seniors and nineteen juniors. Among these were twenty-three first team, four reserve, and twelve second team letters. Reserve letters were given to boys who did not have sufficient experience to hold first team positions, but who were valuable for replacements and practice. First team letters were awarded to seven juniors who, with the second team lettermen, will form the nucleus of next year's football squad.

Hit Mid-Season Peak

Weak on Pass Defense

League play began for Westport and Northeast on Northeast's field. Conclusive action was absent in the first quarter, being more of "give and take," with the Tigers taking more than giving. Then in the second quarter, and again in the third, Northeast exploded with a passing attack that netted them fourteen points. The game ended 14-0, with only a last-minute flareup of offensive action shown by the Tiger team.

Enemy Reverse Tricky

Using single and double reverses, Southeast got the jump on the "Blue and Gold" and finished on top of a 9-6 score. Coming back in the third quarter the Tigers matched Southeast's first half goal with one of their own, but the pay off was a safety which cost our school the contest.

First Victory for Tigermen

The East Bears fell before the onslaught of Tiger fury and a 12-0 score resulted. Real power, not shown since the Ward game, supplied Westport with its first Interscholastic win. Driving to one touchdown on the ground, and one in the air, Westport vanquished East High and gave a pleasurable afternoon to a large following of Westport rooters. While obtaining two 6-pointers, the team's defense was super and held East to very little yardage.

Pass Attack Clicks, 16-0

Westport stayed in the victory column by thoroughly trouncing the Paseo Pirates 16-0. A pass from Webber to Piper scored the first goal and a ground attack brought the second. Mendenhall added with ease the extra points. Big disappointment of the game was the cancellation, because of clipping, of Dick Foster's eighty yard punt return for a touchdown. Westport's line stopped a Paseo punter behind the goal line for the other two points.

Eagles Smother Tigers

Central smashed Westport to a 19-0 score mostly because she had as much knowledge of our plays as the team itself had. Defensively, the struggle was the worst of the season.

Indians Continue Jinx

Pulling a fake punt play several times, Southwest, bitter enemy of Westport, defeated the team 7-0 to end the '42 season.

Four Reserves and Managers Win W's

Coaches Deserve Much Credit

Mr. Bourrette (left) is best known in Westport circles as football coach and second team basketball coach. Coach Bourrette received his football education from Knute Rockne, late coach of football at Notre Dame. He also participated in basketball, baseball, and track. At Westport, he is also a good friend, not only to his football boys, but to his pupils in biology and physiology classes as well.

Mr. Chubb (right), who came to Westport in 1935 along with Mr. Bourrette, is basketball coach and second team football coach. Last year Coach Chubb had his first championship basketball team. Mr. Chubb and Mr. Bourrette are good body and mind builders as well as teachers of scientific subjects; Mr. Chubb has classes in biology and physiography.

Second Team Has Excellent Season

With plenty of spirit and drive the second team tied for the interscholastic crown by winning five out of six contests. The team held the opposition scoreless in each game except the last, when Southwest intercepted a pass and a lateral for two touchdowns which resulted in Westport's only loss. Prospects can be considered good for next year only if all men return and if no one fails. Second team letters went to Webb, Seiglar, Scanlon, Hughes, Kellam, Brown, Stark, Nelson, Yarrington, Cooper, Bradt and Meek.

High Spots in First and Last Games

Basketball started off with a big bang for Westport and a blowout for Southeast. Westport carried on its winning streak to eleven games. It took only one minute for the cagers to assume command, and thereafter they held a lead to the end to gather in their first win of the season, with Southeast on the short end of a 34-29 score.

Northeast Stops Winning Ways

Northeast halted the Bengal crew after it had won eleven consecutive games. Behind 17-11 at the half, the Tigers spurted to within one point but were checked there as Northeast went on to a 36-28 victory.

Falter Near End

Holding a one-point advantage at the half, Westport lost ground in the last two quarters and Manual captured a hard fought 27-22 battle. Manual's main threat was in the person of Deluna. Rader was Westport's high-point man.

East Romps Over Cagemen

With East as hot as a forest fire in the first half, Westport could do little offensively and the Bears went on to win 30-16. East apparently couldn't miss and there weren't many scoring opportunities for Westport to make the game closer.

