1999

What does saving the best mean? Meanings are varied. Seniors saved their best for last; freshmen for beginning; staff for support; groups for camaraderie; activities for involvement; sports for competition; sophomores for settling in and juniors for becoming settled.

SAVING
BEST...

for August orientation,
for the first day,
and for winter breakfast.

Saving the Best...

Saving their best for support is the credo of the STAFF. The administration and everyone with whom students come into contact support all of the students and their parents. Teachers, kitchen personnel, the custodial staff, the secretarial staff, paraprofessionals - the staff.

ADMINISTRATION

PRINCIPAL
WILLIAM ELLIOTT

"Self-worth cannot be verified by others; you are worthy because you say it is so. If you depend on others for your value, it is other-worth."

ADMINISTRATION

Saving the Best...

Saving their best for last best describes the SENIORS. As seniors, students can look back over four years of successes and failures, culminating in commencement. The Class of 1999 has succeeded.

Senior Class President Brandy Bonwell

The First, The Last, The Omega Class

When I think of our class, and the years past, I am reminded of freshman years fears such as: will I have a lot of friends, will I fit in with the latest trends?

When we became sophomores, I'd like to say we grew a little more, and we kind of knew what we were working for.

Our junior year, we attained upper class status, and every one was competing to make sure their gear was the "phatest".

By our senior year, we had all the gear and no fear: now we were concentrating on our careers, but who knows what the future holds?

When that last school bell rings, and we are no longer running things, the last memory we'll have is that it's a senior thing.

So, when you look back on the past and down memory's path, don't forget -

The First, The Last, The Omega Class

Saving the Best...

Saving their best for involvement in ACTIVITIES which are a major part of a school year is the experience of many students. Assemblies, field trips, programs, and in-class activities all add variety to a complete education.

FALL HOMECOMING

The freshman queen was Candy Johnson, escorted by Aaron Tolbert, also flanked by Principal Elliott. Switch day allowed Jermonica Cann (floor), Mykeita Clark, Nate Wylie and Shaneeta Williams a day to celebrate. On the field, the Tiger (Twann McGill), Marcus Jones, Nicole Flowers, Candy Johnson, and Sheena Williams take a break after the cheerleader's half time performance.

After days of dress up, including hat day, 70's day, twins day, switch day, and blue and gold day, the Friday football game featured a half time coronation ceremony. The senior queen was Shaneeta Williams, escorted by Ronald Brenson. The senior king was Nate Wylie. The junior queen was Camille Goods. She was escorted by Daryl Hoskins. Principal Elliott awarded the candidates flowers and plaques. The sophomore queen was Jaqua Dudley, escorted by Billy Banks.

Twin day was the most popular day of the Fall Homecoming week. Juniors Tinesha Holloway and Ericka Brown wore matching shirts. Senior Mashea Webb got into the spirit of the week with her clown make up. Freshmen Winter Green and Marquita Townsend also took part in twin day.

WINTER HOMECOMING

Senior class representatives were King Chris Falkner and Queen Janai Taylor. The juniors were represented by Ericka Brown, escorted by Lonell Henderson. The sophomores were represented by Keisha Anderson and Darryl McFadden, escorted by Earnest Jones and Carla Hollis. Freshmen were represented by Marquita Townsend, escorted by Marcus Jones, and JhenJuan Marshall, escorted by Nicole Flowers.

A staff choir entertained the audience at both assemblies. Their practices after school required perservance. The audience of staff, students and parents behaved well.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH ASSEMBLY

The concert choir, under the direction of Mr. Murrell and accompanied by Mr. Polk, performed at the Black History Month assemblies, during the last week of February. The audience was receptive to Tisha Thomas, Dana Mitchell, and Andrea Brown as they sang. The choir prepared to give the audience another number.

Basketball season cheerleading, sophomore class fund raising and yearbook preparation are all parts of Westport activities.

Saving the Best...

Saving their best for all levels of competition in SPORTS drives the students who played on Tiger teams. From being on a freshman team to a participating on a successful varsity team, students grew from sports.

The varsity football team, led by coach Jesse Sands, had a tough season with a record of 0-6. In sports jargon, the team had a re-building year. Players who remained on the team for the entire season were dedicated.

Sports bring out the best in everyone, from fans who support the school as adults to that first "home" football game to the fall cheerleaders.

Saving the Best...

So, finally, we saved the best for candid - those snapshots of a year at Westport High School. Most everyone likes their picture taken and most everyone poses whenever the camera comes out. Students and staff are no exceptions. Enjoy the final pages of our yearbook, the Herald, 1999.

The Grandberrys, Janai Taylor, Andre Brooks.

Joyce Johnson, Latisha Williams, Betzua Vasquez.

Dana Nunez.

Joshua Smith, Andre Taft, Maurice Williams.

