NEW-JERSEY, MAY 16.—

SPEECH of his Excellency WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Esq., Captain General, Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over the Province of NEW-JERSEY, and Territories thereon depending in America, Chancellor and Vice Admiral of the same, &c.

To the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the said Province, Convened at Burlington.

Gentlemen of the Council, and Gentlemen of the General Assembly.

THE sole occasion of my calling you together at this time is to lay before you a resolution of the House of Commons wisely and humanely calculated to open a door to the restoration of that harmony between Great-Britain and her American colonies on which their mutual welfare and happiness so greatly depend.

This resolution, having already appeared in the public papers, and a great variety of interpretations put upon it, mostly according to the different views and dispositions by which men are actuated and scarcely any having seen it in its proper light, I think I cannot at this juncture better answer the gracious purposes of his Majesty, nor do my country more essential service than to lay before you as full an explanation of the occasion, purport and intent of it as is in my power. By this means you, and the good people you represent, will be enabled to judge for yourselves how far you ought or ought not to acquiesce with the plan it contains, and what steps it will be prudent for you to take on this very important occasion.

You will see in the King's answer to the joint address of both Houses of Parliament on the 7th of February, how much attention his Majesty was graciously pleased to give to the assurance held out in that address, of the readiness of Parliament to afford every just and reasonable indulgence to the colonies whenever they should make a proper application on the ground of any real grievance they might have to complain of. This address was accordingly soon followed by the resolution of the House of Commons now laid before you. A circumstance which afforded his Majesty great satisfaction, as it gave room to hope for a happy effect, and would, at all events, ever remain an evidence of their justice and moderation and manifest the temper which has accompanied their deliberations upon that question which has been the source of so much disquiet to the King's subjects in America.

His Majesty, ardently wishing to see a reconciliation of the unhappy differences by every means through which it may be obtained without prejudice to the just authority of Parliament, which his Majesty will never suffer to be violated, has approved the resolution of his faithful Commons, and has commanded it to be transmitted to the governors of his colonies, not doubting that this happy disposition to comply with every just and reasonable wish of the King's subjects in America will meet with such a return of duty and affection on their part as will lead to a happy issue of the present dispute, and to a re-establishment of the public tranquillity on those grounds of equity, justice and moderation which this resolution holds forth.

What has given the King the greater satisfaction in this resolution, and the greater confidence in the good effects of it, is his having seen that, amidst all the intemperance into which a people, jealous of their liberties, have been unfortunately misled, they have nevertheless avowed the justice, the equity, and the propriety of subjects of the same State contributing, according to their abilities and situation, to the public burdens, and this resolution, it is thought, holds no proposition beyond that.

It would probably be deemed unjust to suppose, that any of the King's subjects in the colonies can have so far forgot the benefits they have received from the parent State as not to acknowledge that it is to her support, held forth at the expense of her blood and treasure, that they principally owe that security which has raised them to their present state of opulence and importance. In this situation, therefore, justice requires that they should, in return, contribute according to their respective abilities, in common defence, to the public welfare and interest of the empire.