Usual Luck for Paseo

Losing its first four games, Paseo became lucky and defeated the "Blue and Gold," 30-25. Not able to check the enemy in the first half, Westport spurted in the last to tighten the game.

Lose Close Battle

Westport went down battling to the last as Central barely nosed out the Tigers, 20-19. Fighting desperately, the Tigers couldn't quite make that needed goal.

Webber & Co. Win

With Clint Webber sparkling like a diamond and swishing nineteen points through the hoop, Westport High upset its arch rival, Southwest, 32-31. The score was close all the way, but Webbers hot streak and two timely shots by Sogas gave us our most glorious triumph of the season. Webber's nineteen points rocketed him into second place in individual scoring and happily climaxed the season for all Westporters.

Basketball Squad

Seniors Wallop Juniors

In the annual junior-senior game, the seniors swamped their younger team members 40 to 20. Happiest player of the game was Ernie Piper, who swished twelve points through the bucket as he led his teammates to victory.

The other seniors too had sharp eyes for the basket, each obtaining at least one free throw and one field goal.

Second Team Wins Four, Drops Three

While dropping three games to Northeast, Paseo, and Southwest, Westport's second team cagers bombarded the hoop for large scores against Southeast, Manual, East, and Central. High scorer for the season was Jim Donohue, who hit his high spot with 23 points in the Manual game. Donohue, along with Sogas and Scanlon and several other promising juniors, should form the rudiments of a championship squad next year.

Linksmen Gain Fourth Place

Prospects Excellent for Winning Golf Team Next Year

With only one letterman returning from last year, Westport's golf team, composed of Jim Dolan, John Chapman, Lester Hall, Al Suttle, Bill Spencer and Philip Kurin, landed in fourth place in the interscholastic golf tournament at the No. 2 Swope Park course.

Southwest again won the city title with a 72-hole score of 1,220. Paseo took second with a total of 1,270; Southeast third with 1,338; Westport fourth with 1,369; and Central last with a 1,387 total.

Total individual honors did not go to Southwest but to the second placers, Paseo. Art Schuman, Paseo, was low with 285. Following him were Dick Andres of Southwest with 288, and Bill Kraus of Central with 301. Jim Dolan, Westport captain and two year letterman, placed seventh with a score of 310.

Dick Andres from Southwest crashed the links for low medalist honors in a single round with a par score for the No. 2 Course of 65. While Schuman and Kraus closely contested Andres with other low scores, Dolan shot 75 for his best in the tournament.

Also cited for their golf abilities were John Chapman and Lester Hall, who received golf numerals shortly following the fall tournament. Both of the boys are sophomores and will by next year be greatly improved.

"Prospects for 1943," to quote Mr. Banister, golf coach, "are excellent." Besides the three lettermen there will be several very promising juniors returning to Westport in '43. Many matches have been planned for spring to further aid in making next year's team a winning one.

There may be two obstacles for the golfers to overcome next season, a lack of transportation facilities and a scarcity of golf balls due to the war. However, plans are at present being made for a regular fall tournament as usual.

Climax All-Victorious Season

Sweep City Tennis Titles

For ten long years champion after champion in the sports world of tennis has come from Westport. This year marked the tenth consecutive year our tennis team has captured either the singles or doubles title, or both.

On the top rung in the singles division was Bill Miller, who defeated Donald Block of Southwest 6-3, 6-3. Bill, No. 1 man on Westport's team for the last two years, waltzed through the tournament, losing only ten games to his opponents.

Finishing the sweep of the city titles was Bill Ege, mainstay of the squad for three years, and Henry Graf, who waded through all opposition to handily defeat Southwest's doubles team by scores of 6-3, 6-3.

The "Blue and Gold" not only gained both titles, but also dominated the entire meet. The other doubles entry of Kenneth Rader and Charles Brawner rose to the semi-finals before losing a hard fought battle to Southwest's finalists. Not to be excelled by the two doubles teams, Westport's other singles entry, Frank Wilkinson, climbed to the semi-finals only to succumb to Don Block, Southwest finalist.