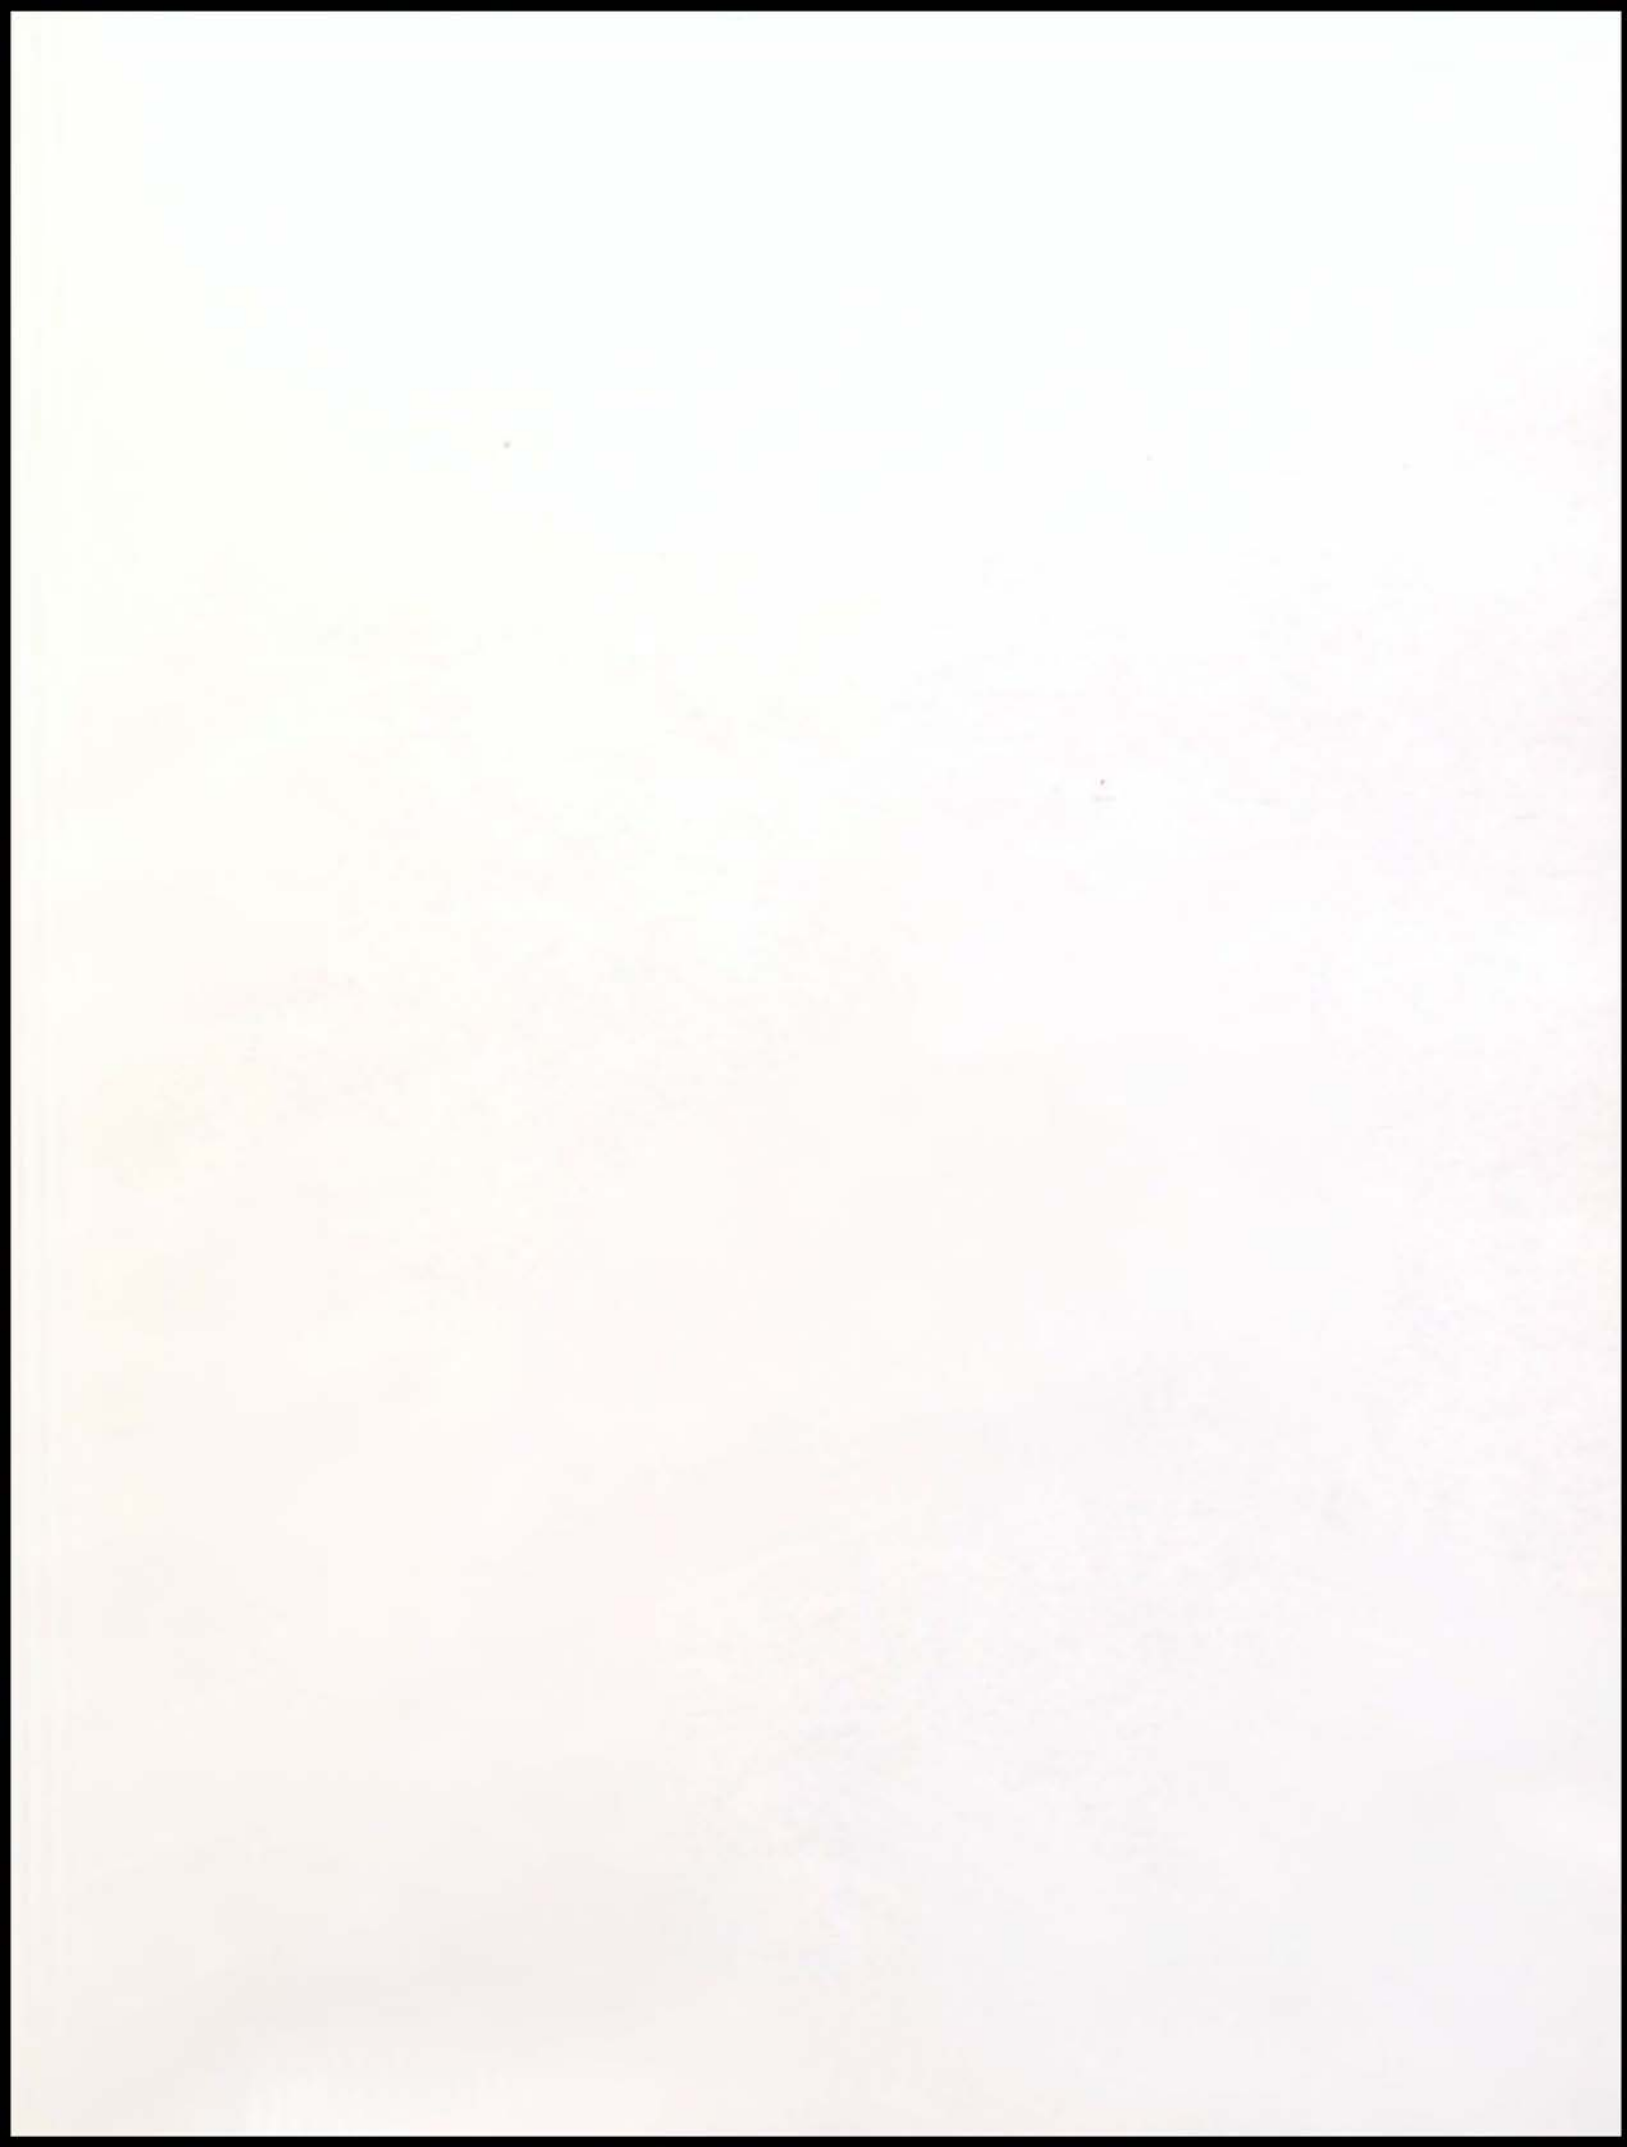

Latisha Williams, Devon Kenny.

