Foreword

"We will have these moments to remember" is the line of a familiar song which reflects the feeling of Chrisman students toward the 1962-1963 school year.

Emphasized throughout the pages of the yearbook is the theme, "Memories." When the Gleam is received by Chrisman students, they will find themselves looking at their school life through the reflections of two seniors, representing the 1963 graduating class.

It is impossible to record a complete history of a school year in 260 pages of pictures and copy or amply exemplify the good times and ambitions of the students. But the 1963 Gleam has captured many of the highlights of this one year of life at William Chrisman for the seniors and underclassmen.

High School Song

Faithful and true hearted,
Let us cheer for Chrisman High.
We revere her and defend her,
And her colors proudly fly;
We will stand for her united,
Of her deeds we gladly tell.
Her colors streaming,
Glad faces beaming,
So here's a cheer for her,
For her we love so well.

Chorus

Joyous and ever loyal,
Let us boost for Chrisman High.
Let every heart ring,
Let every voice sing,
There's no time to grieve or sigh;
It's ever onward, our course pursuing,
Let defeat ne'er our ardor cool,
But united, we will boost for her,
Our own high school.

II

Honors she has taken,
On the track and with the ball,
May she always rank the highest,
May her colors never fall;
There's no other that can match her,
When her team is on the field,
Her boys the fleetest,
Her girls the sweetest,
Then here's a cheer for her,
For her who ne'er will yield.

"Not of the sunlight,
Not of the moonlight,
Not of the starlight,
O, young mariner,
Down to the haven,
Call your companions,
Launch your vessel
And crowd your canvas,
And, ere it vanishes
O'er the margin,
'After it, Follow it,
Follow The Gleam.'"

Tennyson

Various phases of school life typify attaining specific goals by developing certain skills and by acquiring knowledge.

Above: Jerry Scanlan, using the drill press, and Robert Paul, drilling, are developing skills in shop.

Center: Sergeant Paul Radle and Major Charles West adjust the American and the Missouri flag at the beginning of a school day.

Below: At the close of the day students are eager to board the buses for home.

It's a close outcome on the lower track for Dick Agee, Ken Black, Mike Chappelow, and Terry Galloway as they go through daily practice.

Athletics include many different

Larry "Oscar" Robinson, guard, attempts to take the ball from Bob Nelson during a practice session in the gym.

Bill Schwenk observes the maneuvers of John Campbell as he tees off.

During the year a variety of sports is offered to the girls participating in gym classes. The girls in this class enjoy an hour of basketball.

Cal McDole, Gene Russell, Bob Alexander, and Jackie Kelly, Chrisman's tennis team, practice in an afternoon match at Hill Park.

phases for physical development

Chrisman's foreign exchange student for 1963 is Barbaro Sjoval, or "Ba" as she is known by her new school mates. Ba hails from Finland and is living with her foster family, the Leslie Hunters.

Ba speaks English fluently as well as German and, of course, Finnish. She is most impressed by Chrisman's school spirit.

Barbaro is planning to become a doctor of medicine and is thinking seriously of specializing in the treatment of handicapped children.

Exchange student

Below: Karen Heckman, who qualified as a foreign exchange student and studied in Mexico during the summer, shows Ba one of the many posters which advertise school activities.

Ba, an honorary member of Pep club, attends all games and as shown above is an enthusiastic pepster. Ba also attends out of town games and willingly participates in the bus antics of the girls.

participates in student activities

During lunch students get a chance to become acquainted with their foreign exchange student.

Parents listen intently as teachers explain class procedures and acquaint them with faculty-student relationship at Back-to School night October 4.

Back-to-School night gives parents

Before attending the classes of their children, parents gathered in the auditorium for the first Parent Teacher business meeting of the year. Plans were presented by the president and committee chairmen for discussion and adoption by the membership.

Below: Sponsored by Miss Thelma Myers, the newly elected student council officers, Dave Harris, Ken Smith, Judy Gosney, Pat Allen and Lynda Hall coordinate student activities.

Carol Anderson, Kathy Smith and Kent Womack observe specimens in biology laboratory of Miss Oneida Beeman's fifth hour class.

view of faculty-student relationship

Miss Dorothy Bales, guidance counselor, offers advice to Mike Paschall. She guides senior students in selecting and pursuing high school subjects and in all matters concerning entrance into a college.

Beartowns and after game mixers set the scene for fraternizing and socializing among Chrismanites. The Parent Teacher Association and Booster club provide refreshments and proper supervision for these twenty-three functions.

Chrisman crowds echo the feeling

of unity shared by all students

Right: Ken Starr places the homecoming bouquet in the arms of Queen Dana Austin during the halftime ceremony. Ken is assisted by Laura Brown and Stephen Parrish.

Below: A huge circle forms around the bonfire to boost the Bears to victory.

The great art to learn much is to undertake a little at a time.

Locke

Some 3000 young men and women make up the William Chrisman student body. Even though these students are housed in three different buildings they are united in spirit and by a common goal — the development of a well-rounded, versatile personality. Freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors all strive during their designated year of school to achieve the growth necessary to prepare them for their next educational step.

The formation of character by practice as well as by precept is an objective of education. To go forth into the professions well-developed educated individuals is the goal of Chrisman students.

Classes

Class of '66 regards first year

A division II freshman starts the day wrong by receiving a tardy slip from Keith Bench, vice principal, to admit him to class.

Freshman students gather in the halls between classes to discuss activities before the tardy bell catches them.

Before Palmer junior high school freshmen may sit down to their noon meal, Mrs. Elverna McCormick, the cashier, receives their money after evaluating the cost of the meal.

The students' knowledge is enriched by the many films needed to satisfy their searching minds.

Decisions to be made by the sophomore class are referred to Jackie Kelly, secretary; Cecil Taylor, president; Joel Montgomery, vice-president; and Janice MacPherson, treasurer.

Elected to represent the sophomore class during the 1962-1963 school year were four willing and capable officers.

Selected as president was Cecil Taylor. An active participant in football, basketball and track, he received a varsity letter in football, thus becoming a member of C club. After graduation Cecil plans to attend the University of Missouri or Colorado State and major in physical education.

Joel Montgomery was chosen to serve as vice-president of the sophomore class. His future plans are to study law at the University of Missouri.

Secretary of the sophomore class was Jackie Kelly. She also held membership in Spanish club and Pep club. Jackie was also one of Chrisman's outstanding tennis players. To go to the University of Kansas and enter some medical profession is her ambition.

Holding the office of treasurer was Janice MacPherson. She was also a member of student council and participated in girls' choir and an ensemble. Future plans for learning are a year's study at Graceland college and then training at the Independence Sanitarium for a nursing career.

Class of '64

Susie Phillips, Margie Winebrenner, Peggy Lynch and Steve Fadler are on their way to the office to select the senior ring style for the class of '64. As class officers they work together to further the best interests of their class.

Serving as president of the junior class is Steve Fadler who is a member of the debate squad, National Forensic league, student council and French club. He is also president of French club. After graduation Steve will enter Westminster college to major in science and engineering. His master's degree will be earned at Kansas State university.

Vice-president of the junior class is Susie Phillips whose activities include Pep club, Future Teachers and a cappella choir. She plans to attend Oklahoma Baptist university to major in music.

Secretary Peggy Lynch participates in Pep club, student council and National Art honor society. She has not definitely decided what college she will attend or her major subject.

Margie Winebrenner, treasurer of the junior class, is active in High School Red Cross. She works in the office first hour. After graduation Margie plans to attend a business college in Kansas City to train as a secretary, her chosen profession.

Linda Hill, Lonnie Billard, Shirley DeLong and Bertha Cox stop for a visit in the front hall before school. Visiting in the hall each morning provides enjoyment for all students.

It seems Denny Bryant over slept so Mike Miller, Lionel Robinson and Terry Keeton help him prepare for class.

Linda Lincicome

Linda Lincicome, a senior, came to Chrisman from Northeast high school in November. It was too late to have her picture with the senior section so it is placed on this autograph page.

Cheryl Hutcheson, Judy Sharp, Mike Chappelow and Ken Starr discuss plans for various activities during the school year.

Friendships acquired will remain

Serving as president for the 1963 school year is Ken Starr. He is also the secretary-treasurer of "C" club and co-captain of the football team. His favorite subject is advanced biology. He is undecided about what college to attend, but he is going into the field of biology.

Vice-president is Mike Chappelow. He is a member of the National Honor society and "C" club. He loves sports and is on the football and track teams. His favorite subject is psychology. After finishing high school, he is going to major in architectural engineering at the University of Missouri.

Cheryl Hutcheson was chosen as secretary. She is in the Science club, As-You-Like-It dramatic society, student council and serving as treasurer of Pep club. Her favorite subject is English IV. She plans to attend the University of Missouri after graduation.

Treasurer of the 1963 class is Judy Sharp. She is a member of the Gleam staff, a member of National Art honor society, chairman of the Beartown committee of student council and serves as parliamentarian-chaplain of the Shakespearean literary society. Her favorite hobby is collecting all kinds of money. Her favorite subject is Art III. She plans to be a dental assistant or commercial artist.