Miller and Ege Capture State Doubles Crown

Our not entering in the singles at the state tournament did not dampen the effect of the doubles combination of Bill Miller and Bill Ege. Forced inside by weather conditions, the "sudden death" one-set rule was applied. There being no "sudden deaths" for Westport, state crowns were proudly placed upon the heads of Miller and Ege, another trophy was gained for Westport, and still another tennis season ended in glory.

Boys of the W-Club represent all four of the inter-scholastic sports offered by the school. This seventh year of club activity has been an enjoyable one for all, with most of the letter-winning contingent from football and basketball either sworn in as new members or continuing as old time dues payers. Tennis and golf were amply represented by athletes who had won their numerals. While the only actual requirement for entrance into the club is the earnings of any letter in any sport, W-men must and do live up to two additional requisites—good sportsmanship and clean, healthful living.

Again the club provided ushers to control the crowd at the basketball games held at the Municipal Auditorium. Several W-Club men were at each court game clearing aisles, preventing disorder, and keeping trouble away from Westport's section.

For the first time since the club began, the annual trip to the Kansas University track relays was missing this year from the usual activities of the organization. "Insufficient funds" was the reason.

Shortly after the end of the football season, the Hi-Y gave to the W-Club a twenty-five dollar War Bond to be used for any purpose desired. The club donated the bond to the athletic department of 1952 to use for any equipment needed.

Every W-Club year ends with a great picnic. All boys are invited to the finale of the season and most boys respond, for besides all the food that anyone can eat, baseball and tennis are enjoyed by all. The low ebb of the party is the realization on the part of all the seniors that this is the last get-together for them and their coach. But the senior lettermen leave high school athletics with the knowledge of clean living and good sportsmanship that their fellow athletes in the W-Club and their coaches have helped them develop.

Hour 4 Monopolizes Intramurals

Hour 4 of Mr. Fields' gym classes grabbed everything but the gym in winning six intramural school championships. Starting the season off with football, Hour 4 captured the all-star touch football championship with not too much competition from the other classes. But there Hour 4's championship march ended as Hour 2 took over for a brief moment to bring down the interclass touch football title.

Not satisfied with only one title, the boys of Hour 4 waltzed right through basketball by overwhelming all opposition. They annexed the all-star basketball championship, and then poured on the power to add to their overflowing championships the interclass basketball title. In the all-school tournament the Aces, made up of boys from that all-winning fourth hour class, gained still another title when they handily defeated five teams.

The season progressed into volleyball and here again no one could halt the rampaging players of Hour 4. They seized the all-star volleyball championship beyond any doubt, and to make their record a trifle more impressive, they triumphed in the interclass volleyball division. There they halted, not because they were worn out, but because there weren't any other fields to conquer.

A very exciting climax for the volleyball tournament was the all-school championship. Anyone could enter, elimination was fast and furious, and many upsets left favored teams with their tongues out. In the finals, the Hi-Y team, composed of Bill Miller, Bill Kretz, Ed Laughlin, Bernard Brown, Wally Russell, Jim Newstadt, and Otis Harding, met those charming finalists, Hour 4, whose stars were Dick Fasl, Kenneth Rader, Chuck Brawner, and Jim Hilderbrand. It was necessary for one team to win four out of seven games in order to obtain the laurel wreath of victory. All the games were tight and thrilling. Hi-Y came from behind to eke out a slender, but nevertheless decisive victory in gaining the all-school volleyball crown.

As the Herald went to press, a softball tournament among the gym classes was being held. Also, after the close of the school day, there was an all-school competition contest between eight teams competing in a double round-robin tournament. Rivalry was especially keen among these teams: W-Club, Hi-Y, Atoms, Big 10, and All-Stars. As the Herald went to press the Big 10 was in front with a record of four wins and one loss. Close behind in second place was Hi-Y, with three victories and one defeat.

Mr. Fields Conducts Intramural Program

The intramural athletic program is largely an outgrowth of the group work in the physical education classes. The classes take up a sport for a five week period, first giving attention to the fundamentals of the sport, then following with actual playing competition between squads in the class. Sports in which the boys participate are football, basketball, volleyball, tumbling, track and softball. Each class is divided into squads of eight or ten boys with one acting as a captain. The winning squad of each class then plays the other class champions after school in a single elimination tournament.