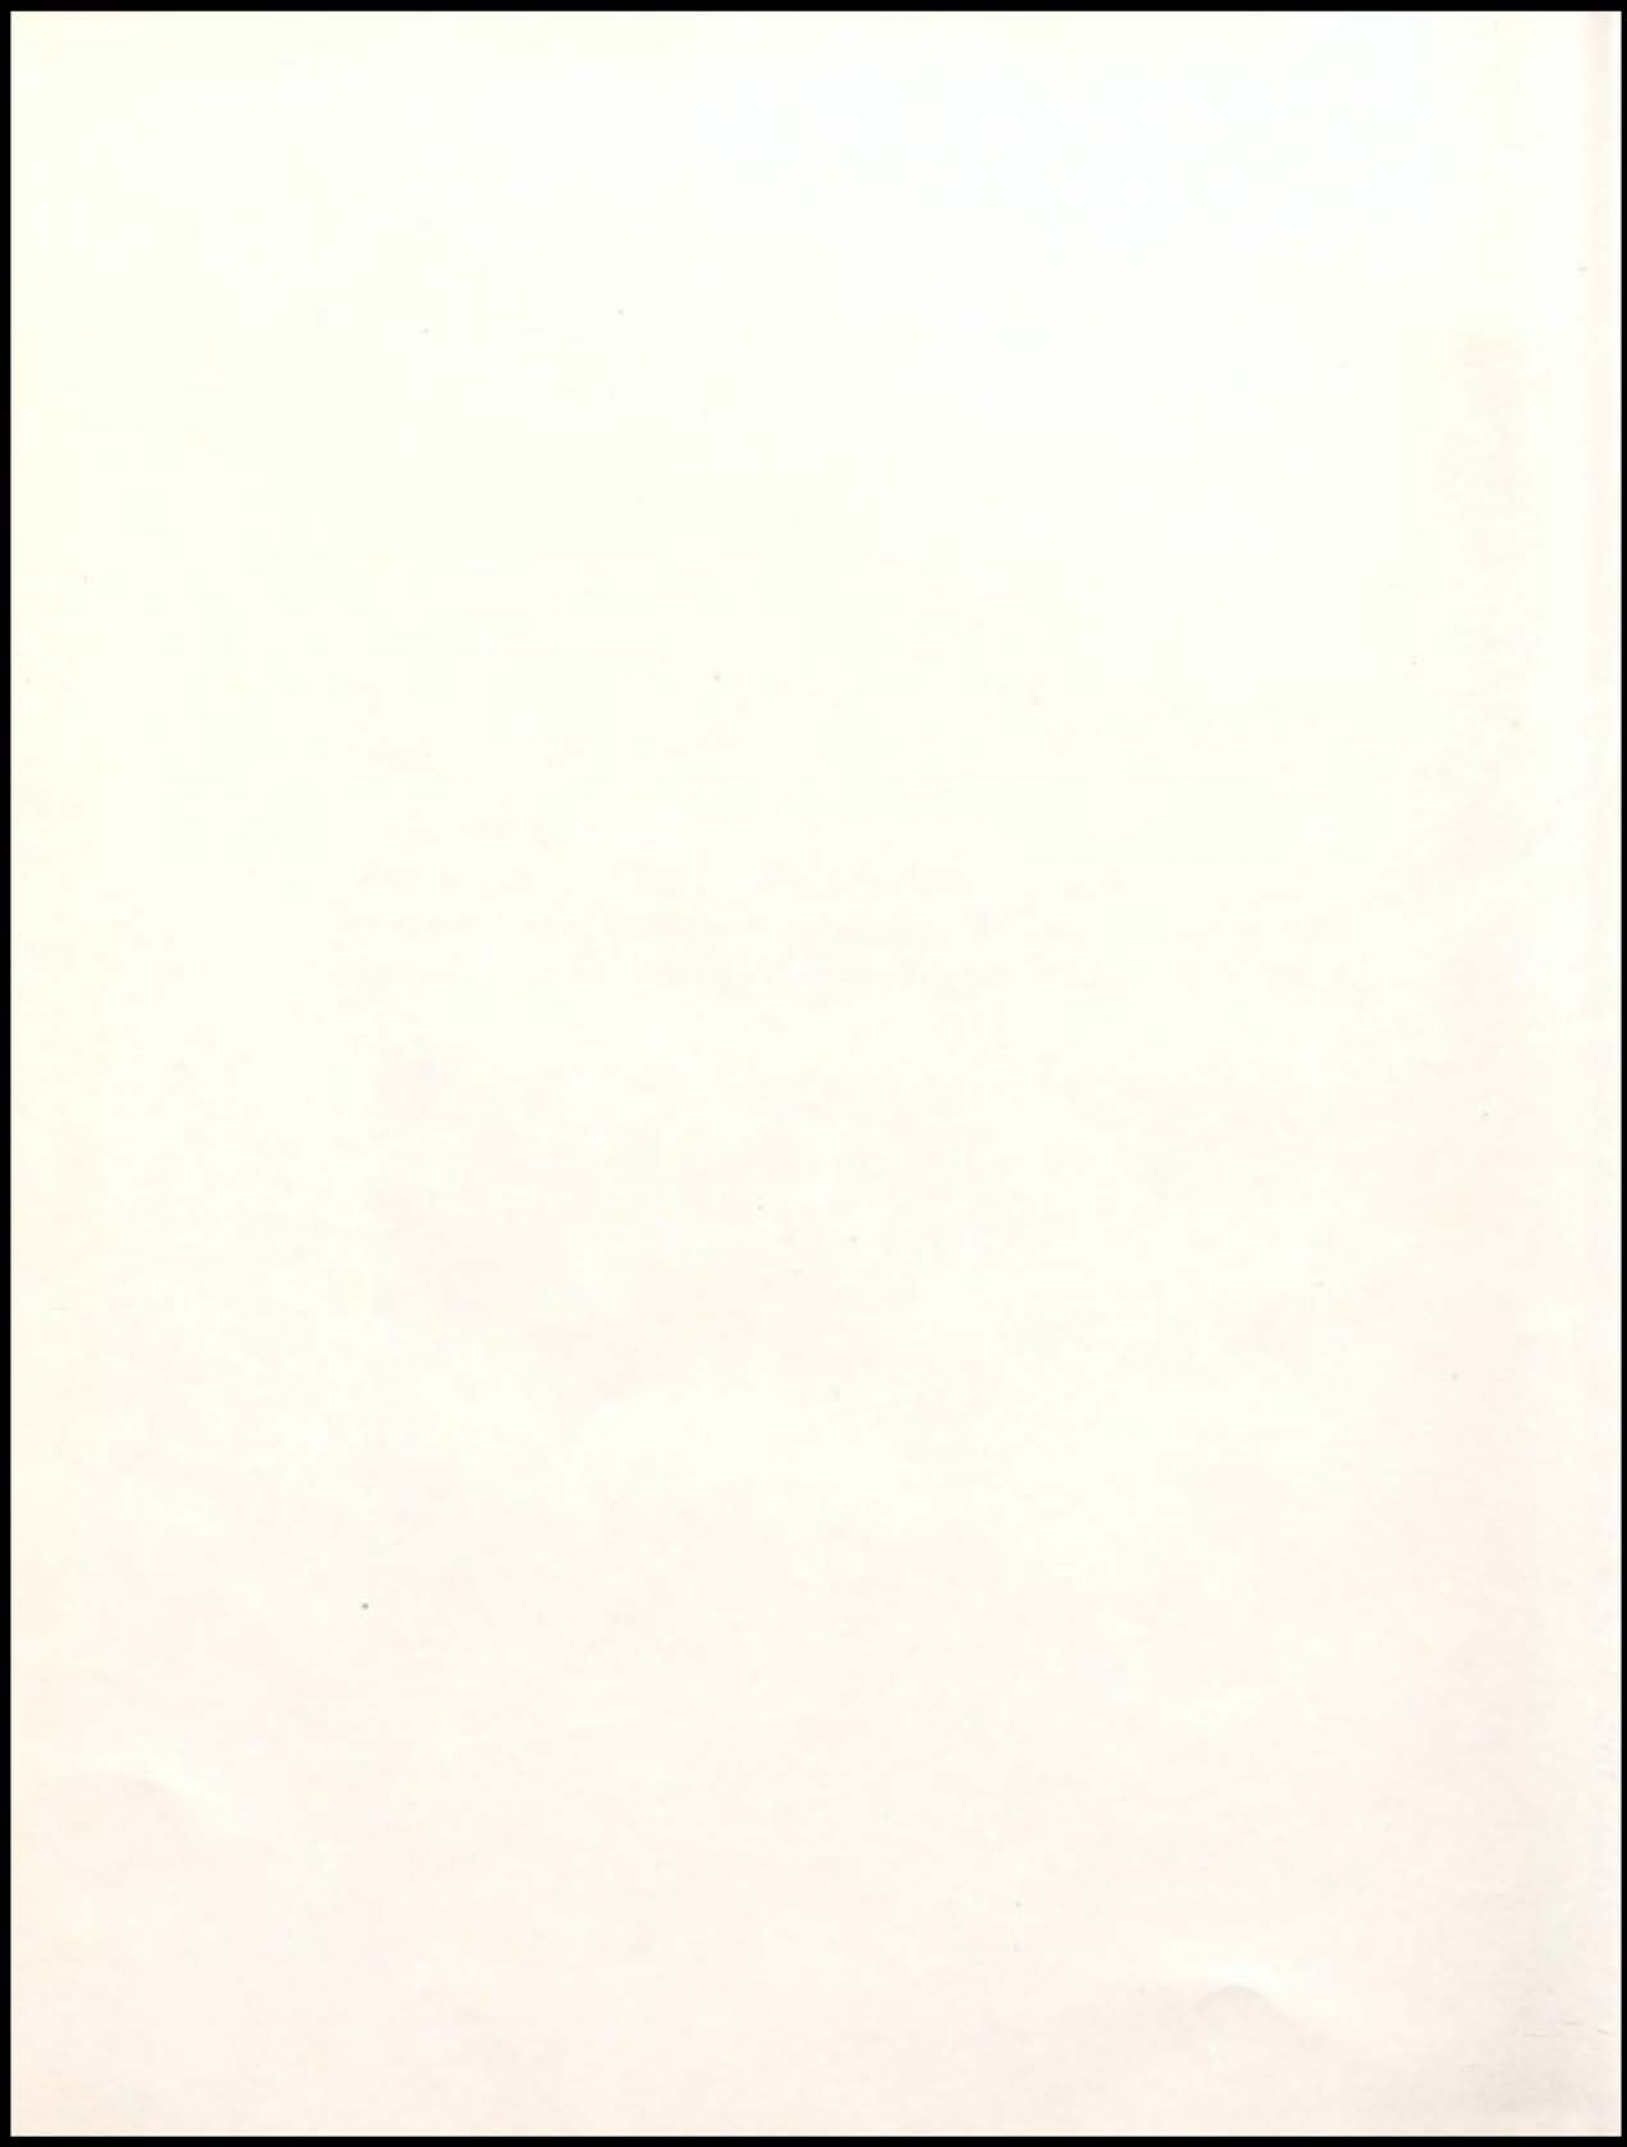

Jennifer Freeman.