It has been the wish of Parliament, and their wish

WINNETONKA HIGH SCHOOL

CONGRES

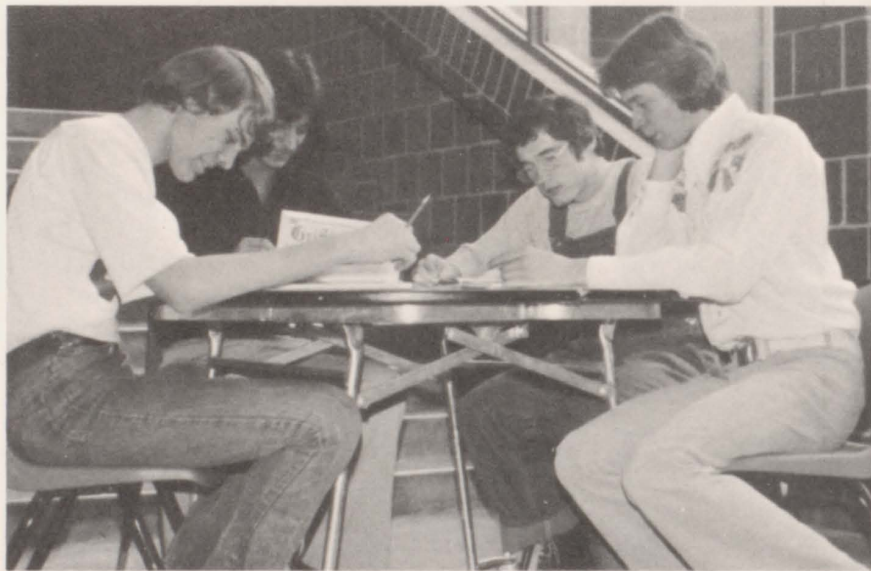

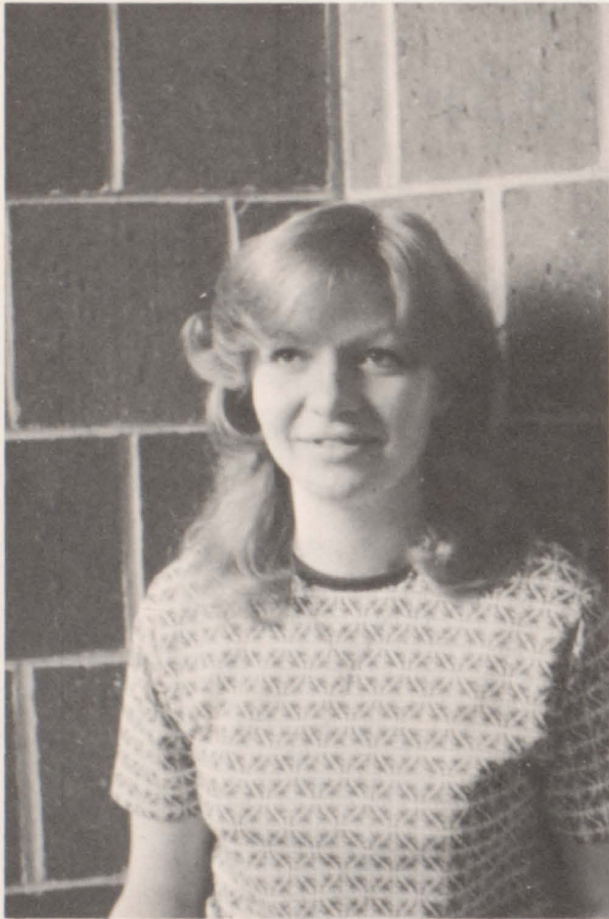

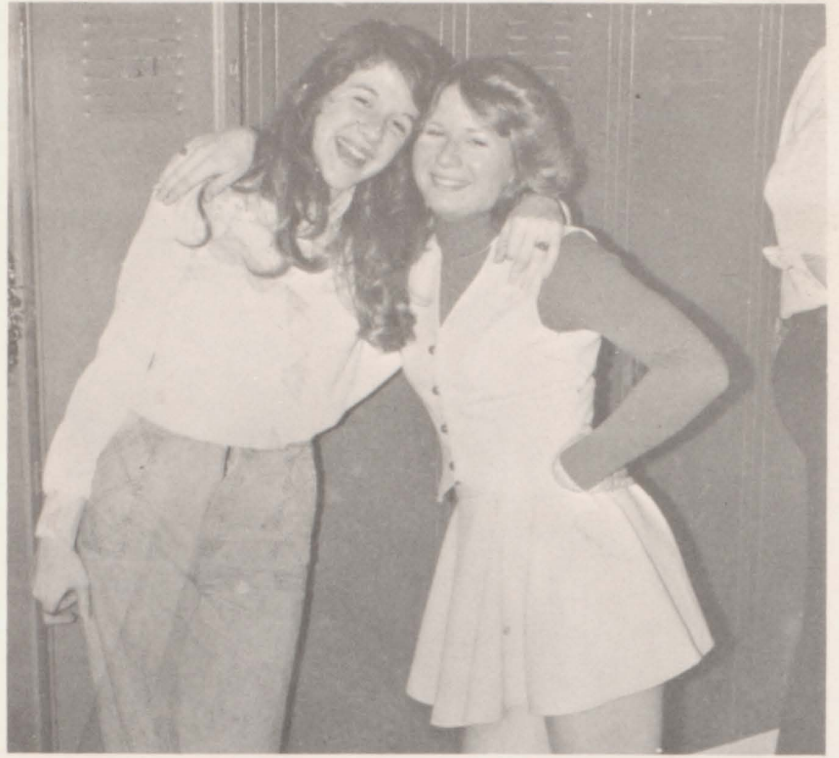

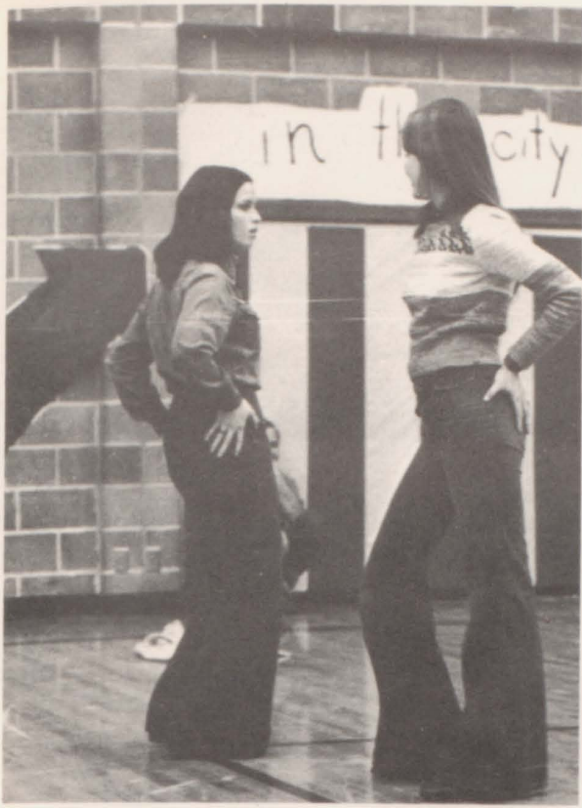

Along with the conclusion of the 1976 Bicentennial year comes the time for the search of innerself.

It is now realized that one must openly confront his past in order to grow and face the future.

And, that there is no shame in error, as long as it is understood that in error comes knowledge, and in knowledge, the beginning step of man. Let Odyssey take you back through the past year when the bad times were pushed away and the good times remain; yet, each event slipped away into history.

Once in the life time of man comes the return of reality, for there is no seclusion, and there are no unanswerable questions. There is, however, the confounding attempt which makes the difficult seem possible, and the impossible, fantasy.

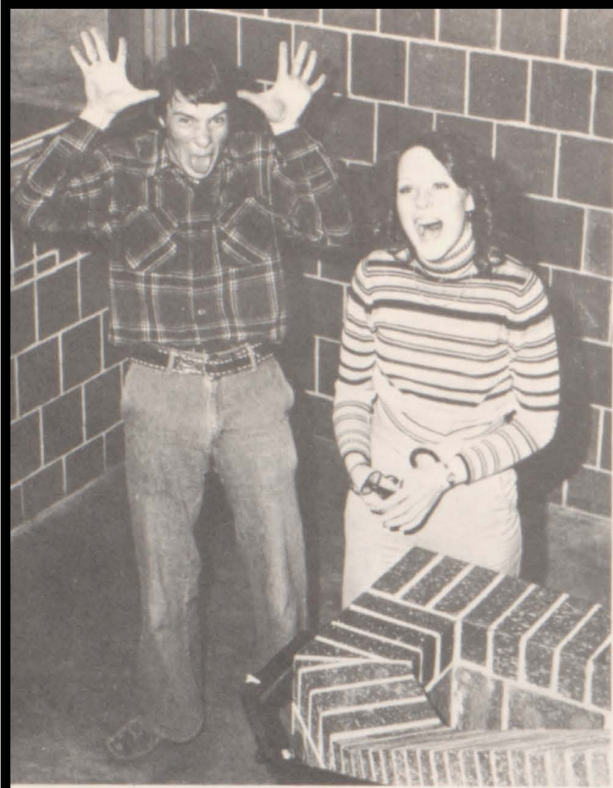

The school year passed quickly for some - for others, time dragged on endlessly. Students struggled through classes, cheered their way to moments of triumph, and cried in the face of death. They found that new friends and experiences could never replace those which were lost; rather, they expanded their awareness and broadened their scope of understanding.

Baccalaureate . . . Prom . . . Bicentennial . . .
Graduation . . .
Do they mean a nostalgic emptiness at the end of a search?
Or do they mean the joy of freedom - the liberty and responsibility to begin and continue the search for real knowledge?
To hope and pray for peace and love in a world where it is difficult to find beauty, happiness, or someone who will listen.
Being truly alive is searching . . .
One must not let these searchers die.