The all-stars of each sport in each class are selected by the physical education instructor, Mr. Fields, and the squad leaders. Any boy making an E, S or M grade is eligible. The all-star team of every class then plays in a single elimination tournament conducted after school.

In the all-school tournaments everyone is free to participate. A double elimination tournament is held in all-school basketball. If a team loses its first game, it drops to the consolation bracket, where that title is almost as coveted as the championship one.

Teams playing in the first round of the all-school volleyball tournament play twenty-one point games. In the second round the teams play for the best two out of three games, with fifteen points constituting a game. The quarter-final teams play for the best three out of five, with fifteen point games. Fifteen point games and a four out of a seven series are necessary for the teams that remain in the finals.

Girls' Athletics Retain Popularity

Seniors Win Hockey Championship

This year, as before, after-school sports have been very popular with Juniors, Seniors, and especially Sophomores. More than 150 girls turned out for hockey alone.

The 1941 hockey season ended with the Senior team holding the school championship, having lost not a single game. The Juniors were runners-up. The scoreboard at the end of the season's last thrilling game read Seniors 5, Juniors 0.

In many high schools and colleges over the country, classes in "Physical Fitness" have sprung up. The Office of Civilian Defense is sponsoring such classes in the interest of civilian morale and the national war effort. But here in Westport we don't need such classes. As Miss Bradley has often asserted, the boys and girls who participate in school athletics receive the necessary physical training in competitive sports instead of in boresome calisthenics. The boys and girls who are graduated from Westport are physically fit.

Basketball Holds Great Appeal

Seniors Again Champions

More girls came out for basketball this year than in any previous year. The Senior team emerged victorious as in hockey, the Juniors coming in second. The last game of the basketball season between the Juniors and Seniors was a tie, 14-14.

The Christmas alumnae game was almost as thrilling, the scoreboard reading 25-19 in favor of the alumnae when the final whistle blew. Excellent teamwork was outstanding on both teams.

Basketball is probably the most strenuous form of competitive recreation offered for Westport girls. Players must be constantly on their toes and the pace is terrific. Good basketball playing provides an excellent example of machine-like teamwork and split-second individual thinking.

Baseball and Tennis Outstanding

Two of Westport girls' favorite sports, baseball and tennis, are always somewhat neglected in the Herald because of their "unseasonable seasons"; the Herald goes to press before they get fully under way.

But these sports, especially tennis, are probably more popular than any others in school; baseball, because of its general prominence in Kansas City, and tennis, because of its nation-wide prominence. Tennis is a game which offers wholesome recreation not only for high school pupils, but for adults and middle-aged people as well. Tennis is one of the few inexpensive sports that stay with a person all through life.

Betty Beets and Loretto Vann were winner and runner-up, respectively, in the fall tennis practice tournament; therefore their chances for placing in the spring finals are very good.

In baseball, the seniors are holding down a well-established lead. The baseball squads were chosen after many weeks of practice. These girls were selected to represent their respective classes in the after-school baseball tournament:

Seniors — Suzanne Anderson, Sue Conwell, Helen Cox, Harriette Davis, Josie Ham, Susie Huncilman, Arline McCallum, Janice Meredith, Jewel Peaster, Loretto Vann, Yvonne Wiklund, Isabel Frush.

Six Candidates for Senior Athletic Pin Highest Award in Girls' Physical Education

The girls pictured above are the candidates for the highest and most coveted honor offered by the department, the Senior Athletic Pin. To receive one of these pins, a girl must have won at least six letters during her Westport years; she must also be noted for her good sportsmanship. The winning of a Senior Pin is indeed a real achievement.

Josie Ham (upper left) has won three letters in hockey, three in basketball, and one in baseball; Harriette Davis (upper center) one in hockey, one in basketball, and two in baseball; Sue Conwell (upper right) two in hockey, two in basketball.

Janice Meredith (lower left) has won one letter in hockey, three in basketball, and one in baseball; Jewel Peaster (lower center) one in hockey, two in basketball, one in baseball; Loretto Vann (lower right) two in hockey, one in basketball, two in baseball.

The Senior Athletic Pins will be awarded by Miss Bradley in the Distinguished Service Assembly on Senior Day.