Posters attract much attention in the halls. Garland Rimmer and Lebert Alley are probably going to buy subscriptions right away.

Mary Gayle Hughes watches Anita Kenley as she tries to get one of her many books out of her locker.

Departments play the biggest and most essential role in school life. Here is the actual existence of learning in school. Divided over a period of four years, classroom participation increases knowledge. Learning is a long procedure, one which never ends. In these classes one may gain diversified information. His chosen courses will teach him more and more of what life is about.

Diligence in study is well founded. To lead a successful life one must know how to meet many situations. These classes give him the fundamental knowledge which is used every day in speaking, writing and working.

Major Charles West teaches map reading to cadets. He was introducing the unit to juniors and seniors.

The Junior Division ROTC has as its mission to provide basic military training that will be of value to the cadet should he become a member of the military service.

The objectives of ROTC are to inculcate habits of orderliness and precision, to instill discipline and thereby respect for constituted authority, to develop patriotism, to encourage a high sense of personal honor and deportment, to develop an appreciation of the U.S. Army's role in national defense, to fully inform all students of the opportunities for service therein and to develop leadership.

Strict adherence to the prerequisite that all cadet officers have and maintain an "M" grade average in all courses is enforced. This is used as a lever to encourage higher academic standards and to appoint well rounded cadets as officers. In addition to academic ability, requirements for appointment as non-commissioned officers include demonstrated ability in leadership, drill, bearing and general military knowledge.

The Pathfinders consists of the best drilled ROTC cadets who volunteer and practice regularly each week. Strict adherence to command and regulation drill as well as exhibition drill are stressed. The Pathfinders compete annually in a state drill meet at the University of Missouri in late spring.

The ROTC Rifle Team, in a series of shoulder to shoulder matches with seven high schools of Kansas City, lost only two, both by a small margin. The team beat each Kansas City school at least once.

The annual military ball was held April 26, 1963.

Members of the sociology classes of Mrs. Doris Ream prepare notebooks and study magazines as part of their semester work. Psychology, contemporary issues, economics and sociology are offered to students in the social science department, as well as the usual study of citizenship and American and world history.

Division II mathematics students answer oral review questions in Algebra I class. Algebra I, general mathematics and geometry are offered to freshman and sophomore students.

The art department offers four years of related study in its field. Freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors develop artistic ability as well as fulfilling the fine arts credit requirement for graduation.

Diversification of student education

Shop boys learn to use tools and machines properly. Their work is exemplified in the many finely crafted items that are produced yearly. The best of these are shown in the display cases in Chrisman's halls.

Above Left: Laboratory books and proper materials lead to new discoveries by these young chemists. General science, biology, chemistry and physics classes compose the science department.

is the goal of various departments

This typical scene of an American history class shows the interest and incentive found in the classes of the various departments of William Chrisman. Seventy units of credit are offered in Chrisman's curriculum this year. Additional units are being added for next year's enrollees.

This picture shows the boys in the living room of the East building enjoying their leisure time. They read newspapers, magazines or books, watch television or play games. Basketball practice is an important phase of their leisure. Ralph Williams, David Kasselhute, Terry Perrin, Rendell Crabtree, Dennis and Ronald Yancey and Larry Timion engage in these leisure activities.

Joyce Henson and Marian McCormick prepare the junior class and activities sections of the '63 Glean.

Portia Murray, Sally Fullerton, and Sally Thurman work on the introductory, sophomore and department sections.

Publications I trains junior students in the details of producing a yearbook. The senior students of publications II produce the 260 page Glean and supplement.

Journalism I educates junior students in the art of editing a bi-weekly newspaper. Journalism II students are employed at producing the school paper, the Envoy, during their senior year.

This year the Chrisman publications department hosted the Eleventh Annual Jackson County Publication Workshop. Eleven Chrismanites placed. The following won firsts: Carole Miner, Margaret Anderson, Valerie Williams, Judy Sharp, Bill Farmer, Janet Russell, Portia Murray, Suzanne Hettick and Bobby Deister. Marion McCormick and Preston Cain won second and third respectively.

The annual publications banquet concluded the activities of the publications department. At this time senior staff members receive recognition.

Varsity and novice debaters this year are quickly becoming acquainted with such terms as, "quota," "balance of payments," "multilateral," "wage increases," "solidify," "bilateral" and so on. These terms are frequently found while students are preparing and debating the 1963 debate proposition, "Resolved: that the United States should adopt a policy of reciprocal free trade with the non-communist nations." Negative and affirmative cases are prepared under the guidance of Miss Margaret Meredith.

At the end of the first semester attention is turned to the individual events. These include dramatic and humorous interpretation, nonoriginal and original oratory, duet-acting and extemporaneous speaking.

All activities have one common goal, to win at the state contest and represent Chrisman at the National Debate Tournament.

A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops.

Henry Brooks Adams

The influence of the faculty and the administrators upon the lives of the students extends beyond the school year. The examples set throughout the four years of high school make a deep and lasting impression, favorable or unfavorable, in the mind of each individual.

A teacher can never tell which facet of his personality will affect any one of his students. The educational staff sets and helps students achieve many standards and goals during the course of one school year. Scholastic, athletic and social aspects are organized and supervised by the administration in order to strengthen the character of each individual.

Administration

The repairing of a faulty locker brings Mr. George Davenport and Mr. Don Barham to the scene. This is a frequent sight in the halls at division I.

Starting the day by looking in their mailboxes for such items as the daily bulletin, mail, notices of telephone calls and other important material are Dr. M. O. Johnson, Mr. John Henderson and Mr. Glin Green.

The administration offers services

Arriving at school early gives teachers an opportunity to converse with one another before the school hours begin. Enjoying these few minutes are Miss Sarah Ellen Campbell, Miss Margaret Meredith, Mrs. Nelvada Dean, Miss Ellis Clement and Mrs. Mary F. Williams.

The faculty lounge is used throughout the day during conference periods for grading papers, reading current material or just for a break. Using these facilities are Mr. Tom Herrick, Mr. Lynn Burris, Mrs. Mabel Whitehurst and Mr. Kenneth Cline.

other than classroom education

Mrs. Sherry Gonzales sorts the mail for the teachers' boxes. This is just one of the many helpful deeds she performs for the faculty.

One hundred thirty-two teachers and administrators make up the William Chrisman high school faculty. Even though they are housed in three buildings with half the freshman teachers at Palmer junior high school, half the freshman and all the sophomore teachers at William Chrisman division II and all junior and senior teachers at William Chrisman division I, their goal of educating the 3000 students was one.

These teachers have all earned baccalaureate degrees; many have received masters degrees; and a few have been awarded doctors degrees. All have accumulated additional hours as each teacher studies for at least five additional hours every five years.

Several teachers sponsor curricular or honor groups or extra-curricular groups.

Administrators effect overall plans

Superintendent

Dr. Guy Carter became superintendent of the Independence school system July 1, 1962. He came to Independence at the beginning of the 1954-1955 school year as administrative assistant and had served in that capacity until July 1.

Dr. Carter received his baccalaureate degree from Southwest Missouri state college in Springfield. He received both a Master's and Doctor's degree from the University of Missouri. The doctorate was in public school administration.

His early experience included being a high school classroom teacher and coach. He served as superintendent of schools at Mansfield, Missouri.

Moving to the position of director of personnel when Dr. Carter became superintendent was Joseph F. Benson, principal of William Chrisman high school since 1952. He received his early education in the public schools of Independence as he was born and reared here.

Mr. Benson received his Bachelor of Science degree from Maryville state college and his Master's degree from the University of Missouri. He has done further graduate study at the University of Missouri. His past experience included being a classroom teacher, a coach and principal in the Sedalia school system.

Emory C. Parks, director of instruction since 1959, came to the Independence school system in 1951. During this time he has served as junior high counselor, director of guidance services, vice-principal at William Chrisman division II, principal of Ott secondary school and principal of William Chrisman division II.

Mr. Parks was born in Parksley, Virginia; he received his elementary and high school education there. His Bachelor of Science and Master of Science degrees in education were earned at Central Missouri state college in Warrensburg. He has continued his graduate study at the University of Kansas.

Coming to the Independence school system in 1955, LeRoy Brown, new principal of division II, taught science in junior high school for one year and one semester. He then became vice-principal of Ott secondary school. This position eventually evolved into vice-principal of William Chrisman division II. After five and one half years as vice-principal Mr. Brown moved to the position of principal. His previous experience was two years teaching at the Santa Fe high school, Waverly, Missouri.

Mr. Brown was born and reared in Green Ridge, Missouri, receiving his elementary and high school education here. He graduated from Central Missouri state college with a Bachelor of Science in education degree. His graduate degree, Master of Arts, was earned at the University of Kansas City.

LeRoy Brown
Principal, Division II

Keith Bench
Vice-Principal, Division II

Joining the staff of the Independence schools in 1961 as an elementary principal, Keith Bench became the new vice-principal of William Chrisman division II when LeRoy Brown moved to the position of principal. From 1958 to 1961 Mr. Bench was principal of the Carrollton elementary schools. His previous experience included being a high school principal and teaching junior high mathematics.