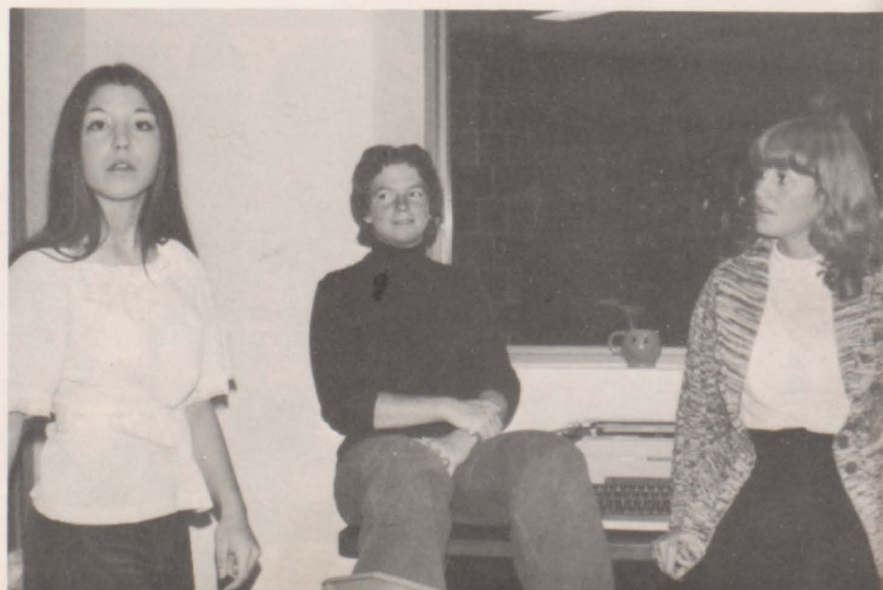

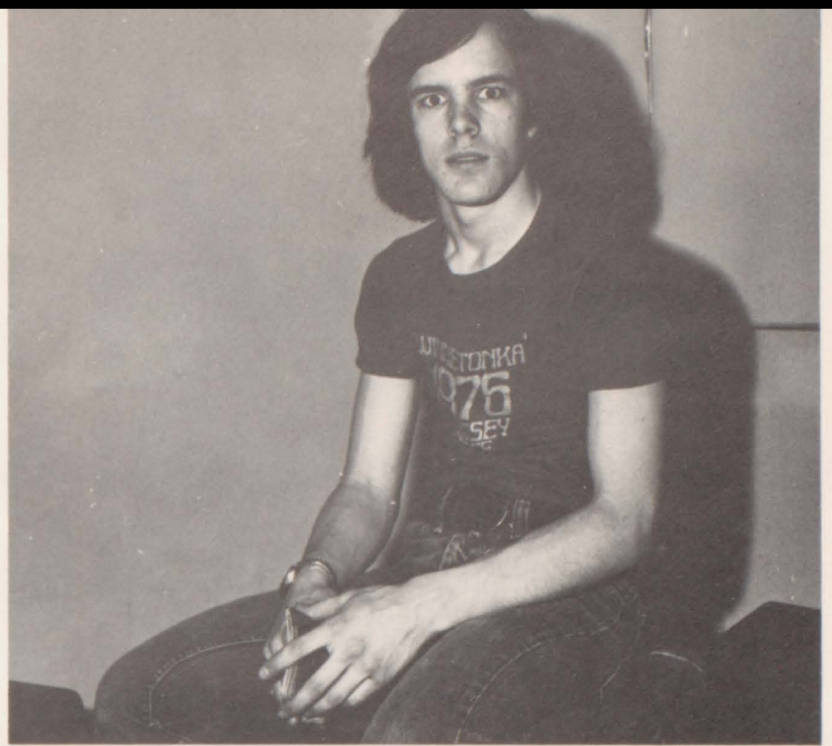

As Winnetonka Griffins, and as individual people, school life was a patchwork quilt of emotions:

Good days, bad times, hilarious situations, and boredom - All sewn together to form a year of memories.

Looking back on this year you find that the laughter and fun have overshadowed the sadness and boredom. Keeping this fact in mind, you can look with anticipation towards future years.