Minor Sports Arouse Interest

In addition to the four major sports, the girls' physical education department takes up various minor sports, such as horseback riding, badminton, volley ball, and table tennis. (Evelyn Rubin was this year's table tennis champion.) All these minor sports provide the Westport girl with a well-rounded education in the playing of games, and perhaps more important, in good sportsmanship. Also, such sports may still be enjoyed after school days are over.

R. O. T. C.

LIEUTENANT COLONEL
BURR P. IRWIN

The Westport R. O. T. C. Battalion of 1941-1942 is again the largest battalion in the city, and is even larger than any in the history of Westport. With the help of Lieutenant Colonel Irwin, Professor of Military Science and Tactics in Kansas City, Sergeants Hilton and Hicks have worked hard to make the battalion live up to its past record.

In January, when Sergeant Hilton was ordered to active duty at Camp Robinson and promoted to the rank of Lieutenant, he was replaced by Sergeant Hicks from Fort Leavenworth.

Sergeant Hilton made a splendid record during the two and one-half years he spent at Westport. During this time the battalion won many outstanding awards; in May of 1941 the battalion took first place in the Field Day exercises, bringing back every award except one. This is just an example of the outstanding achievements of the battalion under the helpful leadership of Sergeant Hilton.

We feel that Sergeant Hicks will continue to lead the battalion in maintaining the high level to which it has gradually ascended through hard work and ambitious ideals, and that he will continue to train the high school cadet "to be a better citizen in time of peace, and a better leader in time of war."

RIFLE TEAM

The rifle team this year has made a splendid record for the school. The team was under the direction of Sergeant Hilton, who picked the team members and directed them in firing every evening after school.

This year Calvin Culbertson and Loyd Russing returned to help the team with their previous experience. The other members of the team were chosen from the Battalion, using the elimination system.

Cadet Captain Calvin Culbertson was chosen Captain of the rifle team on his ability to shoot and his previous two years' experience. He and Sergeant Hilton corrected the mistakes the men made while shooting, and took charge of the rifles and equipment for inter-school matches.

Our range here at Westport does not conform to regulations; therefore no official shooting is done here. This handicaps the team by requiring them to shoot on a strange range. But despite this disadvantage the team won second place in the intra-mural match and second place in the inter-city matches. Every man on the team won the rating of expert rifleman.

Sergeant Hicks will have to train some new men to take the places of the graduating seniors. These new men, along with Jack Furry and Ray Thayer, who will return next year, are expected to form a team which will live up to the record of the Tiger squad of 1941-1942.

R. O. T. C. BALL

The R. O. T. C. Ball is looked forward to as the peak of social events here at Westport. This year it was held in the front hall on February 27. The decorations were planned and decided upon by a committee which was chosen and headed by Cadet Captain Bill

Barr. Music was furnished by George Miller's orchestra. The highlight of the evening was the presentation of a gold bracelet to the queen, Mable Lou Hetzler. Those who attended thoroughly enjoyed themselves and considered the evening well spent.

The S. G. Men (Student Government) are sponsored by the R. O. T. C. to protect the lockers and belongings of the students and to keep order in the halls. These men are chosen for their ability to think and act on their own judgment. They patrol the halls, checking to see that no absent-minded student has forgotten to lock his locker. They also challenge all persons in the halls during class periods, thus preventing loafing in the halls.

This year the corps was larger than in previous years; there was a patrol for each hour except second. Also, this was the first year that a cadet officer was not in charge of the corps. Cadet First Sergeant Hobart Michael was named as Commander by Sergeant Hilton at the first of the year. The corps has done an outstanding piece of work under the excellent leadership of Cadet Sergeant Michael, Sergeant Hilton, and Sergeant Hicks.

SENIOR BALLOT

1. SUE CONWELL and LES HOLDEMAN—
Best known couple.

Susie and Les are Westport's "Couple in the Castle" with "Semper Fidelis" on their coat-of-arms.

2. PEGGY MINER—Girl who has done the most for Westport.

It's people like Peggy who have helped put and keep Westport in her high position among Kansas City's high schools. Let's give her a hand!