A native of Lanton, Missouri, Mr. Bench attended the Brandsville elementary school, graduated from the Koshkonong high school in 1946 and did a tour of duty with the navy 1946-1950. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree from the Arkansas state college and a Master of Education degree from the University of Missouri.

Edward Shelton
Principal, Division I

His sixth year in the Independence school system marked Edward Shelton's first year as principal of division I. For the past three years he had been principal of division II; the other two years were spent as principal of junior high. Before coming to Independence he was principal of the Caruthersville high school and principal and teacher in an Iowa school.

Mr. Shelton graduated from the Quitman, Missouri high school; he did his undergraduate study at Northwest Missouri state college and received a Bachelor of Science degree with majors in business administration and mathematics. His graduate degree, Master of Education, was conferred by the University of Colorado after he had completed his graduate study with a major in administration and supervision. He has also studied at the University of Southern California.

William Burlingame
Vice-Principal, Division I

William Burlingame, vice-principal division I, received his elementary and high school education in Warrensburg, Missouri. After graduating from the college high school he attended Central Missouri state college and received a Bachelor of Science degree in physics. His graduate study was done at the University of Kansas where he was awarded a Master of Science degree in secondary school administration.

Mr. Burlingame came to the Independence school system in 1955 to teach mathematics in junior high for one year. He then taught mathematics for four years at division I before becoming vice-principal in 1961. Before he came to Independence, Mr. Burlingame had taught mathematics in the Sedalia high school. He had also taught one year at Russellville, Missouri, and served as district manager of the DX oil company for two years.

Mrs. Floyd Synder Sr. who had been a member and president of the board for many years resigned as she moved from the district. She was replaced by Mrs. Tom Buckley. Members of the board of education meet in regular session Tuesday evening, September 11, to consider the salient problems for the beginning of the 1962-1963 school year. Seated around the table are Donald Slusher, member; Harold Smith, president; J. Everett McCluhan, vice-president; George Berkemier, member; Mrs. Tom Buckley, member; and Mrs. Frank Baldus, member.

Board of Education

Harold Smith
President

Elected by the qualified voters of the Independence School district, the six members of the board of education act as the general agent of the state in carrying out the will of the people of the district in the matter of public education. Two members are elected each year.

The board has three functional duties: policy making, executive and appraisal. Year by year the functions of the school grow more complex. Greater responsibilities are placed upon those entrusted with the education of youth. It is the desire of the board that it might always be responsive to the educational needs of the school district.

The goals of the board of education for the current school year are improvement of instructional program, adequate housing, adequate salaries for all personnel and interpretation of school needs to the public.

Parent Teacher Association

Mrs. Elmer G. Shults
President

More parents and teachers as active and participating members has been the goal of the William Chrisman parent-teacher association for the 1962-1963 school year. This goal would aid the students in having happy moments to remember.

Back-to-School night was observed the evening of October 4 at division I, October 9 at Palmer junior high and October 11 at division II. Almost 1000 parents went through their child's regular schedule.

The December 4 meeting was known as College Night when many parents and students met and heard representatives from more than 30 outstanding colleges. February 7 was Trades Night so that parents and students interested in a trade could gain first hand knowledge concerning many trades. The last meeting was held in April.

These serve safely and cheerfully

Forty bus drivers guide the busses which transport the students of the Independence schools each day. Sixty-five per cent of the drivers are women. Many of them have been driving nine or ten years. A driver's work begins at 7:10 a.m. and ends at 4:25 p.m. This is part time work, however.

These men and women must possess patience, understanding, courage, a sense of humor and a love of young people. Of course, to be qualified for the position, they must be careful drivers to provide for the safety of their passengers.

Their continuous motto or slogan is "the students must get to school" in all kinds of weather — and they must be ready to take them home early in the event of snowstorms. Bus drivers also take students to football and basketball games, on field trips, to workshops and all other school-sponsored events.

About 2000 students eat in the three cafeterias for the students of William Chrisman high school. The lunches are of two types — a plate lunch and a la carte. Chrisman division I cafeteria also has a snack bar.

Many of the women working in the cafeteria are mothers who are especially interested in children and who receive real enjoyment from doing this work which they feel is rendering a real service.

Mrs. Lois Bridges, manager of the division I cafeteria, has 15 women helping serve 650-750 persons each day. Mrs. Verna Graham, manager of the division II cafeteria, is aided by 15 women, five of whom start preparing the food at 7:30 a.m. Mrs. NeLeta Smith's, manager of Palmer junior high cafeteria, help includes five full time and 11 part time workers. Some of these begin preparing food for the five different periods of serving at 7:00 a.m.

Betty Elliott cleans tables in the cafeteria, division I, after the students have eaten their lunch.

Mrs. Francis Peterson is serving her second year as matron for the girls' restrooms at division I. She enjoys a cup of coffee as a respite from her duties.

Mrs. Ruth Graham is at the snack bar, division I, each day to sell malts, potato chips, milk, orange drink, fritos or ice cream to those students who do not go through the lunch line.

Custodians work round the clock

Palmer junior high school custodians are ready to clean the rooms and halls in order that all will be in readiness for the beginning of a new day. They are George Stewart, Calvin Ragland, Clarence Petersen, Lawrence Slusher and James Hart.

Custodians in all the buildings are friends of teachers and students. They are ready and willing to help all who need their services.

Consummates in effective leadership

Providing an opportunity for the development of good citizenship and intelligent leadership, promoting closer relationship between faculty and students, helping improve school conditions by increasing school spirit and scholarship and serving as an advisory body for students is the purpose of the division II student council.

Any student enrolled in division II with a scholastic average of "M" is eligible for membership. One representative and one alternate are elected from each homeroom by students in that homeroom.

Their two major projects were supplying Christmas baskets for the needy and having a spring tea for the faculty, decorating display cases in the halls, advertising games and social affairs, holding all elections needed, presenting assemblies to the student body and raising money to finance their various projects were the major activities of the council.

The officers were president, Stephen Philson; vice-president, Martha Taylor; secretary, Vickie Digby; treasurer, D'Ann Perkins; parliamentarian, Linda Van Kirk; sponsor, Mrs. Pallas Cockefair.

Officers D. Perkins, V. Digby, N. Nichols, L. Van Kirk, M. Taylor and S. Philson plan their next regular session in an informal meeting.

Representatives lead Palmer freshmen

Being a part of the Palmer freshman student council is a busy and important job.

To become a member of the council one must maintain an "M" average, be elected by his homeroom as a representative or an alternate and attend all the regular meetings.

The purpose of the student council is to provide an opportunity for the development of good citizenship, intelligent leaders and to promote closer relations between faculty and students. Student council also helps increase school spirit and to serve as an advisory body for the students.

Presiding officers of the Palmer freshman student council are president, Bill Luther; vice-president; Bob Hansen; secretary-treasurer, Debby Hatch; parliamentarian, Jan Stites; sponsor, Mrs. Rosemary Boetjer.

Jan Stites, Bob Hansen, Bill Luther and Debby Hatch meet in the junior high library to develop some projects for the Palmer freshmen.

Having the ability to speak a different language has its rewards for any one taking a language at William Chrisman. To have fun in a different language other than their own is the purpose of the division II Spanish club, sponsored by Mrs. Mary Clements.

If a student is enrolled in Spanish I or Spanish II with an "E" or "S" average, he is eligible for membership.

The activities for the year that were very much enjoyed were the Guadalupe dinner and an ice-skating party, attended by most of the members. The club had a successful cookie sale which has been its major project.

Supplies extra-classroom dividends

French club provides social activities and opportunities for students interested in French activities outside of the usual classroom routine. One of the interesting things members did this year was having a Christmas party in which a three-course French dinner was served. At one regular meeting French cheese was served; at another pate' de foie gras. The "April in Paris" dance was a fund-raising project for the club.

Further interest in Latin and Romans

Latin club this year adopted the title "SPQR" which stands for "The Senate and the Roman People."

Although Latin is not a spoken language, SPQR is not without a purpose. They strive to further an active interest in and knowledge of the Latin language and those who used it.

The club chose the second Thursday of every month for their regular meeting time. Programs were planned by standing committees. Often these commemorated various Roman holidays.

Membership is open to any student who has taken two years of Latin or is taking Latin II. Dues are fifty cents per year.

Bring international activities near

William Chrisman high school division I Red Cross is composed of students interested in bringing international activities into the high school and in promoting this relationship with students here and abroad. Activities for the year included an annual picnic and making a picture album for a foreign country. This year they won second place for beauty with their Halloween float.

Major projects were the Halloween parade float, preparing Christmas stockings for Veteran's hospitals, a dance January 26 and the annual membership drive.

Officers of the club are president, Pamela Grubb; vice-president, Gloria Bain; secretary-treasurer, Nancy Sanders; and parliamentarian-reporter, Roberta Coffel. Mrs. Doris E. Ream is the sponsor.

Serve others in home and community

To become a member of High School Red Cross at division II one must have an "M" or above in grade average, a willingness to work and attend all meetings.

Being a member of Red Cross gives students the opportunity to plan and to work. Members have a chance to serve others as volunteers in the home and community. High School Red Cross promotes understanding and friendship in the world community.

