Biographical Sketch

Gladys Naomi Sweigart, daughter of James and Lucy, was born April 22, 1900 in Kansas City, Kansas, the youngest of three children and the only daughter. By 1910, Gladys had lost her father; she and her seamstress mother lived at 766 Muncie Blvd. Gladys attended church at 2nd Presbyterian Church which was located at 15th and Broadway in downtown Kansas City, Missouri, until its move to 55th and Brookside Blvd. in 1916.

Gladys excelled at her studies at both Riverside Elementary and Kansas City Kansas High School and was active in many academic and social clubs. Gladys graduated at the top of her class in 1917 and matriculated at the University of Kansas where she was awarded the inaugural Frank Egbert Bryant Memorial Scholarship in 1919. After her graduation in 1920, Gladys attended graduate courses at KU and taught school in Glasco, Cloud County, Kansas.

In 1928, Gladys wed Richard E. Clark, a bookkeeper, and settled into married life as a homemaker with her husband and her mother at 1940 Tennyson St. in Kansas City, Kansas. By 1940, Richard and Gladys had moved to St. Ferdinand, St. Louis County, Missouri, where Richard continued working in bookkeeping and Gladys continued as a homemaker. In October 1969, Richard died in Bradenton, Manatee County, Florida. Gladys Naomi Sweigart Clark died October 15, 1988, and is buried next to Richard in Skyway Memorial Gardens. The couple had no known children.

Scope and Content Note

The Memory Book of Gladys Naomi Sweigart consists of a mass-produced, soft-covered book entitled The Girl Graduate: Her Own Book that Sweigart used from the summer of 1916 through fall 1917 to document her senior year at Kansas City Kansas High School (now Wyandotte High School.) The Memory Book includes photographs of schoolmates, programs from school and social events, newspaper clippings, handwritten notes, and autographs by schoolmates and teachers. Ephemera found inside the book includes: a placard in support of a streetcar operators' strike, notecards to Gladys, newspaper illustrations, and a felt University of Kansas Jayhawk pennant. Materials are arranged generally topically.