3. BILL KRETZ—Boy who has done the most for Westport.

Bill never misses an opportunity to put Westport "higher upon our noble hill." He's our chief plugger, booster, and general builder-upper.

4. RUTHANN BEYER and PAUL MENDEN-
HALL—Most popular girl and boy.

Ruthann is well-known and well-liked by everyone in school. She certainly deserves this title in every sense of the word.

Paul Mendenhall—the most popular boy in school. He is the favorite of sophomores, juniors, and seniors alike—in spite of his crew cut and bow ties!

5. BILL LONGMOOR—Best dressed boy.

Bill has all the boys envious of his zoot suits—and we do mean "zoot!"

6. JANE RIEGER—Best dressed girl.

Jane would win the honors in any Easter parade, Duchess of Windsor or no Duchess of Windsor.

7. RUTHANN BEYER—Most typical West-porter.

"Miss Westport of 1942." Typical of all of us in every way—popularity, scholarship, and personality.

8. CATHERINE CAMPBELL and BOB EGGLE-STON—Flirt and Familiar.

"Katie" says she doesn't know what she has done to deserve this title, but we all know that she has a definite "way" with the boys, and do they love it! "Eggy" used to be quite the man about school, but now, to the disappointment of the fairer sex, it looks as if he has finally settled down for good.

9. DON CHAMBLEE—Most handsome boy.

A composite Clark Gable, Tyrone Power, and Stirling Hayden, "Dutch" really merits this title, and many more besides.

10. RITA RICKETSON—Prettiest girl.

Rita Ricketson—beauty queen of Irving and of the entire school. She is not only pretty, but sweet as well.

11. PAT ANGLEBECK and HARRY BARKER
—Best girl and boy dancers.

"Swing and sway with Harry and Pat." They know all the latest steps, and are the two most sought-after people on every dance floor.

12. BRONEK LABUNSKI—Most likely to succeed.

In spite of this picture, we know that Bronek has what it takes to hitch his wagon to the highest star.

13. FLETCHER WELLS—Best punner.

Fletcher is Westport's "punny-man." He rolls them in the aisles and keeps them in stitches.

14. BILL BARR—Boy with best personality.

The old "personality man" in person. He has more friends than you could ever begin to count, and he more than deserves every one of them.

15. MARGARET TUCKER—Girl with best personality.

We never see "Tuckie" but that she is surrounded by her many friends and admirers. It's that "magnetic personality" that gets them.

16. DON CHAMBLEE—Best physique.

Westport's "Superman." If you don't believe us, just take a look for yourself!

17. JEANNE LAIER—Best figure.

In addition to having such a good figure, Jeanne has beauty, personality, popularity and—well, everything it takes to justify our choice.

Hey, chillun', the game's the other way!
 No 8th hours today. The boss is on vacation. Yippee!
 Don't crowd, there's plenty of room for everybody
 Bill Longmoor on the job (as per usual).

Popcorn, peanuts, chewing gum!
 The school turns out in grand style.
 The pause that refreshes—

"That's the way you spell it—here's the way you yell it—"

"Tough luck, Maurice."

Don't let a little thing like a goal upset you, girls.
 Kent Kise and the, Westport-Southwest scoreboard. Need we say more?
 Careful, now. Remember your blood-pressure.
 Joyce Cook, Peggy Small, Arlene McCallum, John Pumphrey, Bill Miller, our rootin'-tootin' cheering section.

Our team in a huddle between quarters, plotting a new offensive play. (Interesting backs, no?)
 Looks as if we just made a goal . . .
 Intramural cagers, McCambridge, Beach, Bugler, Rader, and Scanlon vie for the ball. May the best man win!
 Don't get so excited. kids, the other team made the goal.

Goin' somewhere, fellas?

Johnnie Kirkpatrick and Bill Howell "blowing the man down."

Don't look now, boys, but there's a quiet little murder going on behind you!

Sergeant Hilton seems to be quite intent on grading some R. O. T. C. papers. Did he pass, Sarg?

"Herald" activity assembly stunt. L. to R.—Dana, Bierwirth, Kretz, Beyer, Carroll, Daily, and Longmoor. Would you ever have recognized us?

Bill Evans, Arline McCallum, and Zella Andrews seem to be upset about something. Wha'sa' matter?