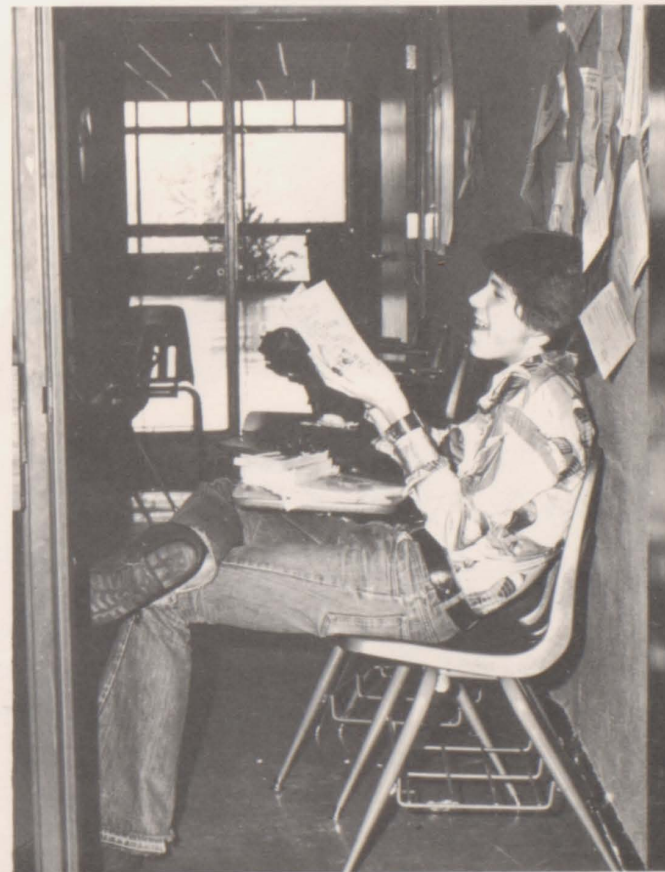

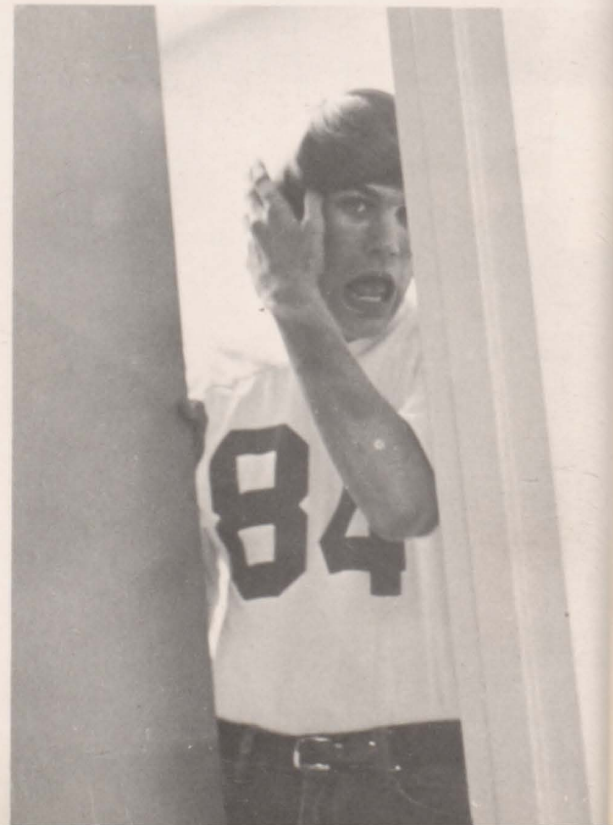

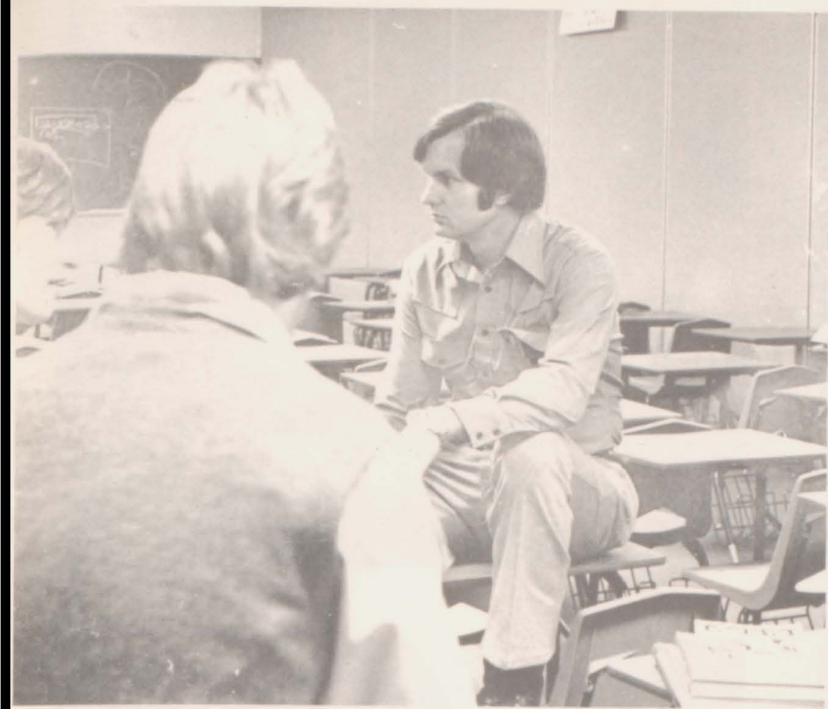

Time was fleeting by, but no one cared.
Everyone was too alive to be defeated;
Endless days of

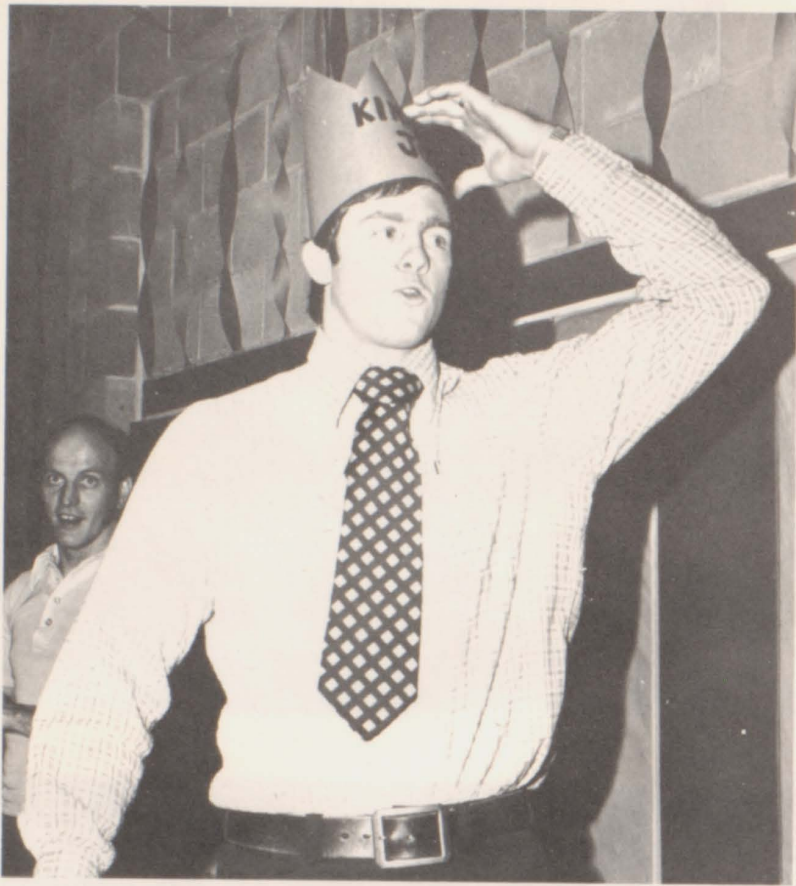

- football games in pouring rain,
- midnight snacks at pizza places,
- and the strange and gentle love shared;

But now time has stopped and memories are reality.
These precious days are gone and suddenly . . . they care . . .

Seniors

Seniors end one journey ready to begin another

The bicentennial senior year will remain unique in the seniors' minds, for this honor is one not shared by others.

Under the leadership of Joe Miquelon, Melody DeMar, and JoAnn Bowman, assisted by Miss Jeannie Daffron and Mr. Adrian Carl, the seniors hoped the hours and effort they gave to Winnetonka contributed to its future, as well as its past. A sense of accomplishment was created along with their achievements; basketball fame, male cheerleaders, music, drama, and forensic awards.

As the leaders of the school, at the end of a long journey, they found Winnetonka to be a part of themselves. They left with the hope that they became a part of Winnetonka.

Women perform vital tasks

Vital to the successful operation of any school are the secretaries. Winnetonka's Mrs. Ann Hayes, Mrs. Rosa Lee Collier, Mrs. Lucille Henson, Mrs. Bonnie Olds, Mrs. Loretta Talbott ran the main office with little trouble. They created a pleasant and positive attitude for students, teachers, and parents, along with their required secretarial work. Mrs. Mary Duckworth took care of all the counselors' secretarial needs.