Members have participated in many planned activities for this year. Representatives were sent to Unity Training Center. While some worked at bake sales, concession stands, assemblies and the Red Cross dance, others collected Pepsi bottle caps to help finance a chest. Red Cross members made tray favors for veterans for the holidays and compiled groups of short stories to be sent to different hospitals.

Projects for the '62 and '63 year were the filling of a Christmas stocking, filling a high school chest for a disaster area, annual enrollment drive and a talent assembly to be taken to the Veterans' hospital as entertainment.

Every year one school is chosen by the Red Cross to distribute the Christmas stockings in the Kansas City Veterans' hospital. This year William Chrisman division II was chosen. Fifteen volunteers were dismissed from school December 20.

Officers are president, Marjory Stark; vice-president, Pam Fraley; secretary, Jo Lynn Mudd; treasurer, Dale Weddle; sponsor, Mrs. Wilma Upton; co-sponsor, Miss Judith Hackerott.

Dale Weddle, Pam Fraley, Tom Wesner, Jo Lynn Mudd and Marjory Stark examine High School Red Cross Journals in order to inform club members of the many interesting projects in which they may work during the school term.

A representative and alternate are elected in each homeroom to serve as members of the Palmer freshman high school Red Cross which is to acquaint the students with the purposes and activities of the American Red Cross.

The president and an executive board member, Mike Ethington, attended the workshop at Unity village in October. They reported their experiences to the club. Other projects include the filling of the Christmas stockings to be distributed to the Veterans' hospitals. Each homeroom was responsible for at least one stocking.

Officers were president, Kevin Northcraft; vice-president, Barbara Smith; secretary, Pam Mullins; treasurer, Enrique Castillo; and parliamentarian, Pam Reneau. Mrs. Mabel Day is the sponsor.

Holding a Christmas stocking which was filled for someone in a veterans' hospital in the Kansas City area are Enrique Castillo, Pam Mullins and Pam Reneau. Hundreds of these stockings were filled for veterans.

Evokes interest in business practices

To elevate the status of its members and to advance their interests in the business world is the dual purpose of the Commercial club. Requirements for membership are maintaining average grades and being enrolled in a commercial course at the time of filing an application for membership.

Initiation of new members, a Christmas party December 6, speakers from the business world and field trips to various businesses comprised the activities for the year. Their major project was the purchase of special equipment to be used in the commercial department.

President, Charles Townley; vice-president, Kathryn Stowell; secretary, Princess Pine; treasurer, Linda Markley; and reporter, Margaret Anderson were the officers for the 1962-63 school year. Miss Jessie Page is the sponsor.

Commercial club officers encourage Margaret Anderson as she types. They are Princess Pine, Kathryn Stowell, Charles Townley and Linda Markley.

Athletic clubs promote enthusiasm

Making preparations for the annual "C" club dance are Doug Craig, Bill Schwenk, Cal McDole, Mike Chappelow, Ken Starr and Larry Robinson.

To foster and promote better school relationship among athletes, students and faculty of William Chrisman high school is the purpose of "C" club. Any one who has lettered in varsity football, basketball, track, baseball, golf or tennis is eligible for membership.

The club sponsors an annual "C" club dance to which all students are invited and presents a highlight of the year by playing a Faculty-"C" club basketball game at the end of the basketball season. Sometime during the summer the club holds a picnic for former Chrisman athletes.

The officers this year are president, Dick Agee; vice-president, Paul Shumaker; secretary-treasurer, Ken Starr; and sergeant-at-arms, Tom Evers. Coaches Norman James, Dick Buckridge and Ronald Bruch are the club sponsors.

Participating in sportsdays at different schools, planning their own volleyball sportsday held in March, enjoying their senior banquet in May and their annual outing to the Ozarks in July were some of the outstanding projects of "M" club. They won first place at the Atchison Kansas, volleyball sportsday.

"M" club's purpose is to promote better athletic ability, sportsmanship and good fellowship between girls. The requisites for membership are maintaining an "M" grade average with an "E" in physical education, becoming members of three class teams and passing rigid skill requirements totalling 1000 points.

Purchasing a bear costume was this years major project. Members held monthly socials which included a Halloween party, a Christmas party and a drive-in movie.

Officers were president, Donna LaGreece; vice-president and reporter, Marian McCormick; secretary-treasurer, Gayle Andes; sponsor, Miss Billie Wilson.

Senior "M" club girls donate one hour each day to assist Miss Billie Wilson in gym classes. Student assistants this year are C. Wassem, L. Koehly, J. Shields, D. LaGreece, S. Piercy, R. Mosley, G. Andes, M. McCormick.

COE club promotes social activities,

COE club officers include Jim Hornbuckle, Frank Agan, Leslie Morris, Sharon Miles, Carol Sackman and Tom Hart who proudly display their national COE club emblem.

The Cooperative Occupational Education club of William Chrisman high school promotes leadership, social activities and school and community participation by students in part-time cooperative programs.

A member must be enrolled in Cooperative Occupational Education. In fact all students enrolled in the program are members of COE.

Club members attend district and state COE club meetings and contests. They sponsor an employer-employee dinner in the spring and make a club or school contribution.

Activities for the year are skating parties, picnics, work and money raising concessions and participation with other COE clubs in district and state contests.

Points out value of teaching career

Future Teachers of America award each year to one of their members entering teacher training program a $300 scholarship loan. FTA strives in their meetings to increase knowledge about the teaching profession and to point out its benefits as a career.

Among their activities this year were a trip to the Missouri State Teachers Association in November, practice teaching at various schools in April, observation week at Ott school in October and regular monthly meetings.

Anyone with a genuine interest in the field of education is eligible for membership in the Future Teachers of America.

Officers selected for the year were president, Sherry O'Dell; vice-president, Nola Jean Long; secretary, Laura Heinlen; treasurer, Venie Koehly; reporter, Linda Johnson; sponsor, Mrs. Florence Brush.

Studying an article in the School and Community, monthly publication of the Missouri State Teachers Association, are Linda Johnson, Laura Heinlen, Sherry O'Dell and Nola Jean Long.

Office assistants at division I stand at the counter at the beginning of the school year to learn how they can help. They are Doris Heflin, Nola Jean Long, Bill Walls, Mike

Miller, Terry Richards, Margie Winebrenner, Donna Beale, Judy Coleman, Sue Downs, Carol Birdwell and Lance Chandler.

Lend assistance to office secretaries

Secretaries and clerks in the offices are busy with their many and varied duties. They would not have time to do many things which come as requests by phone or from teachers so they enlist student help.

This aid comes from student assistants who are individuals with study halls and who are willing to volunteer their services one hour each day to work in the office. These helpers collect attendance cards, deliver messages, run errands, file attendance slips, sort and place attendance cards in the teachers' boxes and perform any minor duty to help facilitate the work of the offices.

These students do their good deed for the day every day as they serve administrative personnel, faculty and students. Not only do they serve, but they learn to accept responsibility and to discharge duties promptly and carefully. It is a most valuable experience in their high school career.

Lead divison II in school spirit

Any freshman girl regularly enrolled in William Chrisman high school is eligible for membership in the Pep club if she maintains an "M" grade average, will attend all home games and possesses a high moral and conduct record.

The purpose of the club is to support the team and the cheerleaders and to lead the student body in school spirit. The girls attended all home football and basketball games and one basketball game away from home.

They chose as their officers president, Debbie Hatch; vice-president, Susie Boetger; secretary, Beverly Skouse; treasurer, Sherrin Soper; sponsors, Mrs. Margaret Reiff and Mrs. Verna King.

Supporting all the athletic teams and sports activities of the school and instilling the fundamentals of good sportsmanship in all spectator participation is the twofold purpose of the William Chrisman Pep club.

Any girl regularly enrolled in William Chrisman high school with an "M" grade average or better is qualified for membership. The girls applying for membership must first be approved by the faculty. Their names are then submitted to their classmates for acceptance or rejection.

The principal activity of the club is attending all the games and supporting the team with appropriate cheers. In the spring a tea is held for the members. A picnic for the initiates who are chosen near the close of the school year is also held in the spring.

Pep club has many projects and duties to fulfill during the year. Magazine subscriptions are sold be-

Gain knowledge by scientific research

Tim Doty is holding a geiger counter which is checking the radio-activity of the specimen as Sharon Crawford, Bobbie Deister and Frances Vineyard observe.

Division I Science club's purpose is to permit high ability students interested in science to further their knowledge through scientific study and research. To become a member, a student must have or have had science other than general science, mathematics other than general mathematics, an "M" grade average in all subjects with an "S" average in all science courses.

Members hear guest speakers in all areas of science, learn new scientific discoveries, take field trips to scientific industries and scientific areas of interest as Linda Hall Science library. They participate in projects which they have decided upon. These usually involve some specific area of special interest to active members. They also assist with the Independence Science Fair as the student committee.

First semester officers were president, Tim Doty; vice-president, Sharon Crawford; secretary-reporter, Frances Vineyard; treasurer, Bobbie Deister. Second semester officers are president, Tim Doty; vice-president, Terri Zander; secretary-reporter, Laura Smith; treasurer, Linda Stoutimore. The sponsors are Miss Oneida Beeman and Miss Ellis Clement.