Careful, fellas. It bites!

Activity ticket chairmen Kenneth Rader, Jerry Niquette, Betty Jo Goble, and Lynne Cowles. Nice work, gang!

FINANCIAL STATEMENT OF THE 1942 HERALD

To whom it may concern:

This is the official statement concerning the high-falutin' expenditures on the super, better-than-average, colossal, magnificent, gigant, and stupendous year book. The members of the staff think it is only fair that the recipients of this book know something of the money involved in publishing it.

Sorrowfully submitted

Bill Kretz

Business Manager

THE HEREAFTER, OR--

*"We are sorry, kind friends,
That we can't roast you all,
For our space is limited,
And our oven is small."*

One fine spring day, while several of us were on a scavenger hunt, our quests led us into an old cemetery, and we decided to pass some time in reading a few of the headstones. As we read on, we recognized this as "Ye Olde Westporte Cemetery," where not a few of our friends are peacefully at rest.

The first epitaph that met our eyes was that of our dear, departed brother, Bob Butcher. "Born, April 13, 1925.

Died, April 13, 2025."

Horror-stricken, we read Jeanne Smith's name on a dear little tombstone:

"Electrocuted, November 17, 1955."

(Alas! We remember that fated day when she ran amuck through San Francisco's Chinatown, a carving knife in each hand and a dagger between her teeth.)

Under weeping willows, we sorrowfully read the following:

"Gone but not forgotten, Merlyn Stenger. She met her death heroically while saving her dog, Woofie, from a watery grave."

A drooping flag next caught our attention.

"Marian Fahey, aviatrix. Killed while looping the loop."

(We had heard that this sad accident would never have happened had not Marian been trying to attract the attention of a handsome young birdman below her.)

With a sigh and a shake of the head we reflected on the foolishness of Susie Anderson.

"Killed while going over Niagara Falls in a barrel."

The fate of Bill Risberg was a sad blow.

"Died at Leavenworth serving a term for absconding with bank funds."

(We fear that he learned his evil ways while treasurer of Clay.)

And so we passed on our way, relieved and gratified to know what had happened to some of our more illustrious schoolmates.

The next engraving startled us not a little. "Mable Lou Day. Died in prison, under sentence for cruelty and mistreatment of her husband."

(And we thought they would be so happy together.)

The next epitaph did not surprise us much: "To the sacred memory of my loving wives, Frankie Schneider Wells, Died 1954. Betty Shannon Wells, Died 1956."

Bob Lowary's fate is, we hope, a warning to the present generation.

"Death came to him as a result of the law passed requiring all raving poets to be mercifully strangled."

A gigantic grave with a huge headstone attracted our attention. On it we read of the pitiful end of:

"Phil Tobin, a sufferer of Elephantitis. His weight was so great that slipping on a banana peel caused his death."

We caught sight of a pair of crossed swords in marble, and thinking some martial hero lay under them, we rushed to see who it could be. What a pathetic inscription!

"Here lie Buddy Stark and Larry Ranier, killed in a duel over a beautiful, Venuslike young hat check girl."

On an adjacent headpiece we calmly beheld this:

"Bill Barr. Died peacefully of complicated gout and pink-eye."

(Thank goodness for nice cheerful little diseases like those!)

Last Will and Testament of The Senior Class of 1942

To the Faculty, the Seniors leave an extra-large bottle of aspirin for all the extra-large headaches acquired.

To the Juniors, we leave all the boys we used to date.

To the Sophomores, we leave the plea to carry on for the sake of "Deare Olde Westporte Highe Schoole."

Harry Barker leaves for California—SWISH!

Mari Becka Wilson leaves Bob Taylor to the incoming Senior girls. Too bad, Becka.

Clarence Day leaves his Spanish troubles to some other aspiring R. O. T. C.'er.

Jane Rieger leaves her wardrobe to Zella Andrews.

Margaret Tucker bequeaths her "personality plus" to Jean McNair.

"Sahib" Kretz leaves the school to Bob Miner.

Loyd Russing just leaves.

Bob Eggleston leaves his "technique" to Bill Evans.

Jeanne Laier and Katie Campbell leave their "famous qualities" to Gloria Harris.