A helpful addition to the office staff was the Instructional Assistants. They took on many varied activities. Miss Denise Brown often helped Mrs. Talbott at the attendance desk. At other times they could be found supervising the lunch room, helping in the office, library, or substituting for a teacher.

Teachers star in announcement of the musical

Teachers show enthusiasm

I believe in boys and girls, the men and women of tomorrow; that whatsoever the boy saveth the man shall reap.

I believe in the curse of ignorance; in the efficacy of schools; in the dignity of teaching; and in the joy of serving others.

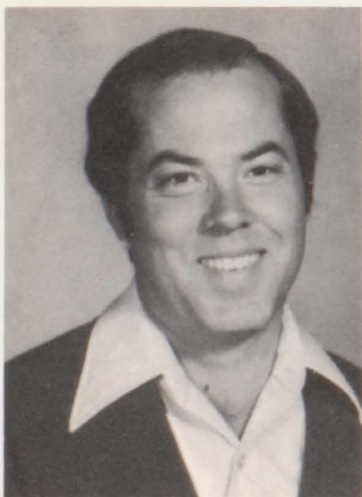

I believe in wisdom as revealed in human lives as well as in the pages of the printed book; in lessons taught, not so much by precept as by example; in ability to work with the hands as well as to think with the head; in everything that makes life large and lovely.

I believe in the schoolroom, in the home, in daily life and out-of-doors.

I believe in laughter; in love; in faith; in all ideas and distant hopes that lure us on.

I believe that every hour of every day we receive a just reward for all we are and all we do.

I believe in the present and its opportunities; in the future and its promises; and in the divine joy of living.

Cafeteria workers and janitors work together

Arriving bright and early each morning, were the cafeteria ladies who served breakfast and started preparing lunches for the many hungry Griffins. In charge of this dutiful task was food service manager Mrs. Wilma Conley, who had to figure out how to serve nutritional, yet appealing lunches despite the rising cost of food.

The cafeteria workers were Fern Fisher, Shirley Fisk, Hazel Browning, Jo Ann Collins, Helen Deason, Roberta McCleery, Cathy Pennington, Melba Balwin, Wilma Conley, Carolyn Curbine, Betty Hodges, Marge Cain, Revay Hartley, Mare Mooneyhan, and Linda Marla.

Keeping Winnetonka's physical appearance in tip-top condition were the crew of custodians headed by Harold Simmons. Pushing brooms, vacuuming carpets, and cleaning windows were just a few of the many responsibilities of the janitor crew.

The custodians were "Red" Welch, Harold Simmons, Warren Schmidt, Sylvia Malott, James Lindsay.

They raised their money this year by selling Cokes at football, basketball, and wrestling games. Key Club was sponsored by the North Kansas City Kiwanis International Club and, here at Winnetonka, by Mr. Glen Eden.

AFS hosts two exchange students

Winnetonka was fortunate to have two AFS students this year. They were Ana Alves from Brazil and Amin Wahib from Lebanon. Ana lived with Jamie Bennett and her family and Amin spent this year with Trint Hanson and his family.

The AFS club sponsored an all school magazine sale, sold holly, swingers, and T-shirts in order to raise money for exchange students and to send Winnetonka students abroad.

One of the main activities each year for AFS is AFS Day, where the students here at Winnetonka have an opportunity to learn about the countries of many AFS exchange students. They also had a Halloween and Christmas party each year. To wind up the year AFS had a banquet to announce the new officers.

Advisors for AFS were Mrs. Ann Niepman and Mrs. Cheryl Jones. This year's President was Donna Gould.

Pep club changes style

Under the leadership of Mary Beth Marshall, the '75-'76 Pep Club supported and sponsored many events during the year. The club was based on a new format of trying to involve the whole school, rather than just club members. Red and gold members cheered the Griffins on to success, in not only sports, but music, forensics, and others.

This year six boys were added to the varsity cheerleading squad. The co-ed squad practiced through the fall season and the boys were introduced at the basketball games. They assisted the girls with stunts, cheers, and pyramids at games to promote spirit. They will be a continuing Winnetonka tradition.

The girls practiced throughout the summer and attended camp in Springfield during August. There they won five first place ribbons in performance. They also received the spirit stick to bring home to Winnetonka.

Club acquires equipment for broadcasting

Winnetonka's Radio Club had been a club for two years but only this year during second semester did it acquire any useful equipment. Dual turntables, a sound mixer board, and a flexible microphone gave Winnetonka station WHSR musical entertainment during seminar. The junior disc jockeys and engineers practiced strenuously, while some members studied information for the FCC third class broadcasting license.

New coach heads debate squad

Under the wing of a new coach, the debate squad experienced another highly successful season. Miss Martha Goodall, graduate of Southwest Missouri State University, sponsored debate for the first time this year.

With leadership provided by club President, Cindy Eber, Vice-President, Curtis Stock, and Secretary-Treasurer, Candy Elledge, the group traveled to tournaments across the state. Teams achieved their more important victories at the District and State contests. Cindy Eber and Larry Lane became the tenth ranked debate team in Missouri, while Lane advanced to National competition in the Student Congress House of Representatives.

When not competing in almost 6000 tournament rounds, events were held throughout the year for the squad that were purely social.

Staff strives for perfection

The 1976 Odyssey staff, guided by sponsor Mrs. Cynthia Schwalm and editor, Debbie Cezar, worked diligently to wind up the year long task of putting out the 1975-76 yearbook. The Bicentennial themed annual not only tried to recapture the events of the school, but also joined in the celebration of the country's 200th birthday.

As in the years past, the staff began the sales campaign by choosing seven girls to sell yearbooks for the title of Odyssey Queen. Princess Nancy Rector and Queen Kara Thompson were crowned at an all school assembly held at the close of the sale.

Cross-country goes to state

Winnetonka's cross-country team had a winning season this year, finishing eleventh in state. Coached by Pete Hager, the team placed well in most of the meets and finished in first place in the district meet. The team finished third in the conference meet behind Raytown South and Truman. The meets preceding the district meet were not to determine who would compete in the state meet. Finishing first or second in district would enable the team to reach state.

The Junior Varsity team had just as good a record by beating Raytown South for the championship for the first time in seven years. Another high point in the season was finishing first in the Oak Park Invitational.

Griffins take share of conference title

The 1975-76 football season was a winning year for the Griffins. They finished with a 6-4 record and a share of the conference title.