The purpose of the Science club of division II is to advance interest in their school and to afford added opportunities for educational development in the fields of science. In order to be a member of Science club one must have had or be taking one year of science.

The club takes interesting field trips to places pertaining to science. They have developed many science projects and hear qualified speakers on the wide field of science. They are careful to study both recent and past developments in science.

Officers of Science club at division II are president, Cheryl Starr; vice-president, Jo Ann Miller; secretary, Roberta Simpon; treasurer, Ed Rice; parliamentarian, Richard Holloway; reporter, Barbara Ridler; and sponsors, Miss Gladys Evans, Mr. Jerry Dinsmore and Mr. Merl Shafer.

Jo Ann Miller, Richard Holloway, Cheryl Starr and Roberta Simpson study a chart of nuclear products which are of intensive interest to them. They are anticipating what progress will be made during the next 20 years.

Mrs. Mayme Piper, librarian, reads the morning paper before school. Soon students will come into the library and her day's work will begin. Mrs. Piper will retire at the close of this school year.

Assistants acquaint themselves with library materials so they can help others successfully.

Chrisman I library has added more shelving and 562 more books within this last year. Books are well chosen by the teachers of each department and the librarian. The students are impressed by the usable quality of the books which more than offsets the lack of quantity.

A percent of the budget goes for forty-eight magazines which are a part of the current information at the disposal of the students. The magazines which are shelved for three years and with the aid of the "Readers Guide" supplement timely reading material.

Six students give an hour each day to work in the library. They sign permits, check out and shelve books and assist students in locating library books and materials. Beverly Cole is studying librarianship in her COE classes. She works three and one-half hours a day as a clerk and assistant librarian.

Mrs. Mayme Piper, the librarian, appreciates the assistance of the dependable, loyal students and the cooperation of the faculty members, who help to make the library a quiet efficient study room for the students of Chrisman high school.

This boy uses the "Readers' Guide" to assist him in finding research material.

To keep the library neat, clean, orderly and attractive, to keep the books arranged properly, repaired and to help students with their needs have been the major projects of the division II Library club this year.

Providing a clearing house for library problems, keeping the library decorated appropriately and providing some fun along with work are the purposes of the club. A decorating party for each month and a Christmas party December 19 were included in the activities of the year.

A student is eligible for membership if he is a library assistant. John Tyson and Mike Gordon are the only male members of the club as well as second-year assistants.

1962-1963 officers were president, Dee Ann Vance; vice-president, Sharon Kendrick; secretary, Shirley Cornell. The sponsor is the librarian, Miss Grace Pulliam.

Activities and projects of the As-You-Like-It Dramatic society have been participation in all-society coke party for new pledges, formal initiation of new members, Mother-Daughter tea, Father-Daughter banquet, all SHAN activities, working at cerebral palsy center and senior banquet.

The society won the SHAN trophy for literary pieces submitted before the Christmas dance. Since they had won this trophy for the past three consecutive years, it became theirs permanently.

The purpose of the club is to build a lasting friendship by working with one another and helping others. To become a member of the society a girl must be a junior or senior, maintain an "M+" or higher grade average, and submit an original literary selection to be judged by a faculty member.

Officers for the year were President, Judy Gosney; vice-president, Karen Huhn; secretary, Teri Zander; treasurer, Sharon Crawford; parliamentarian, Margie Cates; reporter, Sally Fullerton. Mrs. Phyllis Moore is the sponsor.

Nautilus Literary Society

With only two hold over members this has been an unusual year for Nautilus Literary society. Their chief endeavor has been renewing and restoring a better society.

Nautilus is a literary and social organization. Comprising the requirements for membership are contributing an acceptable original literary selection, maintaining an "M+" grade average and possessing a pleasing personality.

New members were received at a formal initiation. Programs included speakers on literary topics, and attending a theatrical production in Kansas City.

Officers for the current year are president, Johnita Cash; vice-president, Muriel Mowder; secretary, Linda Stoutimore, treasurer, Laura Smith; parliamentarian, Kathy Gorrell.

Mrs. Barbara Eichhorn is the sponsor.

Members of the Nautilus Literary society discuss future activities as they sign their names on the list for Glean identification. They had just been photographed for the Glean.

To become a member of Shakespearean Literary Society a girl must maintain an "M+" grade average write an acceptable poem, essay or short story or give a creditable speech selection, participate in school activities and be approved by a society-faculty committee.

Shakespeareans cooperate with SHAN to coordinate activities of the societies and to sponsor the Christmas and spring dances. They often sponsor a project of benefit to the community. Bottle caps were collected as a money raising project. They ordered pins, lavaliers or rings with society insignia.

Their formal initiation was held in the Little Theater January 16. The scripture was read by Judy Sharp. Janet Sifford played a flute solo. Each initiate took the pledge by kneeling before a lighted candle.

First semester officers were president, Karen Crenshaw; vice-president, Sue Clements; secretary, Janne Russell; treasurer, Gloria Bain; parliamentarian-chaplain, Judy Sharp; reporter, Stephanie Gillum.

Second semester officers are president, Sue Clements; vice-president, Bea Johnson; secretary, Ruth Robinson; treasurer, Janne Russell; reporter-historian, Carol Salyer; parliamentarian-chaplain, Donna Skouse.

The sponsor is Mrs. Vida Kraus.

"Bottle caps are as good as money!" So say the members of the Shakespearean Literary society in the campaign to save as many caps as possible before the end of the year. Counting the "donations" are Sue Clements, Karen Crenshaw, Stephanie Gillum, Judy Sharp and Gloria Bain.

Coordinates activities of societies

Coordinating the activities of the three societies at Chrisman is the principal function of SHAN. Four members: two seniors, one junior and each society president constitute the membership.

Enterprises of the year included the annual literary contest, the Christmas dance and the spring dance. Both dances were semiformal.

As-You-Like-It Dramatic society became the permanent owner of the trophy, awarded to the society accumulating the most points in the annual literary contest, as they received it for the third consecutive year.

In dramatic readings Felicia Soper, Shakespearean, won first place; Sue Clements, Shakespearean, second; Margie Cates, As You, third.

Karen Heckman, As You, earned first in the short story division; Linda Sutton, As You, second; Kathi McConnell, Shakespearean, third.

Elaine Carpender, As You, was awarded first place in the essay section; Valerie Williams, Shakespearean, second; Louise Cullen, As You, third.

First place in writing poetry was captured by Teri Zander, As You; La Veta Guffey, Shakespearean, second; Bertha Cox, As You, third.

Officers are president, Judy Gosney; secretary-treasurer, Karen Crenshaw.

Working on the decorations and clean up committees for the annual Christmas SHAN are Marsha Moore (Nautilus), Karen Link (As You), Laura Smith (Nautilus), and Karen Crenshaw (Shakespearean).

Furthers knowledge of dramatic arts

Selecting one act plays for the Thespian spring assembly are Larry Chambers, Nola Jean Long, Dick Agee and Stephanie Gillum.

Furthering an interest in and knowledge of the fields of dramatics and the theater arts is the major purpose of National Thespians. Each member must have served a prescribed amount of time working in the area of dramatics before he is accepted by Thespians.

After a Thespian has been initiated as a member, he then works toward gaining further honors within the organization. He does this by participating in Thespian activities and all activities concerning the dramatics department at William Chrisman division I.

Activities and major projects of the year included a coke party for each play cast at division I, help day which was a day of work on stage construction for the junior play, a party following the work day, one act play assembly in the spring, formal initiation twice a year, spring honors banquet to select the year's "Best Thespian" and listening to various lectures on the theater arts.

Officers are president, Nola Jean Long; vice-president, Dick Agee; secretary-treasurer, Stephanie Gillum; reporter, Larry Chambers; and sponsor, Mrs. Linda Pond.

National Forensic League is a national honor society for high school students who excel in speech activities. Producing the annual speech play, hosting the annual Chrisman tournament in December, attending invitational tournaments and presenting speeches at community organizations are examples of the many activities of the society.

To obtain membership, a student must accumulate a total of twenty-five points based on forensic activities outside of regular classroom work. To maintain an active member the student must accumulate at least five points every year.

Serving as officers this year are president, Bill Turner; vice-president, Doug Weber; secretary-treasurer, Lynda Hall; and reporter, Sally Fullerton. Miss Margaret Meredith is the sponsor.

Lynda Hall, Bill Turner, Steve Fadler and Sally Fullerton examine charts and displays used at the Chrisman Invitational debate tournament, one of the largest in the state, which is held annually in December.

Encourages better music practices

Designed to foster a greater interest in musical performance, Modern Music Masters encourages better habits in listening to and performing musical literature. It provides students with more frequent opportunities for personal music expression in the community and for increasing and advancing the spirit of good music.

Tri-M, a national honorary music society, greatly furthers the reputation of the school as a music center. The William Chrisman chapter, 487, was formed in January of 1960.

Membership in Tri-M is based, among other things, on scholarship, leadership, character, co-operation and service. An aspirant for membership must maintain at least an "S" grade average in all music courses, an "M" grade average in all others and must give a solo or duet before a panel of judges.