Mary Anna Johnson takes all her cuteness and popularity with her.

Major Isaac leaves the battalion to join MacArthur.

Bronek Labunski leaves his "gift of gab" to Buddy Humphrey.

Paul Mendenhall leaves his football socks to anyone who will take them off his hands.

Bills Ege and Miller leave two slightly used tennis rackets to Frank Wilkinson and Howard Hall.

Don Chamblee turns his looks over to David Mall, as if Dave needed them!

Bette Bierwirth leaves her artistic ability to June Frame.

Lois Weiford leaves a wad of gum under every desk.

Dick Sigman just keeps coming and going.

We all hate to leave Merle Miller and those parties of his.

Jerry Niquette leaves her flirting ways to Ann Armstrong.

Bob Barr leaves for J. C.

Gloria Dana leaves this job to someone else next year.

POEM

UNANSWERABLE QUESTIONS

Did you ever stop to think that life would be a mere existence were it not for those joyous twins, Merwin and Marvin McClelland?

Where did Lois Ellis acquire her taste for knickknacks—or, in other words, that "W" pin?

Why can't all of us be as brilliant as Ernest Oppenheimer?

Why did Dick Sigman and George Robinson suddenly find Westport so repulsive that they shoved off for Southwest and Paseo respectively?

Why do some men persist in hiding their light under a bushel?

Why does Betty Beets always look so interested whenever Q. M. T. R. is mentioned?

How can anyone still maintain that Miss Trotter has a heart after taking one of her exams—preferably, a final?

What would happen if a Herald came out with some really good Tiger Tales?

What's this I keep hearing about some "Diary" or something?

What would happen if Westport had a stadium?

Why did so many supposedly "goodie" girls suddenly get sick on the same day recently?

Remember the Days—

When there were men?

When all the Seniors were staggering around the halls after the college aptitude test?

When we walked to school in the dark?

When girls cleaned their shoes?

When the words formed on every chemistry student's lips were: "How many clippings do you have for your notebook?" "Oh, gosh, I only have 52!" or "Well, gee whiz, my little brother tears the paper up before I can get to it," or "Do you think she'll count these on our final grade?" and so on into the night.

When Westport won the interscholastic basketball championship?

When "Caps and Gowns vs. Formals" was the center of many a Senior's attention?

When the commercial contest participants came home from Independence with such l-o-n-g faces?

When every other word was "little deal" this, that, or the other?

(Ah, yes, they were the days!!)

Famous Sayings

Evelyn Harland—"Hello, Turk. Remember Fort Leonard Wood!"

Emily Daily—"Some day I'm going to smile right in his face and shout 'hello' to him."

Kenny Cooper—"Hi there, how're ya doin'?"

Clancy Day (on Mable Lou Hetzler)—"Ah, 'tis spring. The birds, the bees, and the flowers!"

Mr. Ward—"That reminds me of a story—"

Georgiana Smith—"I believe we are laboring under a misapprehension."

Any monitor—"No talking, please!" (More often than not, the "please" is omitted.)

Bill Longmoor—"I just positively can't do all this work without an assistant."

WANT ADS

WANTED—

At least two more dignified and full-grown years to add to our ages. Please send all answers to Bob Miner and Dick Epstein, ages fourteen and fifteen respectively.

More cradles to rob. Any Senior boy.

A continuous pass to the Uptown. (Who was it that you said was the assistant manager at the Uptown now?)

Someone to laugh at my jokes. F. Wells.

Someone to convince our teachers of the truth of the old saying that "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." Anybody and everybody.

Someone who would dare separate us. Rita Ricketson and Margaret Tucker.

Someone to find out why the inventor of school books didn't die when he was born. Student body.

Someone to haul off all the paper excelsior that's been lying around our house since we started slicing up newspapers for clippings for our chemistry notebooks. Any chemistry student.

One large bottle of poison to use on members of rival societies before the intersociety contest. Literary society members.

Sudden inspiration. Me.

FORSAKEN or Who Swiped Pappy's False Teeth?

"Me love has flew, he done me dirt,
How was I to know him was a flirt?
To those in love, let I forbid,
Lest they be dood like I been did!"