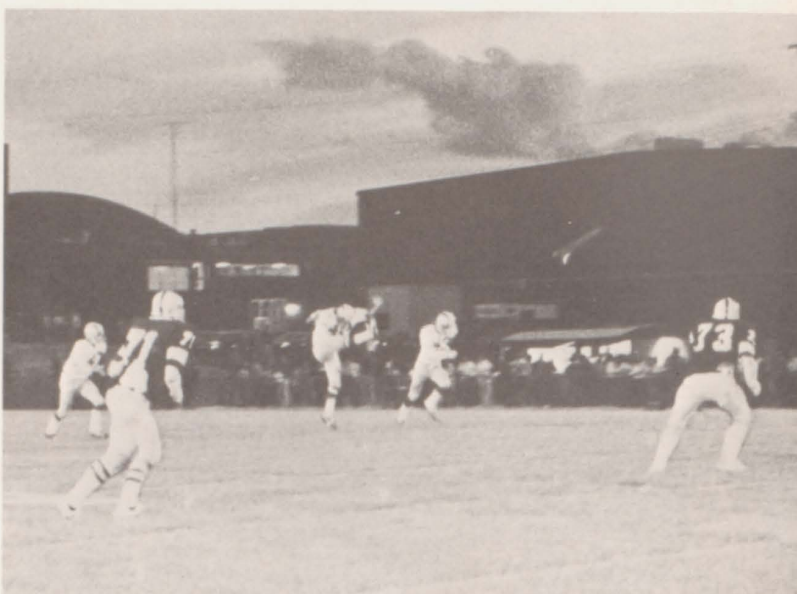

In the earlier part of the season, the Griffins started slow losing to Lee's Summit and Shawnee Mission Northwest in a close contest. The third game of the season was a turn of the tide as the Griffins overpowered its rival school, North Kansas City, 33-16.

The next game on the Griffin's schedule was going to be one of the closest games of the season. Truman came out on the short end as Winnetonka coasted to a 34-30 victory.

The next three games were lose games, but the Griffins came away with three victories over Ray South, St. Joe. Central, and Hickman Mills.

Heading into the latter part of the season, the Griffins had trouble with conference opponents losing to Raytown and Oak Park in hard fought battles.

The Griffins finished out the season against state power, Jefferson City. The Griffins steamrolled the Jays 34-19 to keep their winning tradition.

Sophomores tackle tough schedule

"The sophomore football team did have talent, but did not live up to their potential," Coach Lee Townsend sums up the football season.

Sophomores had trouble for the year putting it all together. They ended their season with two ties, and one win with five losses. The main factor contributing to their lack of success was the overwhelming amount of injuries during practice and games.

The Griffins traveled to Lee's Summit to meet their first rival. They walked off the field in a 6-6 tie.

The sophomores received their first battle of defeat in the next game against Shawnee Mission Northwest. This downfall did not keep the Griffins in low spirit. They came back to tie North Kansas City 6-6 and went on to be victorious against Truman 18-14.

During the rest of the season, sophomore Griffins fell face to face with defeat.

Griffins end season victorious

The Varsity basketball team turned in the best record in Winnetonka's history with fourteen wins and only two losses. The team came away with no wins in the home court. All this put the Griffins first in conference, ninth in Metro, and tenth in state.

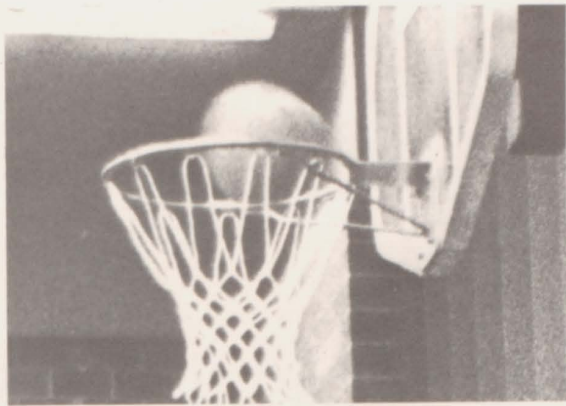

One of the Griffins' best efforts was when they took first in the Winnetonka Invitational Tournament. In the NKC Tournament they came in second, losing only to Raytown South.

Three Griffin basketball players received recognition in all conference. Bill Sobbe made first team; Dave Zeller second team; and Terry Olsen received an Honorable Mention. Also, Bill Sobbe made second team on all Metro and Honorable Mention all State, along with being voted as the team's most valuable player.

Winnetonka's Junior Varsity and Sophomore basketball teams showed great promise for the future. The Junior Varsity team, under the guidance of Mr. Vern Peterson, turned in a record of nine wins and seven losses.

The Sophomore team, led by Mr. Steve Howard, finished the year with a record of twelve wins and six losses. The team did outstandingly by finishing out their season with second place in the Oak Park Invitational.

The Griffin Wrestling team, coached by Don Giannola, in his first year of teaching at Winnetonka, had a good season ending with a 7-4 record.

The team sent four members to regionals; Phil Calvert, Jeff Jenkins, Bill Pickens and Sam Manthei. Phil Calvert and Jeff Jenkins advanced to state with Phil taking sixth and Jeff taking fifth.

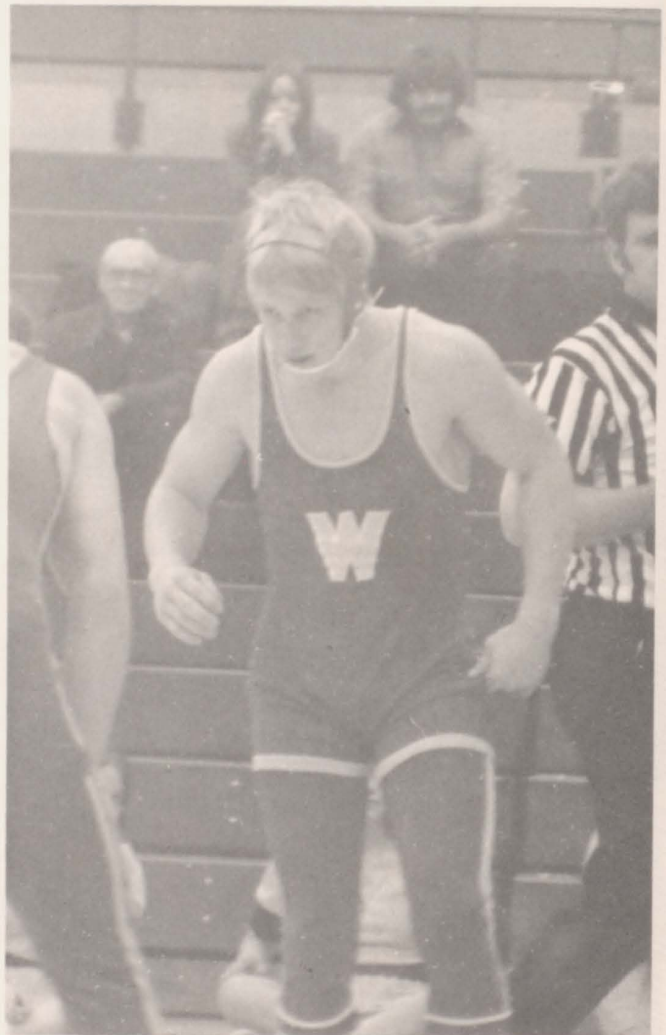

Coach Giannola stated, "It was an outstanding season for rebuilding the team. We had only three men with varsity experience."