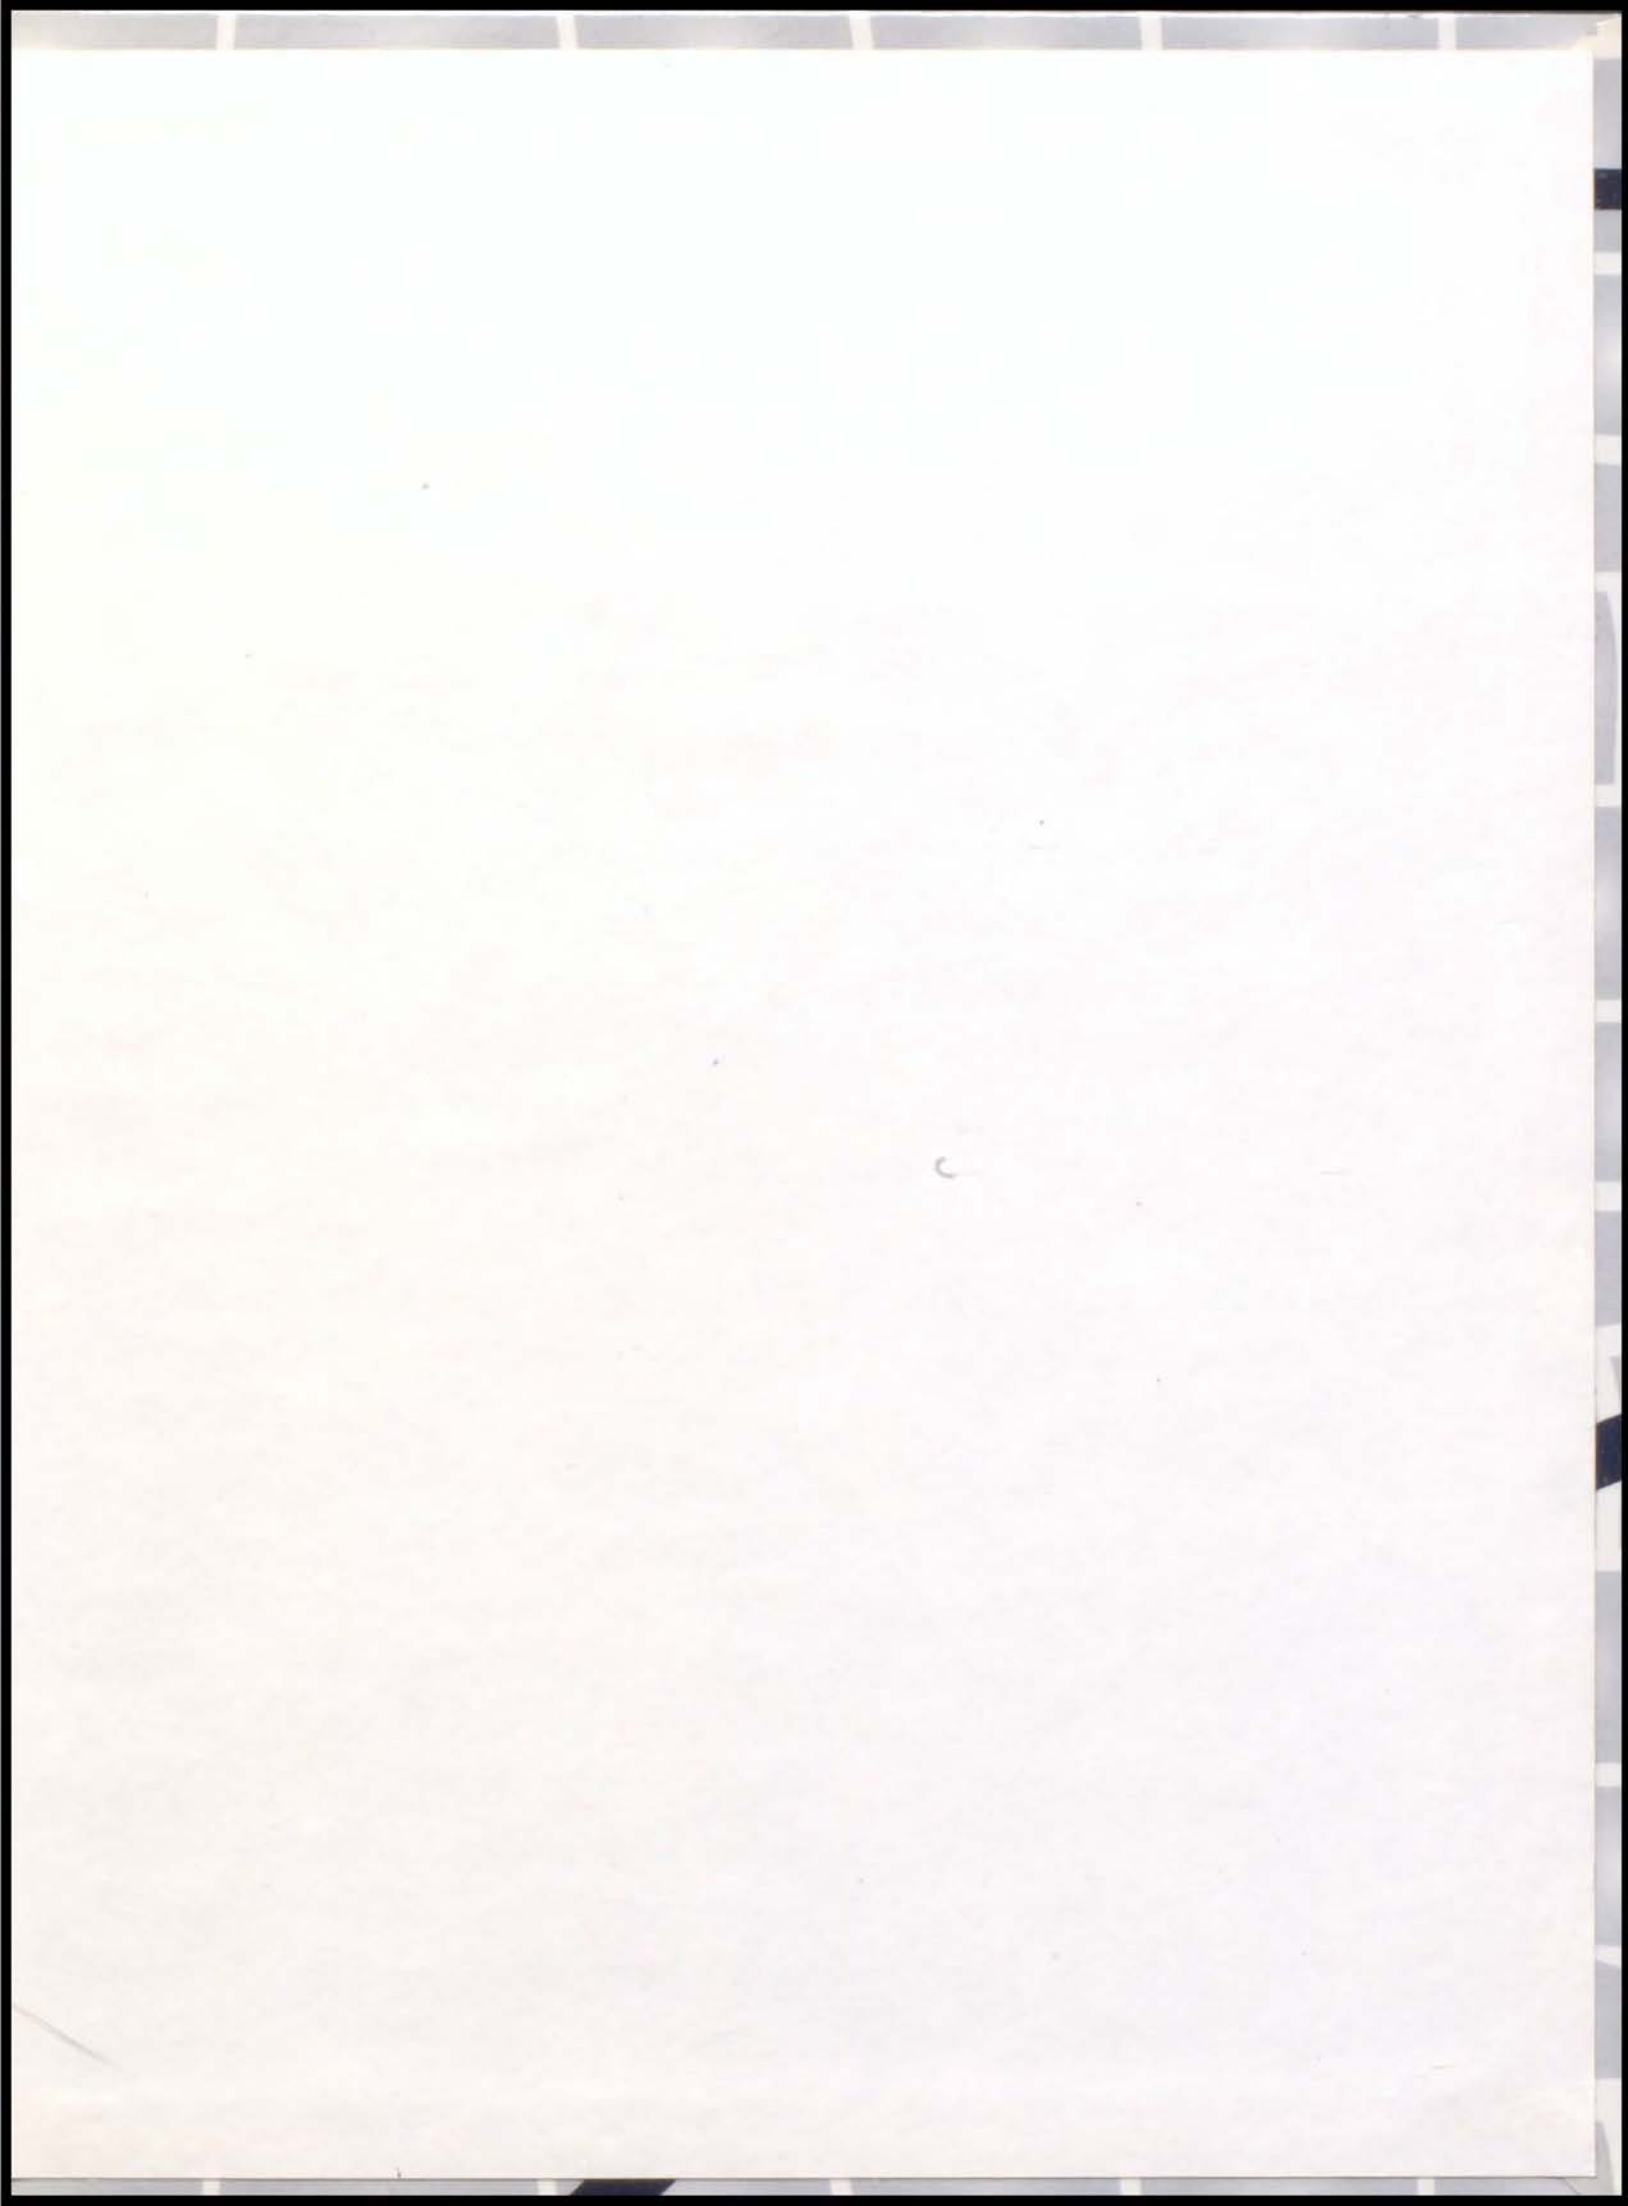

Saving the Best...

Saving the best for camaraderie, for the support, for the beginning, for settling in, for being settled in, for their last year, for involvement and for competition all played a role in the education of students at Westport High School in 1998-1999.