Activities this year included record listening sessions and attending concerts. A highlight of the club's events was the presentation of a ballet demonstration by Miss Taliana Dokovdovska of the Kansas City Conservatory of Music.

Creates ardor for artistic beauty

To promote school spirit and earn money for their society Kathy Douglas, Judy Ackerman and Sandy Owings print pennants for National Art Honor society.

Chrisman's National Art Honor society has the distinction of being the mother chapter of all art honor societies in the territorial United States.

The purpose of this society is to create enthusiasm for art and art appreciation among the student body by giving due recognition to talented students of the art department: who have excelled in creative work, who have rendered an art service and who have upheld scholarship, character and leadership.

Students desiring membership must maintain an "S" average in art, "M" or above grade in all other subjects, must submit ten pieces of original art work done during the year and must maintain high moral and ethical standards approved by the faculty.

A formal initiation for new members is held in the spring each year. Initiates' art pieces are exhibited at this time too.

Making of Chrisman pennants, making and sending Christmas cards to the other chapters, beautifying school with exhibits and displays and assisting with school projects such as poster making, making program covers and Christmas decorations have been major projects of the society this year.

high ranking seniors and juniors

Thirty-one seniors and thirty-five juniors became the 1963 members of National Honor society February 20 when their names were announced in an assembly. Five per cent of the junior class and ten per cent of the senior class were chosen on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership and service.

The emblem of National Honor society is the keystone and flaming torch. The keystone bears at its base the letters: C,S,L and S which stand for the four cardinal principles of its organization. As the keystone is placed by the builder to hold the perfect arch in perpetual stability, so the structure of education must be held firm and true to the purposes of life by the virtues represented in this symbol.

The keystone symbolizes the high ideals of the society. The flaming torch is the emblem of its purpose. To bear forward the searchlight of truth, to lead that others may follow in the light, to keep burning in Chrisman a high ambition for the enduring values of life and to serve — these purposes are symbolized in the torch.

A formal initiation was held in the spring in a joint ceremony with Quill and Scroll.

Loretta Jones and Frances Vineyard, juniors, become acquainted with the Quill and Scroll magazine under the guidance of Bill Farmer and Portia Murray, senior members. Loretta is a member of Yearbook I class; Frances of Newspaper I class. Bill and Portia were initiated as members their junior year.

Serving as an international honor society for aspiring high school journalists, Quill and Scroll is designed to encourage individual achievement in the field of journalism.

According to the constitution, members of Quill and Scroll must be chosen from the students enrolled in high school who at the time of their election meet the following requirements. (1) They must be of at least junior standing. (2) They must be in the upper third of their class in general scholastic standing at the time of their election. (3) They must have done superior work in some phase of journalistic or creative endeavor. (4) They must be recommended by the adviser or the committee governing publications. (5) They must be approved by the executive secretary.

Activities of Quill and Scroll include a formal initiation which is a joint project with the National Honor society and attendance at the annual publication's banquet which is held April 1.

Officers for 1962-1963 were president, Portia Murray; vice-president, Bill Farmer; secretary-treasurer, Sally Fullerton; sponsor, Miss Sarah Ellen Campbell.

Cora (Cynthia Gillum) the lady wrestler and maid, is trying to subdue the commander as Gadget Hoffenflugel (Danny Groesbeck), Gerry Joyce (Karol Warr), Angy Goetz (Donna Skouse) and Jim Matson (Steve Fadler) look on in surprise.

Upper Right: Helga (Gloria Golden) who is Cora's wrestling partner is teaching Sandra Stone (Betty Palmer) one of her wrestling holds while the Western Union messenger (Jerry Nolan) watches.

Center: Jim is spanking Sandra who is portraying a ten year old brat while his friends applaud his action. Student directors were Bonnie Wikke and Kathi McConnell. The stage manager was Loretta Jones.

The disappearance of Jonathan Farnsworth, wealthy banker, whose body Joe Pendleton now occupies, is discussed in this scene. Jan Sprague (Bette Logan), Merle Epperson (Tony Abbot), Bob Harper (Messenger 7013), Doug Clements (Max Levine), Billie Jo Maples (Julie Farnsworth) and Sue Clements (Mrs. Ames) listen as Steve Fadler, playing Detective Williams, questions the disappearance.

"Heaven Can Wait" is speech play

Above: Tony Abbot (Merle Epperson) and Julie Farnsworth (Billie Jo Maples), who have plotted to kill Mr. Farnsworth, listen innocently as Bette (Jan Sprague) confronts them with evidence.

Right: Joe Pendleton (Bill Turner), a saxophone playing prize fighter, learns from Messenger 7013 (Bob Harper) and Mr. Jordon (Jon Phillips) that he has died twenty years ahead of schedule.

"Mister Jordon, this guy here tells me I'm dead!" is just one of the funny lines in Harry Seefall's "Heaven Can Wait" which was presented in the little theater October 18, 19 and 20 by the speech department.

An overly-ambitious "soul gathering angel" has taken the soul of Joe Pendleton, a professional boxer by mistake, before he is dead. This is further complicated by the fact that Joe's manager has cremated the body. The play centers around Joe's experiences in and out of various bodies.

Bill Turner, Jon Phillips, Bob Bidstrup, Brenda Brown, Doug Clements, Sue Clements, Merle Epperson, Laura Hare, Bob Harper, Bill Henry, Teddy Irving, Steve Fadler, Cal McDole, Billie Jo Maples, Felicia Soper, Jan Sprague, Ron Stites and Terry Thomas performed under the direction of Miss Margaret Meredith, speech teacher.

Jim, the gentleman caller (Bill Turner), comes into the family and shatters their life of the past by bringing them into the present. Here Amanda (Sue Clements) nags Tom (Jon Phillips) as Jim and an uncertain Laura (Jan Sprague) witness the scene.

Jon Phillips portrays the sensitive, withdrawn Tom Wingfield who is driven to escape from a home he hates.

Senior play is "Glass Menagerie"

Right: Amanda Wingfield (Sue Clements), still living in the South and its past glory, drives her son (Jon Phillips) to hate and at the same time stifles Laura (Jan Sprague), her daughter.

Below: The gentleman caller (Bill Turner) brings Laura (Jan Sprague) out of her self-imposed shell in which she continuously plays with her glass menagerie.

"Glass Menagerie" a drama by Tennessee Williams was presented by the senior class December 13, 14 and 15 in the theater-in-the-round. The story centers around the frustrations of life as Amanda Wingfield, the last faded remnant of a southern aristocracy, strives to give meaning and direction to her life and the lives of her son and daughter.

Sue Clements, Jon Phillips, Jan Sprague and Bill Turner portray the four characters. Miss Dorothy Bierbaum, dramatics and English teacher, directed the play with the assistance of student director Felicia Soper.

Winning the sixth Youth Appreciation award in 1962 were seniors, Judy Gosney and Ken Starr. William Burlingame, vice-principal, and the winners admire the plaque on which their names are engraved. This recognition is given by the Independence Optimist club.

The coronation ceremony was held between the B team and varsity team games with Grandview. When the Pep band began playing "I Enjoy Being a Girl," a hush fell over the spectators as the festivity began with sophomore attendant DeAnn Perkins being escorted by Frank Schaffer to her position. Following her was the junior attendant Sharon Krueger escorted by Dave Harris, Larry Robinson escorting the senior attendant, Bea Johnson and Bob Nelson escorting senior attendant, Patti Allen. Natalie Graff's escort, Lowell Miller, ushered her to the throne. He placed the crown on her head and presented her a gold basketball as a memento from the team. The student body saluted Natalie with the traditional cheer for the queen.

Lowell Miller, forward, crowns Natalie Graff as the basketball homecoming queen of '63.

Sally Fullerton, Pep club president, awards Tom Evers the "Mr. School Spirit" honor award and presents him with a pin as further recognition.

Dick Agee, Tom Evers and Herschell Hatley were the three boys nominated by Pep club for Mr. School Spirit. Tom Evers won by obtaining the majority of votes from the student body.

Sports build knowledge, muscles and sportsmanship. Sports in all their various forms: football, basketball, track, baseball, tennis and golf, train individuals to function and work as followers and leaders, players and teams. Competition and the resulting reputation tend to give the players purpose as well as enjoyment in playing the game.

The interest in sports displayed by the students is an indication of school spirit. To gain the most benefit from the efforts put forth it is necessary to play the game well, to be both a good winner and a good loser. Mastery of all phases of the game builds stature.

Bears compile season record of 6-4

William Chrisman's Bears finished an up and down season with a successful 6-4 record. Chrisman opened the season with a mighty victory over Van Horn, 18-0. The following week the Bears traveled to Seda-lia where they knocked off the Smith-Cotton Tigers by a score of 20-6.

Bishop Miege was Chrisman's next opponent. The Stags proved to be too much opposition as they surprised the Bruins 32-14 on the loser's field. On October 5 Chrisman made the homecoming crowd happy by overpowering St. Joseph Benton 19-7.