Girls' talents prove successful

Winnetonka's second girls' interscholastic tennis team proved as talented as their first when they once again racked up the conference championship. The coach of the 1975-1976 team was Mrs. Donna Johnson. The season's record for the year's varsity team was 11 wins and only two defeats. The junior varsity record was 12 wins and one defeat. Both the junior varsity and varsity squad lost only one conference match.

Mrs. Johnson felt several Griffin girls should be congratulated on their fine season record. Jenny Wrigley took second place in the conference tournament for varsity singles while Sheila Baker took first for junior varsity and Anne Hicks second for junior varsity. In the district tournament the team of Jenny Wrigley and Cathy Ward took third place in doubles. The doubles team of Carol Lyons and Roxane Salisbury were the best in their conference as they lost only one match all season.

Girls display competitive spirit

For the second year in a row girls' volleyball was in the interscholastic sports line-up for Winnetonka. The coach of the 1975-1976 volleyball team was Ms. Janet Bicknell while team captains were Cathy Kidwell on varsity and Teresa Rooney on junior varsity.

The junior varsity squad ended the season with six game wins and nine game losses. The varsity squad won eight games while losing twenty-three. Tournament victories consisted of taking sixth place by varsity in their own invitational.

Perhaps the most exciting game the Griffin girls participated in this year was with their arch enemy Oak Park. Ms. Bicknell felt that her team fought extremely hard even though they lost both games of the match (12-15) and (9-15).

Tracksters overcome setbacks

The Griffins opened their season with an immediate victory in a dual meet against Hickman Mills. Throughout the remainder of the season the Winnetonka runners fell to defeat. Placing sixth in conference the tracksters saw little hope for a successful season.

However, at district finals the Griffin tracksters gave a startling exhibition. Eight out of the twelve Griffin participants placed, enabling them to go to State contest. These athletes were: Bret Allinson placing first in discus, Terry Olson with first in high jump and Russ Orth with second; Dale Chenowith with second in the mile, and the two mile relay team with fourth place consisting of Mark Hoppe, Mike Hodson, Monty Stanley and Glenn Dysart. This gave the team an overall standing of fifth out of fourteen teams. This was the most people Winnetonka had ever sent to State.

Griffin cinderwomen are victorious

For the second year in a row the Winnetonka girls' track team proved to be made up of outstanding athletes. Heading these athletes was sprinter, junior Jenny Wrigley and distance runner, sophomore Vickie Barbosa. Among the 1976 season victories were five wins with only two losses and eight new school records. The 1976 cinderwomen took second place in conference and fourth place in district. Jenny Wrigley and Tammy Beals advanced to the state meet representing Winnetonka.

Griffins finish strong to compile 12-9 record

Despite numerous rain-outs in the season the Griffins fashioned an impressive 12-9 overall record and a 6-3 Conference mark in baseball.

The Griffins came on strong after a weak start, only winning three games out of the first eleven games.

As a team, Winnetonka batted .253. Bill Sobbe led the sluggers with a .421 batting average. Sobbe also led in runs scored and base hits.

The pitching corps was led by Danny Minor with a 2.17 ERA. Joe Macaluso boasted a total of 50 strikeouts to lead in that department.

The Griffins placed five men on the All-Conference team.

Golfers end season even-up

Winnetonka's 1976 golf team had another fine year by recording six victories against six losses. The seasons competition was against some of the finest in the state.

The season was headed with three victories. The losses went to Barstow, Hickman Mills, and Oak Park. Winnetonka placed seventh out of twenty-three in the District Meet. In the Conference Meet, Winnetonka finished fourth.

The Varsity team consisted of two-year letter winners Mike Roberts and Dennis Shipley. One year letter winners were Larry Hobdon, Dennis Proctor and Randy McManus. The Junior Varsity team was made-up of Kent Schlesselman, Tim Witcig, Chris Justice, Dave Billings and Larry Murphy.

Coach Bakker, who was extremely pleased with the squad, said, "Two kids who did not even play Varsity golf last year joined a golf club this year, at their own expense, in order to improve their games. This is just one example of the extra effort which made 1976 the most successful season yet for WHS golf."

Girls' basketball completes first interscholastic season

A new varsity sport, Girls' Basketball, emerged on the scene of Winnetonka's interscholastic activities this past year. The Griffin girls' first year in this sport unfortunately proved a lack of experience as they won only one game all season. However, Coach Lindsay felt that there were several hard fought games that should not be overlooked because the Griffins score came within five points of their opponent. Of these were an overtime game with St. Pius that brought a Griffin defeat by one point and a hard fought battle with arch rival North Kansas City that showed a final score of 36-40 in another Griffin loss.

The coach of the 1975-1976 Girls' Basketball Team was Mr. Bill Lindsay. The co-captains of the varsity squad were Lorrie Lightfoot and Kara Thompson while junior varsity co-captains were Suzy Hamerle and Charla Smith.

Molly Brown remains afloat

"The Unsinkable Molly Brown," Winnetonka's all school musical, gave five sell-out performances the nights of March 19, 20, 25, 26, and 27. Over 500 students and faculty participated in this annual event. It was the story of the legendary Molly Brown and her husband, Johnnie, and their lives together during the first part of the century. The audience was taken from the gold and silver mines of Colorado to the palaces of Europe, in Meredith Wilson's classic musical comedy.

Different departments under the sponsorship of various teachers combined their efforts and time to make this musical a memorable one.

Henry VIII
Bob Crews

The 1975-76 Winnetonka Theatre season opened with the award winning production of The Six Wives of Henry VIII by Herbert Martin. The production was a first in high school theatre for the Metropolitan Kansas City area. The set for each play was the same: a stage of three bare platforms onto which a few representational props were moved. The costuming represented the dress of that time.

The play covered the span of time from Henry's acquisition of the throne to his death. The era was depicted as one of social, moral, and religious change.

Because of the length of the show it was presented as the story of two queens per night. Throughout the play, Henry was always the central figure. Each queen's show was repeated twice. The entire run was six evening performances in the main theatre.

With the class of '76 as the special guests of the Junior Class, everyone danced to the sounds of "Saint." The theme was "The Times Of Your Life." ## Vocalists show versatility

The vocal music department of Winnetonka had the single largest percentage of persons enrolled. Consisting of Sophomore Choir, members of which are selected from the outstanding female and male sophomore vocalists, Men's Choir, Girls' Choir Gold, Girls' Choir Red, A Cappella Choir, made up of the best vocalists in all grade levels, Girls' Choir Griffin and Pop Choir, an extracurricular select singing ensemble.

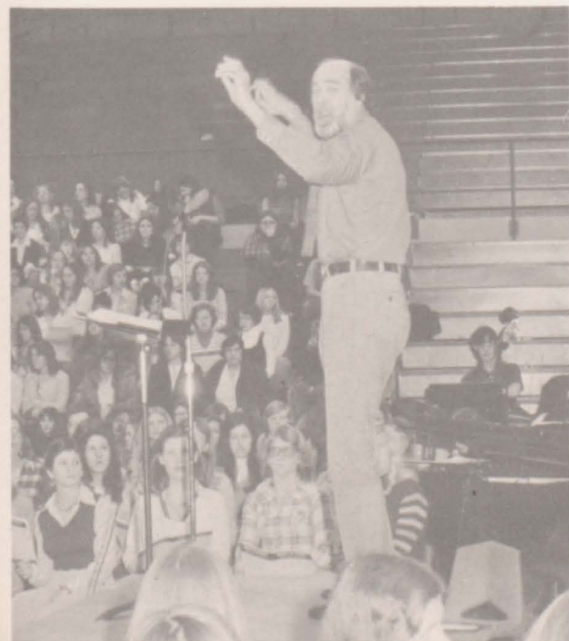

Concerts were held every fall, winter and spring to allow these choirs to perform. An annual Winter Clinic was held with Oak Park and North Kansas City High School choirs under the direction of a guest conductor, this year's being Robert DeCormier from the Eastman School of Music.

A Cappella and Pop Choir had the honor of representing Winnetonka in various performances.

Pop Choir sang from 25 to 40 concerts a year.

The group also performed at this year's Homecoming Assembly, Odyssey Assembly and Christmas Assembly. A Cappella Choir performed January 22 at the Missouri Music Educators Association's annual convention held in Jefferson City and at Senior Honors Night and Baccalaureate. # Sophomores climb to leadership

Becoming a sophomore can be an important change as felt by the '75-'76 Sophomore class. They had to adjust to many new and different surroundings, such as learning about the block system and learning how to make it work for them. They had to adjust to homeroom and study seminar. In essence, they were entering the young adult world of high school and learning to become mature individuals.

The sophomore class was in the hands of Brenda Weddle, Tony Finck, and Linda Brough. They all came together to become Griffins and express "W" pride.

Mrs. Ellen Beery completes 40 years of teaching

Winnetonka High School
requests your presence at a reception honoring the retirement of Miss Ellen Jane Beery
on May 8, 1976
from 1:00 to 5:00 P.M.
Winnetonka Resource Center
5815 NE 48th Street
Kansas City, Missouri

Mrs. Beery is the first teacher to retire from Winnetonka.

Since our first encounter with school we have all come a long way. We have accomplished many of our goals and yet many are still left unseen. Leaving Winnetonka we can look back over all our school days and remember bits and pieces of each year. It seems funny now the things that were important then. But none of us will ever truly forget any of those years. Especially our high school days, we will remember them most; the places we went, the activities we were involved in, and the people we shared these times with. In creating the Oydsey we hope to enable you to preserve the memories and special times you spent at Winnetonka as if they were today forever.

NEW-JERSEY, MAY 16.—

SPEECH of his Excellency WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Esq., Captain General, Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over the Province of NEW-JERSEY, and Territories thereon depending in America, Chancellor and Vice Admiral of the same, &c.

To the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the said Province, Convened at Burlington, Gentlemen of the Council, and Gentlemen of the General Assembly.

THE sole occasion of my calling you together at this time is to lay before you a resolution of the House of Commons wisely and humanely calculated to open a door to the restoration of that harmony between Great-Britain and her American colonies on which their mutual welfare and happiness so greatly depend.

This resolution, having already appeared in the public papers, and a great variety of interpretations put upon it, mostly according to the different views and dispositions by which men are actuated and scarcely any having seen it in its proper light, I think I cannot at this juncture better answer the gracious purposes of his Majesty, nor do my country more essential service than to lay before you as full an explanation of the occasion, purport and intent of it as is in my power. By this means you, and the good people you represent, will be enabled to judge for yourselves how far you ought or ought not to acquiesce with the plan it contains, and what steps it will be prudent for you to take on this very important occasion.

You will see in the King's answer to the joint address of both Houses of Parliament on the 7th of February, how much attention his Majesty was graciously pleased to give to the assurance held out in that address, of the readiness of Parliament to afford every just and reasonable indulgence to the colonies whenever they should make a proper application on the ground of any real grievance they might have to complain of. This address was accordingly soon followed by the resolution of the House of Commons now laid before you. A circumstance which afforded his Majesty great satisfaction, as it gave room to hope for a happy effect, and would, at all events, ever remain an evidence of their justice and moderation and manifest the temper which has accompanied their deliberations upon that question which has been the source of so much disquiet to the King's subjects in America.

His Majesty, ardently wishing to see a reconciliation of the unhappy differences by every means through which it may be obtained without prejudice to the just authority of Parliament, which his Majesty will never suffer to be violated, has approved the resolution of his faithful Commons, and has commanded it to be transmitted to the governors of his colonies, not doubting that this happy disposition to comply with every just and reasonable wish of the King's subjects in America will meet with such a return of duty and affection on their part as will lead to a happy issue of the present dispute, and to a re-establishment of the public tranquillity on those grounds of equity, justice and moderation which this resolution holds forth.

What has given the King the greater satisfaction in this resolution, and the greater confidence in the good effects of it, is his having seen that, amidst all the intemperance into which a people, jealous of their liberties, have been unfortunately misled, they have nevertheless avowed the justice, the equity, and the propriety of subjects of the same State contributing, according to their abilities and situation, to the public burdens, and this resolution, it is thought, holds no proposition beyond that.

It would probably be deemed unjust to suppose, that any of the King's subjects in the colonies can have so far forgot the benefits they have received from the parent State as not to acknowledge that it is to her support, held forth at the expence of her blood and treasure, that they principally owe that security which has raised them to their present state of opulence and importance. In this situation, therefore, justice requires that they should, in return, contribute according to their respective abilities, in common with the subjects of the same Kingdom, to the support of their own welfare and interest.