Disaster struck at North Kansas City as the Hornets rolled over Chrisman 33-0 on the way to winning the Pony Express Conference title. The Bears recuperated in a big way, however, by demolishing the St. Joseph Lafayette Shamrocks by the identical score of 33-0. Perennial Ozark Conference power Springfield Parkview proved to be ungracious guests as they outlasted Chrisman 21-19. The Bruins played their best game of the season in a heartbreaking defeat.

Chrisman gained some solace from the Parkview loss by outplaying Suburban Conference champion Ruskin 13-0 on the Golden Eagles' field. On November 16 Chrisman completed a winning season by running past Center 18-7. This was an especially satisfying win since the Yellowjackets had beaten the Bears two years straight and proven quite a nemesis.

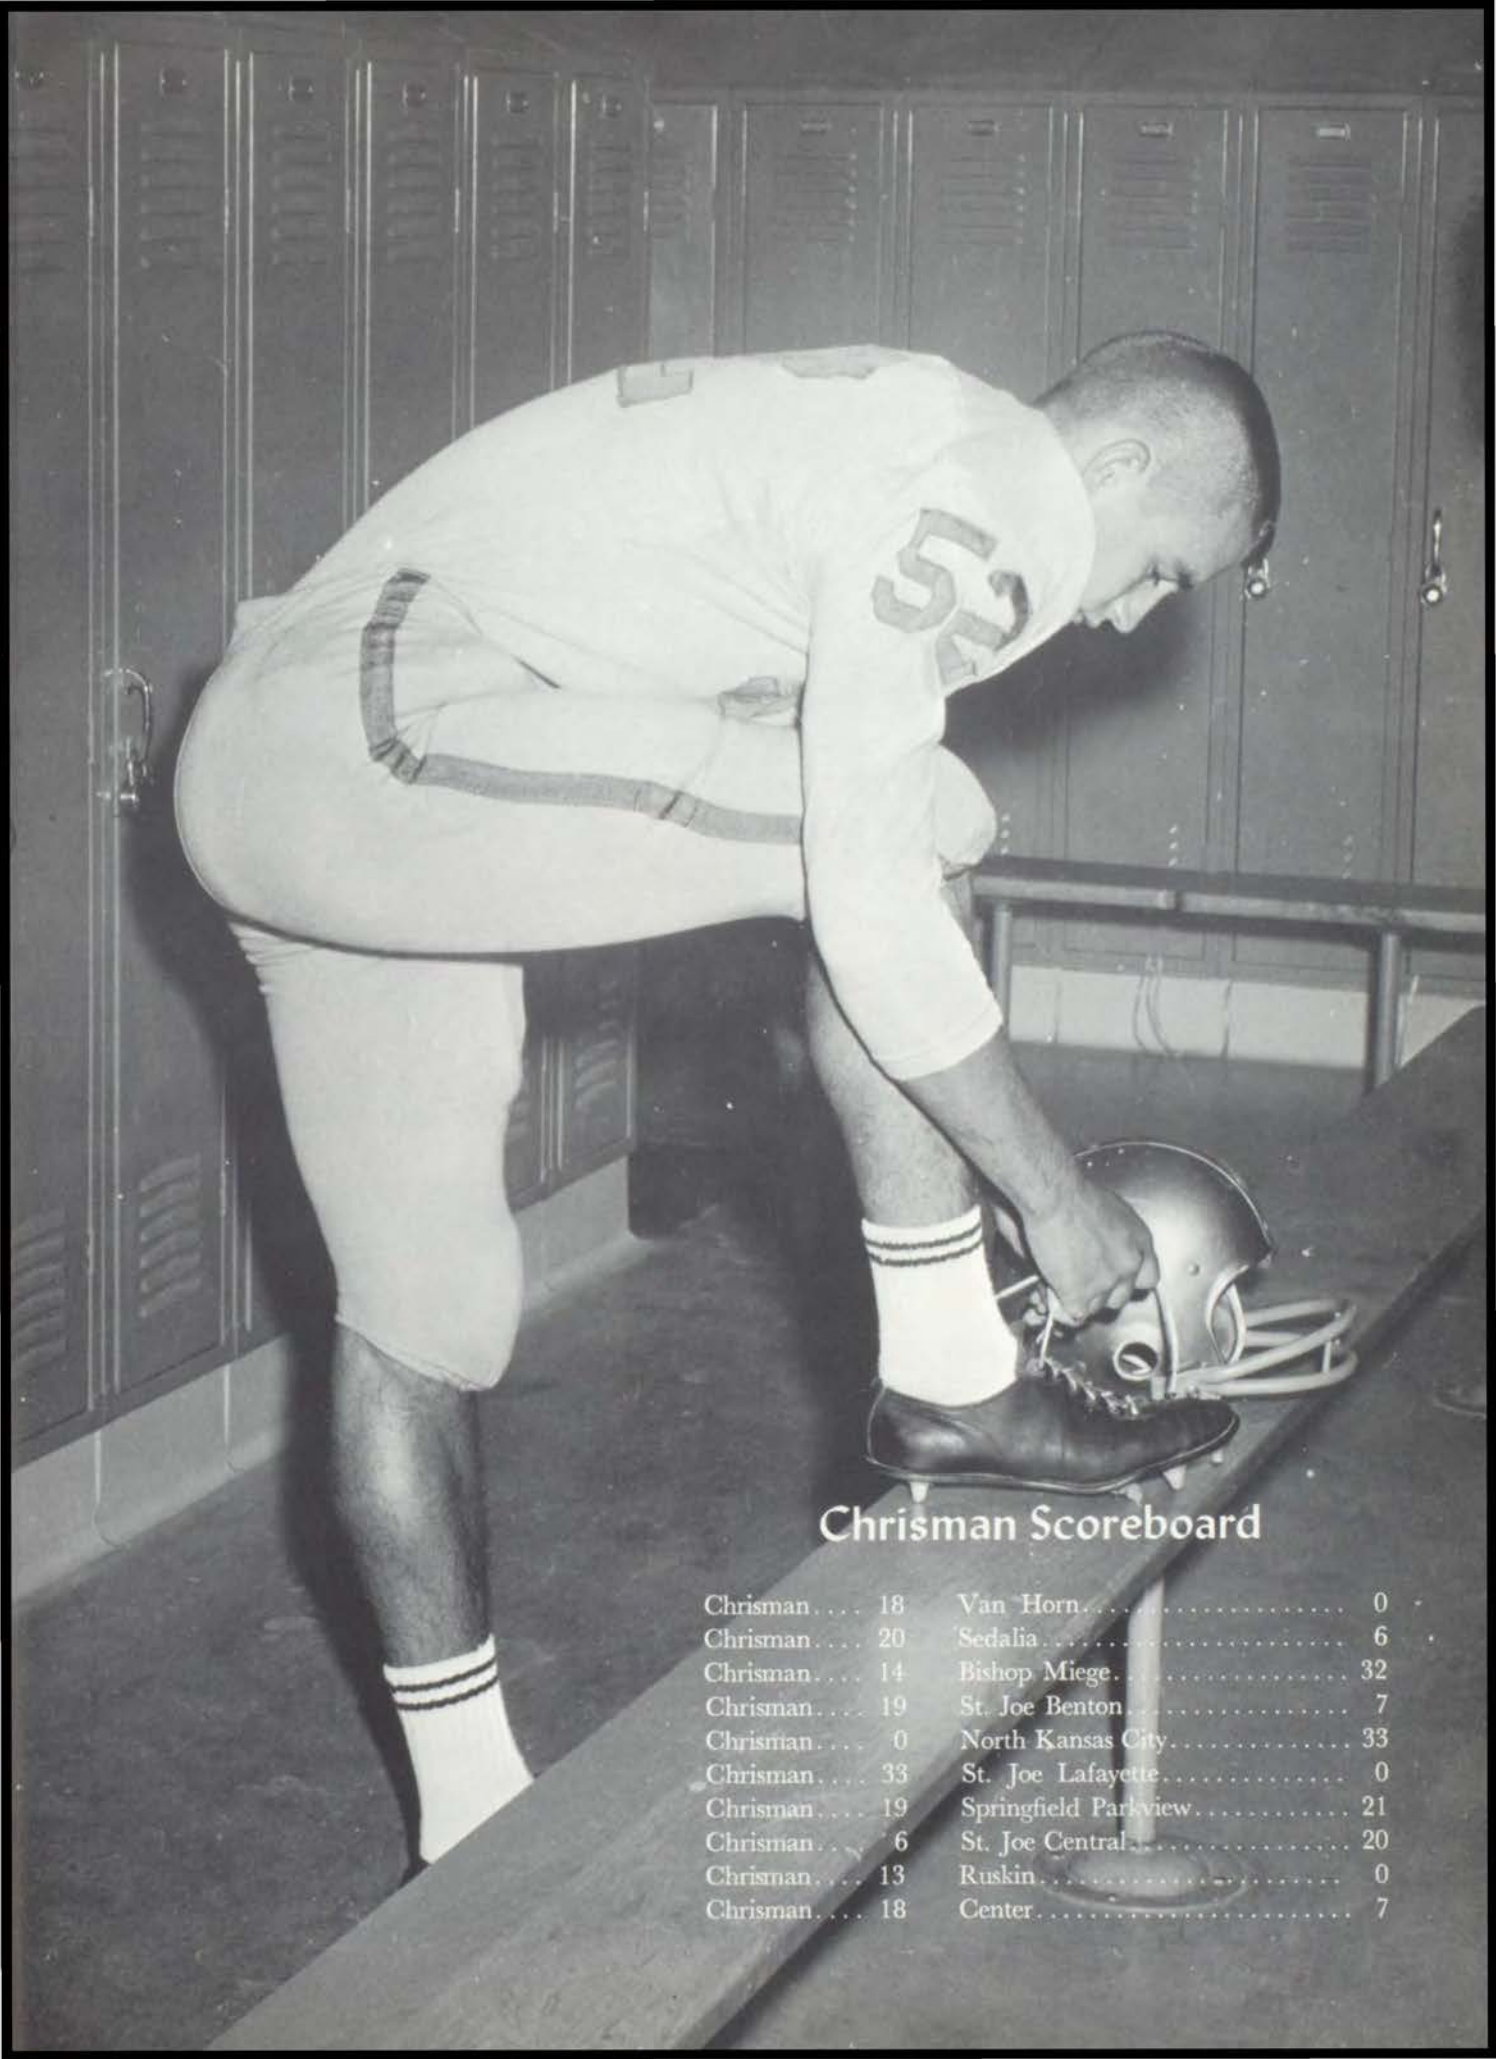

As a team, Chrisman was led by halfback Pat Hogan who made the first offensive unit on the Pony Express All-Conference Team. He scored 67 points including nine touchdowns and seven extra points. Pat picked up 607 total yards rushing, 597 on the ground, on 106 carries for a 5.6 yards a carry average.

Quarterback Dick Agee had 24 points on four touchdowns and 13 yards rushing. Terry McReynolds scored three touchdowns while amassing 369 total yards on 72 carries for a 4.8 yards a carry average. Lionel Robinson had 269 yards total on 73 carries but did not score. Mike Chappelow had 250 total yards, two touchdowns and a 4.7 yards a carry average.

Cecil Taylor rushed for 265 yards, one touchdown, and a 4.2 average per carry. Jim Taylor had 95 yards rushing and two touchdowns followed by ends Ken Starr, 12 points, Chris Black, six points and Dan Hampton, six points. Place kicker Don Lang had one PAT boot.

Chrisman amassed 2390 total yards for the season while holding their opponents to 1929. This averages 239 yards for Chrisman per game and 193 yards for their opponents. The Bears finished in the middle of the standings with a third place finish in the Pony Express Conference's final year of operation. North Kansas City was first with a 4-0 record. Central finished second at 3-1 followed by Chrisman 2-2, Lafayette 1-3 and Benton 0-4.

Last summer, Chrisman's cheerleaders received a trophy for the best over all squad in the large group classification at the Marshall, Missouri cheerleading clinic. Looking proudly at the trophy are Reita, Eileen, Pat, Karen, Linda, Teri and Vickie.

Bruins experience 23—2 banner year

Coach Dick Buckridge can proudly say that his 1962-1963 basketball team had the best record of any squad since he came to Chrisman. The Bears compiled a regular season record of 20—2, including championships in the North Kansas City and Center tournaments.

Chrisman opened the season against Paseo high school, and the Bears demolished the Pirates, 68—33. The following night, the Bruins walloped the Bears from East, 49—28.

The annual North Kansas City tournament is one of the roughest in the area. Eight teams participated in the event and Chrisman dethroned three time champion Rockhurst in the finals, 61—59. On the way to the championship, the Bears defeated Lillis, 52—38, and St. Joseph Central, 66—48.

Center was the Bruins' next opponent which Chrisman easily handled by the score of 64—50 on the Yellowjackets' court. In the final basketball game before the Christmas holidays, Chrisman beat St. Joseph Benton 54—33 to open Pony Express Conference play on a winning note.

Looking forward to the Rockhurst game the next night, the Bears sneaked by St. Joseph Lafayette, 57—53. However, Chrisman lost its first game of the season the following evening to the Rockhurst Hawks by a score of 61—48 before an SRO crowd at Rockhurst. The next week end, Chrisman had somewhat of a struggle defeating the Benton Cardinals at St. Joseph. The final score was 32—25.

The road weary Bruins returned to Chrisman January 12 to knock off the Northeast Vikings 43—34. Ruskin high school proved to be little opposition as the Bears rolled to an easy 45—23 win. Chrisman spoiled St. Joseph Central's homecoming by running past the Indians, 37—29. On January 22, the Bruins received their most heartbreaking defeat of the season at the hands of Lee's Summit, 49—50. Chrisman led virtually all the way until the final seconds when the Tigers exploded for the win in their gym.

Arch-rival North Kansas City became Chrisman's next victim, 60—41. Defeating Northtown with such ease is a rare occurrence. On February 1-2, the Bears participated in the Center tournament. Chrisman had little trouble with its first round foe, Grandview. The final score was 62—43. The Bruins won first place in the tourney for the fourth straight year by beating Center 69—59, in the championship game.

Glory came to the Bears' camp the following week as Chrisman won the Pony Express conference crown by dumping St. Joseph Central, 52—48. The Bruins barely defeated North Kansas City in a rematch at Northtown. The Hornets tried valiantly for an upset but fell short, 47—45. Westport was more trouble for the Bears than expected. However, Chrisman won the game, 67—59.

Grandview made an all out effort to defeat the Bruins at homecoming, but their attempt was not sufficient as Chrisman clobbered the Bulldogs, 70—46. In the final regularly scheduled game of the season, the Bears traveled to St. Joseph Lafayette where they defeated the Shamrocks, 52—49.

William Chrisman continued its mastery over the opposition by defeating Northeast, 49—43, in the first round of the regional tournament. The Bears had an easier time their next outing when they rolled past Van Horn 59—41. However, in the finals, Chrisman barely managed to edge out De LaSalle to win the regional title and advance to the state tournament. The Bruins' preliminary round opponent in the state tourney was Southeast.

Chrisman's guards have given the school a reputation of being a sound defensive club. Three of the reasons are Ken Black, Larry Robinson and Frank Schaffer. Robinson constantly delighted the spectators with his ball stealing tactics, and Schaffer was an excellent sixth man who strengthened the team effort.

Bob Nelson was Chrisman's scoring leader throughout the season and one of the best outside shooters in the area. Lowell Miller and Dave Harris were starting forwards, and both boys were clutch defensive players.

Push ups are a very necessary exercise in all the gym classes at Chrisman. They build back and arm muscles.

One of the favorite games played by the gym classes at division I this year was the "Black Bottom." The game proved to be a very good floor polisher, and its purpose is to keep the ball away from the opposing team while remaining seated.

Boys at division II have a race everyday when they go outside to see who can get to the campus first. They take their gym training at the campus in nice weather and then they run back to get ready for their next class.

Coach Robert McHenry reviews soccer rules with his second hour gym class at division II. The game is composed of two teams, each attempting to kick the ball over the other teams' goal line.

build sound bodies and keen minds

Running in place helps to strengthen leg muscles. The boys are instructed to hold their hands above their heads to make the exercise more worthwhile. This is just part of the daily routine the boys go through in carrying out their physical fitness program at Chrisman.

Intramural teams consist of more than one hundred boys who like to play basketball, but do not play on the regular high school team. Ten different teams alternate and play each other every Wednesday evening. At the end of the year the eight best

Intramural teams manifest much action

Who's got the ball? Smith's Smeefoes and Craig's Christy's tangle in a wild exhibition of basketball.

A scramble for the rebound is quite evident in this picture. Varsity players are given the honor of refereeing the intramural games.

Freshman coach was Robert McHenry. His squads proved that Chrisman will be supplied with winning teams for the next several years.

Jeff Miller and Larry Reeves were sophomore managers for the 1962-1963 basketball season.

Coaches, managers exert their efforts

Left: Larry Chambers aided cheerleaders by performing stunts. His special stunt was an aerial flip. Herschel Hatley was better known as "Willy," the Chrisman mascot, during the basketball season.

Below: Equipment and all around handymen were freshman managers J. Shuler, J. Keeton and T. Flowers.

Thanks to Everyone . . .

Administrators, faculty members, students, photographers and the yearbook company personnel — have all endeavored to achieve the publication of the 1963 Gleam.

Members of the Gleam staff and the sponsor take this opportunity to express their sincere appreciation for the effort and cooperation of all these persons in the accomplishment of their task.

An especial thanks to Al Isreal and Phillip Pearson for the aerial view of Chrisman on page 2 and page 3.

The record of Chrisman's 1962-1963 school year was made possible by the invaluable help given to the staff and sponsor by their friends . . . a sincere thank you to all of them.

Moments to Remember

The many nights we did the town,
the times we tore the goalpost down,
We will have these moments to remember.
The quiet talks, the noisy fun,
the Beartown prize we almost won,
We will have these moments to remember.
Tho' summer turns to winter
and the present disappears,
The laughter we were glad to share
will echo through the years.
When other nights and other days
may find us gone our separate ways,
We will have these moments to remember.
